

CONNECT AND ENGAGE

Build relationships and make a difference

The Bachelor of Arts in History program at A&M-Central Texas also provides educational and community experiences outside of the classroom.

UNIQUE ACADEMIC RESOURCES: The Central Texas Historical Archive is managed by the History Program at A&M-Central Texas and is dedicated to preserving the political, foreign policy and military history specializing in the Cold War Era. The state-of-the-art archival facility rivals those found at large research universities.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT: Students are also involved in the annual Central Texas Military History Symposium, sponsored by A&M-Central Texas alongside our partners, including the U.S. Army's Center for Military History, The National Mounted Warfare Museum and the Society for Military History.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS: On-campus History Club, open to all. Qualified A&M-Central Texas students in history are invited to join the Alpha-Omicron-Alpha chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, The National Honor Society for History.

STUDENT TESTIMONIAL

The BA in history program at TAMUCT is unique in the region and greatly exceeded any expectations as a student. Small class sizes allowed for face-to-face interactions with faculty, and I was not a nameless face in a giant lecture hall. I had opportunities for research, collaboration, and to attend research conferences. I was inspired to be a better historian and scholar and was prepared for a seamless transition into graduate school.

Hannah Dysinger,
BA and MA of History graduate
