Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Council

Description:

Members of the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Council at Texas A&M University – Central Texas report directly to the President and are charged with monitoring campus climate while working cooperatively to insure a broad and consistent commitment to the basic principles of diversity, equity, and inclusion at all levels of campus operations.

The Council seeks to strengthen both the understanding of and commitment to these principles among the students, faculty, and staff of the University by engaging them in a variety of activities and events while simultaneously monitoring and, if necessary, advising the President on action to be taken in response to any issues that may arise.

In meeting its commitment, the Council may appoint sub-committees to promote activities and programs that advance a culture of inclusive excellence throughout the institution. And while these sub-committees may invite membership from across the campus, they must each be chaired by a member of the Council.
