

Quarterly Report Ending 3/31/2022

Coronavirus Response Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA)

1. Texas A&M University acknowledges that the institution signed and returned to the Department of Education the Certification the Supplemental Grant Funds for Students Agreement and the assurance will used the applicable amount of funds designated under Section 314(a)(1) of the Coronavirus Response Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act.
2. Total amount of funds Texas A&M University-Central Texas received from DOE under the CRRSAA is $659,162
3. Total amount of Emergency Aid Grants distributed to students under CRRSAA is $30,500.
4. The estimated total number of students at Texas A&M University-Central Texas that are eligible to receive emergency financial aid grants to students under CRRSAA is 2215.
5. Total number of students who have received and Emergency financial aid grant to students under the CRRSAA is 20.
6. Emergency Financial Aid Grants and how much they would receive under CRRSAA: Eligible students in need of support for eligible expenses must complete an electronic emergency aid application through their myCT account and provide information related to the amount requested and a breakdown by category of expenses (housing, transportation, food, medical, etc). Students are also requested to provide a statement and supporting documentation as to the nature and cause of the emergent circumstance. Representatives from Student Financial Assistance receive the applications, review for completeness and eligibility under the CRRSAA Act, and awards emergency funds based on need. A student may not receive more than $1750 in a single term, or $4500 in a 12-month period, and expense category limits also apply. Disbursement of funds is made directly to the student through their designated refund preference established at the time of registration. Students were also given the option to voluntarily authorize application of funds to an outstanding account balance.
7. Any instructions, directions or guidance provided by the institution to students concerning the Emergency Financial Aid Grants: Instructions provided by A&M-Central Texas to students concerning the Emergency Aid Grants can be found on our dedicated webpage: <https://www.tamuct.edu/financial-aid/student-emergency-aid-programs.html>.

American Rescue Plan (ARP)

1. Texas A&M University acknowledges that the institution signed and returned to the Department of Education the Certification the Supplemental Grant Funds for Students Agreement and the assurance will use the applicable amount of funds designated under Section 314(a)(4) of the American Rescue Plan.
2. Total amount of funds Texas A&M University - Central Texas received from the Department of Education under the ARP is $2,587,420.
3. Total amount of Emergency Aid Grants Distributed to students under ARP as of the date of submission is $ 1,386,900.
4. The estimated total number of students at the institution that are eligible to receive emergency financial aid grants to students under ARP is 2113.
5. Total number of students who have received and Emergency financial aid grant to students under the ARP is 2105.
6. Texas A&M University- Central Texas automatically disbursed HEERF III funds to all eligible students enrolled for the Spring 2022 . No application requirement was needed.
 - a. Based on guidance from the Department of Education, the amount of HEERF III funds to each student varied based on their expected family contribution (EFC) as determined by their Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) prioritizing students with the greatest financial need.
7. Students who were identified as eligible were notified via email regarding their ARP eligibility and directed to their myCT account to view the amount.