MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

HOME OF THE WARRIORS

OPENING NEW DOORS

Are you looking to open a new door into a leadership role in your organization? Or even a new career? Our Master of Business Administration provides the key. With the availability of on campus, online, or blended instruction, this unique program is structured to meet your needs.

Our students learn from world-class educators, focusing on real-world, global issues and scenarios in order to develop decision-making and critical thinking skills. We'll equip you with the skills to promote ongoing strategic initiatives, solve complex organizational issues, and lead an organization in today's ever-competitive global environment.

Our MBA program is open to all students regardless of background. If you do not have an undergraduate degree in a business discipline, you can easily satisfy graduate course prerequisites by completing a low-cost Ivy Software online training module or one of our undergraduate courses.

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

Students seeking a Master of Business Administration take a variety of generalized and optional specialized courses on the road to career advancement. We put our students in the driver's seat: Our program's unparalleled flexibility can be completed in as few as 12 months.

Students can build skills portfolios in areas like management, human resources, information systems, and health administration. Clearly, the program is effective, as US News and World Report recently recognized our MBA as a top-50 online program for veterans.

STUDENT TESTIMONIAL

"I know for a fact that the career I am in now and all the job offers I received are all thanks to A&M-Central Texas and the College of Business Administration's MBA Program. Don't steer away from difficult courses or professors, they are the ones that will help you build both confidence and skills."

Elvis Ochoa

CAREER-READY SKILLS

It's no secret that career advancements mean a greater need for career skills. Graduate students will sharpen their skills in both written and oral communication. They will develop research and organizational skills. They will learn to be both group-oriented team members and strategy-oriented leaders. They will learn to be effective problem solvers in an ever-evolving global business world.

MARKETABLE SKILLS

- Designing business strategies for the global context.
- Operating a profitable business for the long term.
- Ethical and responsible decision-making.
- Conducting data analysis and producing actionable business research.
- Top-notch oral and written communication skills.

ACCREDITATION

The Master of Business Administration program is currently accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP).
