FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

The Office of Student Financial Assistance helps students meet their educational expenses while attending Texas A&M University-Central Texas. Support is provided through grants, scholarships, student employment, loans, and other resources. Student Financial Assistance staff members are ready to assist with the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Additionally, A&M-Central Texas is approved to participate in federal and state Veteran education benefit programs and military tuition assistance programs.

BECOME A LEADER, ON YOUR OWN TIMELINE

According to the US Bureau of Labor Statistics, postsecondary education administration positions are expected to increase at a seven percent rate from 2018-2028, faster than the average for all occupations.

Best of all, our program is designed with busy professionals in mind: it's 100 percent online and can be completed in 12 months. During this time, our world-class faculty will guide you through a combination of structured course work and virtual learning projects. The goal: to prepare our students for their next rewarding career move into the world of higher education.

OUTCOMES COME FIRST

In order to know where higher education is going, you need to know where it's been. That's why our program focuses on teaching students about the history and evolution of postsecondary education. Our students learn how college administration has changed over time so that they know best how to move forward. Ultimately, students rely on theory and their own experiences in order to synthesize a leadership philosophy. When they leave, they are ready to lead the students of tomorrow.

MAKE COLLEGE YOUR CAREER

The M.Ed. in Higher Education Leadership program allows you to make higher education your career. We provide a relevant, accelerated, and cost-effective graduate program for aspiring college and university administrators. If you loved your college experience and want to become a university leader in order to ensure tomorrow's college students love theirs, this is the program for you.

THE SECRET TO SUCCESS?

Dedicated to improving the lives of students through a variety of professional master's programs, the A&M-Central Texas Graduate School combines discipline-specific coursework with traditional, marketable workplace skills. Our flexible programs give students the knowledge, skills, and confidence they need to increase their overall earning potential, advance in their current career or start a brand new one.

"This program has been such an exciting balance of challenge and growth. I have learned so much about the foundations of higher education and grown as a higher education leader. I am excited to take the things I have learned throughout this program and apply them to my career daily."
