COURSE INFORMATION

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Study lenses of power, influence, ethics, and leadership theory. Compare personal diagnoses of leadership, learning, and personality strengths to the knowledge and skill set needed for leadership of prek-12 schools. Prerequisites: MEd/Principal Certificate Program admission or permission of department chair. Certification Fee - $150.

The purpose of this course is to provide aspiring principals with foundational knowledge and skill to become grounded school leaders. Students use the lenses of power, influence, ethics, and leadership theory to compare their personal diagnoses of leadership, learning, and personality strengths to the knowledge and skills needed for learning leadership in PK-12 schools. This course utilizes literature on three strands of learning: leadership theory, effective PK-12 leadership, and ethical leading/deciding.

The structure of the course is a simple layout. The course is divided into three course strands - leadership theory, effective PK-12 leadership, and ethical leading/deciding. Then, tasks, assignments, due dates, and assessment methods for each strand are clearly explained within five specific e-learn modules. Learning in each e-learn timeframe builds on previous learning within one of three strands of the course, so success in the course is dependent upon the successful completion of each set of learning activities in each timeframe. The initial f2f Orientation session is provides introductory activities as well as a preview of the course, while the additional f2f work session adds value to online learning by providing a workshop environment for peer- and instructor-coached activity/assignment development. Students are responsible for all learning requirements as detailed in the syllabus and posted in e-learn modules 1-5 on the Canvas course site.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Understand and apply the knowledge of the evolution of leadership theory for use in crafting a personal leadership theory of action for use in leading PK-12 schools.
- Understand and launch the development of the knowledge and skills that school leaders must possess to facilitate the collaborative, capacity-building work of PK-12 schools.
- Understand and engage in the development of the unique knowledge and skills that a school leader must use to ensure equity and excellence for all students engaged in the moral enterprise of schooling.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES (STATE STANDARDS ALIGNMENT)

2. Compile a profile of personal strengths and developmental challenges related to components of at least twelve prominent leadership theories in the literature. (D1, D2)
3. Recognize and differentiate the use of prominent leadership theory components by leaders in PK-12 school communities. (F1, F4)
4. Utilize the professional standards for school leadership knowledge and skill set to initially analyze personal readiness for school leadership, devise a learning plan to build additional leadership strength, and create a repository of evidence and reflections that tracks personal growth over time. (D1, D2, F4, F8)
5. Generate a personal leadership philosophy and a code of conduct based on moral integrity, ethical principles, and the 19TAC §247.2 Educator's Code of Ethics for use in effective leadership in PK-12 school communities. (F2, F4, F8)
6. Apply moral principles, ethical dilemma patterns, ethical models, and other tools to diagnose ethical dilemmas and generate sound decisions within the complex environment of PK-12 school communities. (D7, D8, D9, F1, F2, F4, F8)

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS & ASSESSMENTS (SLO ALIGNMENT)

Leading Every Day: A Reflective Journal (SLO #4) (120 pts – specific due dates below)
(Bk 1/Days 1-15 by 9.22) (Book 1/Days 16-31 by 10.13) (Book 2/Days 1-15 by 11.3) (Book 2/Days 16-31 by 11.22)

Each student will utilize a word document format to record initial thoughts and ideas about school leadership as presented in the required class text, Leading Every Day: 124 Actions for Effective Leadership. This course activity is an examination of and reflection about actions and observations in relation to leadership (book 1) and change (book 2) located in the text. The Book/Day format should be used as an organizer to respond to each day's material. Students should include a short summary the day's material and then provide a 75-175 word reflection about the material. The journal is to be kept throughout the semester and posted for assessment by the instructor on each designated due date (see above). It is not necessary to start a new journal for each of the assessment periods. Just continue on in the same document. (assessment: based on thoughtful completion summary/reflection of each "day" in books one and two)

Leadership Theory Self Study (SLO #1, 2, 3) (240 pts/ 20 pts per theory – specific due dates below)
(ch 2,3,4 – by 9.22) (ch 5,6,7 – by 10.13) (ch 8,9,10 – by 11.3) (ch 11,12,14 – by 11.22)

Each student will be responsible for material on leadership theories/approaches found in chapters 2-12 & 14 in the Northouse text. Each student will develop a document consisting of a short theory description, analysis of your leadership instrument findings, and an example of someone who exemplifies the theory/approach for each chapter. Self-study entries will be assessed according to accuracy to the theory through thorough description, summary of leadership instrument findings, and relevant examples. (assessment: accuracy about theory through description, inventory findings, and relevant examples)

Ethics Reflective Online Dialogues (SLO #5, 6) (240 pts – specific due dates below)

Students will engage in a series of six (6) online dialogue sessions via Canvas concerning reading assignments focused on ethical leadership. Following the posting instructions for each dialogue, students will respond to the observations/reflections of other students, creating a virtual conversation about the readings. Student Facilitators for each dialogue will be named in Canvas. Students are expected to provide honest, thoughtful responses that are reflective of prior readings and experiences. Consideration of ideas differing from one's own perspective is required.

(assessment: collaborative participation rubric)

Pair Share Ethical Dilemma Situation Descriptions (SLO #6) (40 pts – due 10.30)

Each student will partner with a cohort colleague to create a set of four ethical dilemma situations that may be found currently in prek-12 schools. Each of the dilemmas should represent one of the four universal dilemma patterns (Kidder, How Good People Make Tough Choices book excerpt) and be accompanied by possible solutions. The created dilemmas and possible solutions should be formatted as a formal paper using APA style. Pairs will also post their dilemmas/solutions in the designated spot on the course Canvas site for review and comment by other cohort pairs. (assessment: 40 pts written product rubric)

Personal Leadership Philosophy & Personal Code of Conduct (SLO #5) (40 pts – due 11.24)

Each student will develop his/her own leadership philosophy and a personal code of conduct. The Leadership Philosophy should be a personal reflection of the student's view/theory about leadership efforts. The Personal Code of Conduct should reflect acceptable standards for professional behavior and provide guidance as a leader copes with ethical dilemmas as a professional educational administrator. Students should research a wide range of examples – particularly in the field of education and specifically the Texas Educator Code of Ethics (19TAC §247.1-2) – before finalizing a one-page personal code of conduct. APA style should be used as appropriate in both documents.

(assessment: 40 pts Leadership Philosophy & 40 pts Code of Conduct - clarity and style/written product rubric)

NOTE: The Culture Re-Boot Journal #4 assignment is one of several program benchmarks that will be placed in your student record as evidence that you are making progress towards principal certification. You will want to pay close attention to the assignment description, the written product rubric, and your APA manual to ensure that you submit a quality paper.

Ethics Case Study Written Analysis (SLO #6) (40 pts – due 12.5)

Each student will work in a small group with other cohort members to complete case study requirements related to ethical issues and unique problems currently found in prek-12 schools. The case study situations are similar to what campus leaders might meet within their leadership practice. After discussion of the case, each team will submit an APA-formatted written analysis of the case including a detailed action plan for improvement (more details and a response outline with point totals will be provided on Canvas).

(assessment: 40 pts written product rubric)

Professional e-Portfolio Collection – Intro & Integrity Sections (SLO #4) (40 pts – due 12.9)

Beginning in EDLD 5300, each student in the program will develop a professional e-portfolio collection organized by six topics linked to the six standards for the Texas principal certificate. The six topics are integrity (standard F Ethics, Equity, and Diversity), vision (standard A School Culture), professional growth (standard #C Human Capital), collaboration (standard #D Executive Leadership), stewardship (standard #E Strategic Operations), and teaching and learning (standards #B Leading Learning). Additional topics may be included. The style and format for the portfolio is to be decided on by the student. Anchoring essays, artifacts, and other documents will provide information about leadership growth over time. The following are due for Integrity (Standard F) and should be attached to the assignment description in Canvas. Items to be included for EDLD 5300 are below with more details on Canvas. (assessment: professional portfolio rubric)

- A current resume and cover letter.
- One-page anchoring essay concerning integrity (The purpose of the essays is to give the student “space” in which to think about the potential difficulties/opportunities inherent in trying to implement the theoretical concepts in practice).
- Two artifacts and completed artifact/reflection templates (see Canvas for template) for each (defines the importance of the artifact and how it represents the knowledge, skill, or value addressed). Students should choose artifacts they believe best represent the theoretical foundations of their conceptions of leadership, that illustrate their skill in converting theory into practice, and that confirm their understanding of principal program principles and the Texas Standards for the Principal Certificate.

Mentor Consultations/Reflection (SLO #1-6) (40 points each/120 points total – due 9.23, 11.4, 12.14)

Principal mentors are in a pivotal position to guarantee the success of the School Leadership Candidate by providing coaching support in the school setting. The three (3) mentor consultations are facilitated by the student: set agendas, set meeting times and locations, interview principals, and write reflections. Each principal consultation will align with specific E-Learning focus areas that have just been completed and a look forward to the next learning focus.

(assessment: 40 pts agenda/reflection template)

FIT2LEAD CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT ANALYSIS & PLANNING (SLO #1-6) (40 pts – due 12.14)

Beginning in EDLD 5300, each student in the program will complete an ongoing analysis of personal strengths and challenges related to the state-identified school leadership standards and skills (19TAC §241.15). Utilizing the reflective FIT2LEAD format, students will share their own “read” and that of their mentor principal and any other colleagues related to the state principal standards studied during the semester. Additionally, the student, the mentor, and any additional colleagues will assess discreet leadership skills using the SCHOOL LEADERSHIP COMPETENCY INVENTORY. Students will complete all sections of the FIT2LEAD CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT ANALYSIS & PLANNING template: FeedBack, FeedForward, & GrowForward.

(assessment: 40 pts FIT2LEAD template completion)

GRADING CRITERIA RUBRIC AND CONVERSION

The instructor will determine grades for the course assignments and assessments through the use the assignment criteria and rubrics outlined in this syllabus as well as any assessment-specific rubrics included in Canvas course site. Assignment rubrics may be found on the next two pages. Instructor, self, and peer evaluation will be utilized as means of assessing growth and learning. Assignments turned in from 1-3 days after the posted due date are subject to a maximum of 45% reduction of points based on the date received by the instructor. Assignments that are more than 3 days late may not be accepted. In no case should materials be those submitted for another course. Missing a f2f class session is not a valid reason for incomplete assignments and assessments. A grade of Incomplete (I) will not be given except in extremely unusual cases. A grade of C may result in retaking the course. Point system may be revised if necessary to accommodate unexpected changes in the course schedule. The instructor reserves the right to amend the syllabus at any time.

To earn the grade of A, students must earn a total of 90% or a minimum of 828 of 920 points on the following learning activities/items. For a grade of B, a total of 80% or a minimum of 736 of 920 points must be earned. Maximum points for each assignment are in ().

CRITERIA AND RUBRIC FOR ASSESSING PROFESSIONAL PORTFOLIO

AREA	EXCEPTIONAL	ACCEPTABLE	UNACCEPTABLE
CONCEPTUAL-IZATION	Selection of entries is carefully made to demonstrate in-depth comprehension of preparation goals and Texas Principal standards and dispositions, as well as a high degree of insight regarding their interdependence with professional practice.	Selection of entries demonstrates knowledge of preparation goals and Texas Principal standards and dispositions, and an adequate understanding of their interdependence with professional practice.	Selection of entries reflects insufficient evidence of knowledge of preparation goals and/or Texas Principal standards and dispositions, and/or an inadequate understanding of their interdependence with professional practice.
COHERENCE	Enhanced by adherence to thematic framework grounded in student's leadership philosophy and reinforced by selection of entries. Theme provides a unique perspective that allows for creative development of ideas.	Student's leadership philosophy provides thematic unity for portfolio, allowing for logical development of ideas.	No visible thematic framework exists to explain relationships between and among entries. Development of ideas is vague and student's leadership philosophy is unclear.
PERSONAL/PROFESSIONAL GROWTH	Portfolio demonstrates sustained reflection and critical thought. Assimilation of knowledge, both propositional and procedural, is central to the presentation, providing evidence of reflection and development of knowledge/skill/values. Presentation demonstrates ability to engage in reflection-on-action as well as reflection-in-action. Strong evidence of self-guided self-assessment of learning and growth.	Portfolio demonstrates evidence of reflection and critical thought. A degree of insightfulness is apparent in the student's work, and elements of reflection and development of knowledge/skill/values are recognizable. Presentation addresses process of portfolio development and rationale for selection of entries. Evidence of self-assessment of learning and growth.	Portfolio demonstrates little evidence of reflection or critical thought. Presentation addresses neither the processes of portfolio development nor reasons for inclusion of selected entries. Little evidence of reflection or development of knowledge/skill/values. Little or very limited assessment of own learning and growth.
PRESENTATION	Ideas expressed cogently and with attention to detail. Portfolio and presentation are enhanced by creative application of range of media options, and there are no mechanical errors to detract from the presentation.	Ideas are expressed in a clear fashion. Connections between and among portfolio entries are made clear through logical use of media options and there are few mechanical errors.	Presentation does not conform to expectations for graduate work. Media options are confusing or absent, resulting in a portfolio of discrete entries. Ideas are poorly articulated and multiple mechanical errors detract .

In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu for any assistance needed with scheduling.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help! If you have any questions about the UWC, please do not hesitate to contact Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu.

A NOTE ABOUT SEXUAL VIOLENCE AT A&M-CENTRAL TEXAS

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].
