STUDENT-INSTRUCTOR INTERACTION

This is a lecture class with online components. Most communication between the instructor and students will be in person. However, students can contact me via Canvas and email and all students are able to schedule a telephone conference or meet with me during office hours.

I will check and reply to student emails on a daily basis – students should expect a response within 24 hours. Any deviations from this will be announced on Canvas. Checking Canvas frequently is important as this is where any class announcements will be posted.

It is HIGHLY recommended that you go into your “settings” in Canvas, select “notifications”, and elect to receive emails when announcements are made. You are responsible for obtaining information in a timely manner.

My preferred method of electronic student interaction is via Canvas. All students should identify the class they are in, use proper salutations and signatures, identify a question, be succinct, and maintain professionalism in any correspondence. Deviations from these guidelines will likely not receive a response. Additionally, students should check the syllabus before asking questions that are likely answered in the syllabus. If the answer is in the syllabus, that is what the response email will reference.

SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIALS

Supplementary material may take the form of handouts, oral presentations, and references from your instructor, presentations by students, and articles we read. Supplementary materials are handed out in class or posted to Canvas.

REQUIRED COURSE WORK

I. Assignments (100 points)

There will be 10 assignments throughout the semester. These assignments will cover reading material and videos that we watch. There are no makeup assignments. Each assignment is worth 10 points. Some of these assignments will be in class and some you will take home. If it is an in class assignment and you are absent, you will not receive credit.

II. Hands on Exercises (200 points)

You will be split into teams and be required to work a mock crime scene. Working the mock crime scene will include processing, collecting, and interpreting evidence. The mock crime scene will be outside. Additionally, evidence processing will most likely take place outside. A rubric will be provided later in the semester.

III. Midterm Exam (100 points)

IV. Final Exam (100 points)

OTHER INFORMATION REGARDING THE COURSE

I. Late assignments: Late assignments will generally not be accepted. In the event a student misses a class for a legitimate reason (work or medical) advanced notice is required to make up any work. Documentation (including date and time) will be required for any make up assignments. There are very few reasons that late notice may be acceptable such as you were in a severe car accident and just regained consciousness.

In the event you have an excused absence and miss an in class assignment your make-up assignment will be in the form of a summary of the current chapter we are covering in class. The summary should be no shorter than one page, double spaced. If you have an excused absence on the date of the midterm you can take make up the exam on the date of the final. If you have an excused absence on the date of the final you must, as with any other missed assignment, provide advanced notice. The only available date where students can make up the final for an excused absence is 12/13.

In the event you have an excused absence and miss the hands on exercise your make up assignment will be in the form of a 5-7 page research paper. If you miss a portion of the hands on exercise there is no make-up. You will not receive credit for that portion of the assignment.

II. Supplementary Material: Additional information may be given that supplement the topics to be addressed. This supplementary material is designed to broaden the educational experience and create more variety to the usual lecture/discussion format of class presentations. You are responsible for all information in the supplementary material.

III. Extra Credit: Extra credit is not available in this class.

IV. Punctuality: Please be ON TIME to this class. Excessive tardiness is a distraction to the entire class and will not be tolerated. Occasionally things may come up and you may run late. In this instance please enter as quietly as possible and take the first available seat. If tardiness becomes a reoccurring problem a policy of no admittance after a certain time frame will be implemented.

V. Civility: While this is a forensics class it is inevitable that some sensitive topics (race, religion, etc...) will be discussed. All students are expected to treat each other with respect. You may disagree but you must do so with civility. Rude and degrading behavior will not be tolerated.

VI. Posting of Grades: All student grades will be posted in the Blackboard grade book and students should monitor their grading status through this tool.

VII. Miscellaneous: You are not permitted to record this course. This includes taking photos of powerpoints.

- Stay OFF your phones! Your phones should be on SILENT (not vibrate). If you are on call or have some other reason for needing your phone you may leave it on the table on SILENT. If you must take a call, take it outside without disturbing the class.
- You may eat/drink. Please clean up after yourself.
- GRAPHIC. This class contains a lot of graphic material. You will not be warned when graphic images will appear, just anticipate at a minimum of every few slides. We will also be discussing classes. If you have any negative reactions to the content please step outside if necessary. If you have any personal experiences that you think I should be aware of please let me know. This would include if you were a victim or a relative of a victim of a violent crime and are worried about triggering memories.
