COURSE INFORMATION

Course Overview and description: (Writing Intensive) (3 Semester Credit Hours) This course is a study and demonstrates the different types of letters and reports utilized in the modern 21st century business environment. Basic business research and APA citation skills will also be an essential component of the course, as well as presentation fundamentals. Completion of this course is recommended in the first semester of enrollment as it is a prerequisite for most business courses.

Course Objective: Chapter level objectives are found within the course content folders.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of the Business Communications course, the student will be able to:

- Explain the importance and role communication serves in the business world today, including the impacts of culture and globalization.
- Tailor communications to the interests and preferences of their audience in ways that make oral and written communications clear, concise, and compelling to the reader or listener.
- Apply the principles of effective written communications through the development of various business correspondences, using Microsoft Word. Word is available in the Texas A&M University-Central Texas computer labs.
- Demonstrate the fundamentals of business related research, including the proper use of APA citations.
- Write professionally in web-based interactions with colleagues on issues of business communication, including observance of Netiquette norms.
- Demonstrate proper business oral communication and presentation skills, including the use of Microsoft Power Point.

Writing Intensive Competency, Goals, and Statements: This is an “Intensive Writing (WI) Course.” The purpose of this designation is to develop communication skills needed by those preparing to enter the business world as well as those who are already part of that world. The course will focus on continuous improvement in written and spoken correspondence. The professor will provide ongoing feedback of the individuals written, verbal and nonverbal skills. It will be the student's responsibility to make the instructional adjustments and corrections throughout the semester. If you can communicate effectively (written, verbal and nonverbal), you have a highly valued and marketable skill. Surveys have shown that the ability to communicate well is ranked by business executives as first among the personal factors necessary for promotion. The WI portion is designated as the average of: Communications #1 & #2, the Research Practice Exercise and the written part of the Team Proposal.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- Attendance and Participation: (55 points) -- You are expected to have read all assigned readings before you come to class. You are also expected to participate actively in class discussions, group exercises and case analyses. Participation includes attending class, reading assigned chapters, bringing in requested materials or assignments, and participating in class discussions. If for some reason a student is unable to attend class, he/she will be responsible for obtaining notes, assignments, and other relevant course information from other classmates. Please do not ask me the question “did I miss something important.” Participation (assessed every class) is graded based on your level of attendance, substantive discussion, demonstration of preparedness for class as well as overall above and beyond engagement you demonstrate in class. Disruptive behavior will count negatively on your participation within this course. Disruptive behavior includes, but is not limited to, talking amongst each other in-class when it is not appropriate, working on other course work, sleeping in-class, disrupting your fellow classmates’ learning environment. You are senior business students preparing for professional employment, please treat our learning environment the way you would treat your employer. The final participation score will be the sole discretion of the professor.

- Connect LearnSmart Activity: (160 points) – There will be 16 Chapter LearnSmart Activities to complete in McGraw-Hill Connect, each worth 10 points.
- APA Competency Exam: (75 points) - You will be required to complete an exam that covers topics on basic APA formatting which is outlined in the APA 6th edition manual. It is essential to apply proper APA formatting on all of your academic papers. This exam will test your knowledge of proper usage of the APA format. You are graded based on the score received and not simply completion, so be diligent. APA resources/materials have been provided in Canvas. You will have 2 attempts to pass the APA Exam with an 80% or higher.
- Analyzing a Corporate Letter: (45 points) – You will be given an email that needs to be rewritten. In addition to making sentence-level changes, you will ensure that paragraph length is appropriate and eliminate unneeded information. Sentences will be reconstructed to be grammatically correct and concise, while you remove typos, grammar errors, redundancy, and wordy prepositional phrases. A template is provided for this assignment.
- Creating an Electronic Presentation: (60 points) – In this assignment you will develop an effective power point slide presentation with appropriate white space, charts, diagrams, figures, pictures, and other images while utilizing a professional font and style.
- Research Practice and Presentation Assignment: (100 Points) – Your individual research paper will be worth (65 points) and your video/oral presentation is worth (35 points).
 - Paper Requirements: Utilizing our library databases, you must use at least 3 References (two scholarly journal articles -one may be a mainstream magazine article at least four pages in length- AND 1 internet article). The topic of your research must deal with a business communication issues. These may discuss good or bad communication techniques or describe instances where companies struggled or had great success in communicating (in any industry).

- After reading the three articles, you need to prepare a 6 page individual research paper (1 Cover Page, 4 Body, and 1 Reference page). You should demonstrate your mastery of professional correctness, proper summarization, and applying proper APA formatting & citations. Your end reference should provide easy access for me to review the articles.
- Presentation: Students will present orally in-class.
- Professional Communication Assignments: (120 total points; 2 assignments) - Each student will develop several original business communications (Communication 1 - 50 pts & Communication 2 - 70 points each) and submit it on the due dates outlined in the course schedule.
 - (1). Communication # 1: You will act as a manager and construct an email communicating a new policy to your employees that they will not be happy with (negative). Some examples you could use include: dress code policy, cell phone use, break time, personal use of computer, etc. Then, in the same document and on the next page you will write an essay describing how your oral communication of this policy would be similar or different than the written policy.
 - (2). Communication # 2: Prepare a resume with a cover letter for a job that you would be qualified for based on the degree you are presently pursuing. In class, students will present orally.
- Chapter Quizzes: (160 total points): You will have 16 examinations in this course worth 10 points each. Each exam may be composed of T/F, Matching, Multiple Choice, and Essay in order to assess the course and chapter objectives, as well as the course content in general. They may vary in composition from exam to exam. Quizzes will generally be available the week they are due and dates will be posted online as well as in the schedule section of this syllabus. They will be timed and once started, must be completed at that time.
- Team Proposal Paper and Individual Oral Presentation: (225 total points) - This major assignment will be developed in accordance with the parameters below and the rubrics found in Canvas with the assignment instructions. All subjects and materials to be presented in this course must be “new works” researched and assembled by you for this course only. Recycling of cases, proposals, reports, and subjects from this or other classes “is prohibited” and in violation.
 - Midpoint Team Proposal Worksheet: You will have to complete a Midpoint Team Proposal Worksheet that will be worth 25 of the 225 total points. This worksheet will identify the company chosen, the company history, identify the business problem, provide two of the four alternatives, and provide a minimum of two references in proper APA format. Team members will be appointed by the Professor. I will not re-assign individuals to a different group after the initial assignment has been made. It is the group's responsibility to work together.

- Team Proposal Paper: You will have to produce an internal proposal addressed to the instructor as your supervisor worth 125 of the 225 total points. This proposal must address a business problem (with a Fortune 500 Company) of your choosing, contain an introduction to the problem, provide at least four alternatives (with support) that you believe could correct the problem, provide a cost-benefit analysis, explain your recommended alternative to correct the problem, and an implementation schedule with timeline. Be specific and detailed!
 - Your team proposal paper must include at least nine references, with a minimum of two book, four scholarly journal articles from the Texas A&M – Central Texas library database and no more than 3 internet articles. All references and citations must conform to APA style guidelines. The final product should be an 11 page report (1-cover sheet, 1-table of contents, 8 body, 1-reference page), excluding attached appendices.

- Individual Oral Presentation: Team members will also make an individual “3-4” minute oral presentation about your portion of the team’s research paper. This is worth 75 of the 225 points. A copy of your written “Team” paper and a copy of your Team “MS PowerPoint Slides” will be submitted to the assignment link in Canvas prior to your oral presentation. Please note that: your power point must be visible in the recorded presentation. You will need to submit a copy of your video URL to the assignment link in Canvas. More detailed grading parameters are found in the rubric on Canvas.
 - NOTE: Oral presentations will be conducted in a professional manner, to include appropriate business dress. Men: slacks, shirt, socks, shoes, and tie (No denims, jeans, boot pants, Levi’s, sneakers, etc.). Ladies: blouse and slacks or dress, or suit with socks/stockings and either low or high-heeled shoes. Look like professionals! Timing will be strictly adhered to. Presentation points will be deducted if the presentation runs short or over by more than “1” minute.

- NOTE: Each team member must: conduct his/her own research, preparation of his/her own MS.Word documentation, preparation of his/her own MS.Powerpoint documentation, and orally present his/her own portion of the project (no will be exempted from the 3-4 minute oral presentation requirement).

Grading Polices/Guidelines:

- Individual Performance: It is vital that you are active in the course and complete all work in a professional fashion. One of the biggest issues with student is simply not submitting work on time. You are expected to read the chapters as assigned in the syllabus as well as read or view any supplemental resources that may be found in the Module content folders for that period.
- Quality Work: All work submitted for grading shall be of upper level quality: Depth of analysis, grammatical structure, etc.
- Identifying Submissions: Submissions must clearly identify the student and the title of the assignment (ie: Smith_Essay 1)
- Submission Style Requirements: Submissions will be in accordance with The Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th ed. All written work must be submitted utilizing Microsoft Word in either a .doc or .docx format.
- Due Dates and Late Submissions: The assignment instructions and deadlines are clearly laid out in the syllabus. Though some assignments are fairly involved, you do not have more than one assignment due in any week. As such, it is expected that all work will be submitted on time, as timeliness is an important aspect of professional communications and behavior. If you encounter an issue, please let me know as soon as possible. It is much easier to discuss issues before due dates rather than after. Late work is not accepted.
- Changes to Syllabus: This syllabus serves as an instructional and study planning document. Although every effort will be made to maintain the schedule and activities presented herein, it may become necessary during the course of the semester to make changes to the syllabus. In such events, changes will be announced and students will receive written notice as soon as possible.

Grading Criteria Rubric and Conversion

UNIVERSITY RESOURCES, PROCEDURES, AND GUIDELINES

Drop Policy.

If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete a Drop Request Form [https://www.tamuct.edu/registrar/docs/Drop_Request_Form.pdf].

Professors cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Registrar's Office will provide a deadline on the University Calendar for which the form must be completed, signed and returned. Once you return the signed form to the Registrar's Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Registrar's Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.

Academic Integrity.

Texas A&M University -Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Academic integrity is defined as a commitment to honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. Academic misconduct is any act that improperly affects a true and honest evaluation of a student's academic performance and includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism and improper citation of sources, using another student's work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. All academic misconduct concerns will be reported to the university's Office of Student Conduct. Ignorance of the university's standards and expectations is never an excuse to act with a lack of integrity. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.

Academic Accommodations.

At Texas A&M University-Central Texas, we value an inclusive learning environment where every student has an equal chance to succeed and has the right to a barrier free education. The Department of Access and Inclusion is responsible for ensuring that students with a disability receive equal access to the University's programs, services and activities. If you believe you have a disability requiring reasonable accommodations please contact the Department of Access and Inclusion at (254) 501-5831. Any information you provide is private and confidential and will be treated as such.

For more information please visit our Access & Inclusion webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/access-inclusion.html].

Texas A&M University-Central Texas supports students who are pregnant and/or parenting. In accordance with requirements of Title IX and guidance from US Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights, the Dean of Student Affairs' Office can assist students who are pregnant and/or parenting in seeking accommodations related to pregnancy and/or parenting. For more information, please visit <https://www.tamuct.departments/index.php>. Students may also contact the institution's Title IX Coordinator. If you would like to read more about these requirements and guidelines online, please visit the website [http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/pregnancy.pdf].

Tutoring.

Tutoring is available to all A&M-Central Texas students, both on-campus and online. On-campus subjects tutored include Accounting, Advanced Math, Biology, Finance, Statistics, Mathematics, and Study Skills. Tutors are available at the Tutoring Center in Warrior Hall, Suite 111. If you have a question regarding tutor schedules, need to schedule a tutoring session, are interested in becoming a tutor, or any other question, contact Academic Support Programs at 254-519-5796, or by emailing Larry Davis at ldavis@tamuct.edu.

Chat live with a tutor 24/7 for almost any subject on your computer! Tutor.com is an online tutoring platform that enables A&M-Central Texas students to log-in and receive FREE online tutoring and writing support. This tool provides tutoring in over forty subject areas. Access Tutor.com through Canvas.

The University Writing Center.

Located in 416 Warrior Hall, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University-Central Texas is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students from 10am-5pm Monday-

Thursday with satellite hours in the University Library on Mondays from 6:00-9:00pm. Students may arrange a one-on-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available) or by making an appointment via WOnline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu to schedule an online tutoring session.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the University Writing Center is here to help!

If you have any questions about the University Writing Center, please do not hesitate to contact Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu.

University Library.

The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 250,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 72,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On-campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available twenty-four hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place on Skype or in-person at the library. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events. A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at A&M-Central Texas, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Counseling Services (254-501-5956) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall.

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].
