

Sample Two Year Plan, Comprehensive Exam Option
English MA

Year One

Fall

- ENGL Literature Elective (Topics may include Shakespeare, Chaucer, and Studies in Comparative Literature, among others)
- ENGL 5330 Studies in Rhetoric (Topics may include Rhetoric of New Media, Sophistic Rhetoric, and Digital Humanities, among others)
- ENGL Elective (Topics may include Film Studies, Adaptation, and Reception Studies)

Spring

- ENGL 5320 Studies in Language (Topics may include History of the English Language or English Language in America, among others)
- ENGL 5374 Methods of Bibliographic and Research Analysis
- ENGL 5380 Studies in Teaching Composition

Year Two

Fall

- ENGL Literature Elective (Topics may include Shakespeare, Chaucer, and Studies in Comparative Literature, among others; topic will differ from Fall One)
- ENGL Composition Elective (Topics may include Studies in Literacy, Computer Mediated Composition, or Writing Program Administration, among others)
- ENGL Elective (Topics may include Film Studies, Adaptation, and Reception Studies; topic will differ from Fall One)

Spring

- ENGL Language Elective (Topics may include History of the English Language or English Language in America, among others; topic will differ from Spring One)
- ENGL Rhetoric Elective (Topics may include Rhetoric of New Media, Sophistic Rhetoric, and Digital Humanities, among others; topic will differ from Fall One)
- ENGL Composition Elective (Topics may include Studies in Literacy, Computer Mediated Composition, or Writing Program Administration, among others; topic will differ from Fall Two)
- ENGL 5390 English Comprehensive Exam¹

¹ENGL 5390 Comprehensive Exam is 0 credit hours.

Note: Electives taken outside of ENGL may be granted on a limited basis with completed rationale form and approval from Graduate Coordinator. Electives outside of English taken prior to enrollment in the English MA will not be counted, except in extremely rare cases.