Course Description

Methods and Skills of Social Work is a pre-practice course designed to introduce students to the Generalist Social Work Practice Model. Beginning social work skills are introduced to students to aid in the distinction of the profession of helping. These skills include: principles of conducting a helping interview, establishing initial client contacts, attending and listening, empathetic responses, exploration and elaboration, questioning, gaining cooperation, self-disclosure, and termination. Issues of problem-solving with diverse populations and persons from different cultural backgrounds as well as ethical issues of helping relationships are also explored.

Prerequisites: Completion of or concurrent enrollment in SWKK 308 (Introduction to Social Work).

Nature of Course

This course will cover basic skills of helping individuals and families in the context of generalist social work practice. Dual emphasis will be placed on (1) the knowledge base of these skills and (2) the performance of these skills. The course will assist the student in determining their desire to enter the field of social work and prepare students for further educational experiences at the university and in the social work program.

Generalist social work practice is a holistic approach that provides the practitioner with the knowledge and skills necessary to engage in a change process with a client. This course will particularly focus on the micro practice methods, working with individuals and families. Generalist social work incorporates knowledge that is transferable, empowers individuals, utilizes a variety of intervention strategies, analyzes development across the life span, evaluates the impact of social policies, and serves populations at risk. Generalist social work practice incorporates values that reflect the social worker's professional code of ethics, which demands social responsibility and respect for diverse value systems as well as a commitment to continued, ongoing professional development.

Teaching Method

Teaching Method: The primary teaching approach in this course will be collaborative and active learning. Material in the course will be presented through class discussions, videotapes, and role-playing.

Program Mission

The mission of the BSW Program at Texas A&M University - Central Texas is to prepare high quality graduates for entry-level generalist social work practice and advanced education. This education is delivered in a rigorous and student-centered learning environment that promotes professional behavior, values and ethics, human and community well-being, respect for human diversity, and a global perspective, and is guided by a person-in-environment framework, knowledge based on scientific inquiry, and social work competencies.

Generalist Social Work Practice: Work with individuals, families, groups, communities and organizations in a variety of social work and host settings. Generalist practitioners view clients and client systems from a strength's perspective in order to recognize, support, and build upon the innate capabilities of all human beings. They use a professional problem solving process to engage, assess, broker services, advocate, counsel, educate, and organize with and on behalf of clients and client systems. In addition, generalist practitioners engage in community and organizational development. Finally, generalist practitioners evaluate service outcomes in order to continually improve the provision and quality of services most appropriate to client needs.

Generalist social work practice is guided by the NASW Code of Ethics and is committed to improving the well-being of individuals, families, groups, communities and organizations and furthering the goals of social justice. BPD Web Page retrieved from:

Program Framework

The Social Work Program curriculum is rooted in a framework established by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). Specifically, the program endeavors to develop social workers who promote human and community well-being by being able to demonstrate the following 9 core competencies upon graduation:

1. Demonstrate ethical and professional behavior
2. Engage diversity and difference in practice
3. Advance human rights and social, economic, and environmental justice
4. Engage in practice-informed research and research-informed practice
5. Engage in policy practice
6. Engage with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities
7. Assess individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities
8. Intervene with individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities
9. Evaluate practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities

Each core competency has specific, measurable practice behaviors that help students and their professors determine if the competency has been achieved. There are 31 total practice behaviors. The complete list of practice behaviors can be found at the end of this syllabus or by reviewing the student handbook.

Course Objectives & Related CSWE Practice Behaviors

This course provides content that helps to prepare you, the generalist social work student, to engage in the following CSWE competencies and related practice behaviors:

- 1.1 Make ethical decisions by applying the standards of the NASW Code of Ethics, relevant laws and regulations, models of ethical decision-making, ethical conduct of research and additional codes of ethics as appropriate to context
- 1.2 Use reflection and self-regulation to manage personal values and maintain professionalism in practice situations
- 1.3 Demonstrate professional demeanor in behavior, appearance; and oral and, written and electronic communication

The objectives for this course, that support the CSWE related practice behaviors, are:

1. Students will be able to recognize the core elements of the interviewing process with emphasis on the key themes of process, systems perspective, problem-solving, and client-worker relationships.

4. Students will be able to engage in professional use of self and the use of professional supervision by critically evaluating their own practice as well as practice skills of fellow students.
5. Students will be able to demonstrate educational growth at the university and program level through self-reflection and self-analysis and through the process of determining if they want to pursue a degree in social work.

The following table shows the relationship between: A) the course objectives, B) the CSWE related practice behaviors, and C) the assignments used to assess your ability to fulfill the objective related to the practice behavior:

Course Assignments

The following activities will be completed during the semester.

1. Exam (150pts)

There will be one exam given in this course, at the end of the semester. See the Course Schedule in this syllabus for exam date. Exam can include multiple choice, true-false, matching, and short essay questions. The final exam will also include some questions meant to integrate the subject matter of the entire course (comprehensive). The test can include any of the course content, including class discussions, reading assignments, handouts from the professor, and videotapes. Note cards or other supporting material are not permitted during exams in this section of the course.

In an emergency that keeps a student from being able to attend class on the day a test is given, the student is responsible for contacting the professor in advance to see what arrangements, if any, can be made to make up the test. Note: Under no circumstances will a make-up test be given to any student after the date on which the graded tests are returned to the students in the class.

2. In Class Assessments (150pts)

During each class, students will be involved in peer role plays or activities. From these activities students will be responsible for creating a reflection, SOAP note, and/or progress note. Students will receive further class instruction on the structure of these ongoing assignments due in class.

- Student will describe the ethical implications to consider from the NASW COE when using technology in practice, 10pts
 - Typed, one paragraph with 3 implications identified

5. Videotaped Interview and Self-Analysis: 150 points each (300 points total) 15% each, (30% total)

Each student will complete a videotaped interview with a classmate acting as “client”. Students will be assigned in pairs. For one videotape, one student is the client. For the other videotape, the other student is the client, so each member of the team has a chance to be the social worker for purposes of the videotapes. The interview needs to last at least 12 minutes. Students will be given their client case scenario when they come to do the interview, and they will be given 5 minutes to talk together about the scenario before the videotaping begins. The “social worker” student will focus on implementing the communication, interviewing, and social work process guidelines that have been learned in the class. In each case scenario, the “social worker” will be meeting with the “client” for the first time, conducting an assessment interview. THE ENTIRE 12 MINUTES MUST FOCUS ENTIRELY ON ASSESSING THE CLIENT’S SITUATION; NO ADVICE-GIVING, INTERVENTIONS, OR ATTEMPTS TO SOLVE THE CLIENT’S PROBLEMS CAN OCCUR. STUDENTS WHOSE INTERVIEWS INCLUDE PROBLEM-SOLVING EFFORTS WILL HAVE THEIR GRADE DEDUCTED FOR THIS. Students are encouraged to practice interviewing their partner as much as possible before the day of the videotaping.

After completing the taping, each student will view his/her own taped interview, will write a COMPLETE TRANSCRIPT of everything (word for word) that was said/done during the interview, and in a second column will include comments that reflect a self-analysis of how well they think they did during the interview and things they feel might have been more effective. Be sure the comments you make align correctly with what was said in the interview on which your comments are based. It is suggested that students write this paper by creating a table with 2 columns and as many rows as you need to cover each time the social work student says something and the “client” responds. At the end of the paper, after your comments on the videotape transcript, you also need to write a paragraph summarizing what you viewed as your overall strengths in the interview and what you think you need to continue working on improving with regard to your interviewing skills. PAPERS MUST BE DOUBLE SPACED IN THEIR ENTIRETY; SINGLE SPACED PAPERS WILL NOT BE GRADED. See the attached example of a small part of a self-analysis paper for a sample of how this should be written.

Students must bring a DVD mini-disk for the taping (information regarding the correct kind of disk to buy will be provided). A particular day and time will be set aside to do the videotaping at the University. Using equipment here, students will sign up for the videotaping time they want (days/times will be provided for you to sign up). These will be the only day/times on which videotaping will occur. A student who does not show up to do their videotape will receive a grade of 0 (zero) for this portion of the course. The professor will give students written feedback about their videotaped interview, using the transcript provided by the student. This syllabus contains the form that will be used to provide feedback.

Grading of the videotaped interviews will have two aspects. Fifteen percent (15%) of the student's grade for the course will be based on how well the student has learned and is able to use guidelines for interviewing learned in class. See the attached grading rubric to see how this portion will be graded; be sure and review this before you do your videotaped interview and again before you do your written self-analysis of your interview so you will remember the kinds of things you are expected to demonstrate during your interview. An additional fifteen percent (15%) of the student's grade for the course will be based on the quality of the student's self-analysis of the video. Thus, if the student makes a mistake during the interview (for example, constantly asking closed-ended yes/no questions), this will have less impact on the grade if the student's self-analysis shows recognition of this weakness and includes suggestions for more effective ways the questions could have been asked/interactions could have been handled.

6. Personal Statement of Social Work Philosophy paper (10% of grade)

Each student will write their personal social work philosophy statement, which is part of the students' application to the social work major. The following is an outline of what to include in your paper:

Personal Statement of SW Philosophy

Autobiographical Sketch

- ♦ Your personal history as it applies to your decision to go into social work (5pts)
- ♦ Significant people/events that led you to choose this field (5pts)
- ♦ How your motives, personality characteristics, and values relate to mission/purposes of SW profession (5pts)

Self-Assessment

- ♦ Your strengths and weaknesses as you are currently aware of them (5pts)
- ♦ How the SW program fits into your career aspirations and what you would like to do in SW, as far as you know right now (7.5 pts)
- ♦ How your learning style, personality characteristics, and learning needs/goals fit with the SW program (5pts)
- ♦ What areas of professional KSA's (knowledge, skills and abilities) are you already proficient in, and what areas need further study/work? (5pts)
- ♦ What have you studied so far that most struck a chord with you, and why? (5pts)

Personal and Philosophical Perspectives

- ♦ Your personal philosophy/perspectives about the profession of SW and SW roles you envision performing (5pts)
- ♦ Your personal philosophy/perspectives about SW practice issues (5pts)
 - What approaches do you most value?
 - What models might you use in helping clients?
- ♦ Your personal philosophy/perspectives about human behavior and change (5pts)

- ♦ Your personal philosophy/perspectives about the future, about society and how SW fits into that future (5pts)
- ♦ Your personal philosophy and how it fits with the social work Code of Ethics. What ethical issues do you currently anticipate being most difficult for you, and why? (For example, are there personal or religious beliefs that you hold that might conflict with the Code of Ethics? How do you plan to keep that from being a problem in your practice as a professional social worker?) (7.5pts)

Note: On your Personal Statement of Social Work Philosophy paper, 25% of the grade will be based on the style of your writing – i.e., on correct spelling, composition, punctuation, grammar and APA usage. Five (5%) of your grade will be based on structure – i.e. page numbers, APA usage, etc. Seventy (70%) of the grade will be on content of the written assignment. Social workers do a great deal of writing; it is essential that you develop professional, clear patterns of written communication since it will affect your professional reputation. All writing errors in your paper will be corrected by the professor, and you need to study those corrections after the paper is returned so you will understand what kinds of errors you tend to make and you can avoid making the same mistakes in subsequent papers. Your score on this 25% of the grade will depend on how many writing errors you made. If you do not understand some of the corrections that are made in your papers, ask the professor about them. See the Philosophy Paper rubric attached.

6. Class Attendance & Participation (10% of final grade)

Attendance: Students are expected to be present for every scheduled class session to enrich the learning experience. Students receive 5 points for each day of attendance and a zero (0) for an absence, tardiness, or early departure from class without prior discussion and approval by the instructor. If you are unable to avoid missing a class, you must notify the professor via email before the class period to explain the absence.

Further, students are expected to actively engage in the learning during class. This includes engaging in discussion, activities, and actively listening to discussions and lectures taking place in class. The instructor assumes that attendance will yield positive and active engagement as outlined above. Failure to attend or to actively engage in positive ways as outlined above and in accordance with the class policies, university code of conduct, and school behavioral expectations (see professional behavior rubric attached to this syllabus) will yield a zero (0) for attendance/participation. Hence, it is important to be aware that absences and failure to adhere to class policies while in class can and will impact this portion of your grade. Please note: If your schedule is such that you find it consistently difficult to arrive to class on time, remain for the full class, or arrive to class at all, it is best that you find a course that would best meet your scheduling needs.

Class Policies

The following policies apply to all students enrolled in this course:

1. Students are not permitted to enter class more than ten (10) minutes late. Exceptions will be made with prior discussion and approval by the professor only.
2. Once class has begun, students are expected to remain for the duration of the class. It is expected that all students will take care of personal affairs (i.e., get beverages, take care of phone calls, meeting with students and other professors, use the restroom, etc.) before class begins. Students who have a medical/physical condition for which they need to request an exception to this policy are advised to speak with the Disability Services Coordinator and/or discuss this with the professor to see if an exception can be granted. Students leaving the class outside of these parameters should not attempt to re-enter the class and will receive a 0 for class participation and/or attendance that day. Please note: During the summer when classes are 2 hours and 30 minutes in length, the instructor will have a minimal 10 minute break built into each scheduled learning period to support student needs.
3. Students are expected to display professional decorum at all times. This includes, but is not limited to, respecting classmates and the instructor. In this regard, it is expected that students will not speak to/hold conversations with/pass notes to other students, use cell phones, or engage in other types of unprofessional behaviors once class has begun. Talking during lecture, out of turn, or while other students are talking is disruptive to the learning environment, disrespectful to peers, and unprofessional in demeanor. Students are strongly encouraged to engage in discussion in a respectful and appropriate manner; hence, it is expected that students apply classroom etiquette and raise a hand if there is something to share or to answer a question. It is also expected that students will display patience in raising a hand and recognize that the professor will eventually call on the student and/or may attempt to vary responses from peers and not call on the student in an effort to do so. Shouting out answers, making loud noises, and/or waving a hand vigorously to capture attention is unprofessional and inappropriate behavior. Consistent display of such behavior will result in consultation by the professor and can potentially impact the attendance/participation grade. Students are encouraged to use a "parking lot" to for questions that may be better to address after class with the professor.

Please note: This professor will NOT assign seats to students. If behavior accelerates to such a need, a meeting will be requested with the student, the instructor and potentially the department to address appropriateness to be able to continue with the course. If it is determined that the behavior significantly impacts/impairs learning for other students, the student may be asked to leave the class permanently, resulting in an F for the course.

4. To support the academic learning environment, students are asked to refrain from sharing personal information in class that will not support/add significantly to the class discussion. Sharing of personal stories and/or issues that are not related to the topic can distract class learning and limit knowledge sharing by the professor and other students. In this regard, please note that the professor reserves the right to redirect/limit such conversations in class unless students are expressly asked to share such information by the instructor.

5. NO TECHNOLOGY IS PERMITTED DURING IN CLASS EXAMS, QUIZZES, OR OTHER TYPES OF ASSIGNMENTS AS DEFINED BY THE PROFESSOR, UNLESS GIVEN SPECIFIC PERMISSION BY THE PROFESSOR. During such assignments, students may be asked to turn in cell phones to the professor, place bags beneath desk or to the side of class, or other request to minimize use of such technology. Students discovered to be using cell phones, ipads, e-readers, recording devices, etc. during assignments without expressed, written approval by the professor to do so will receive a zero (0) for the assignment and referred to Student Affairs for academic integrity concerns. Students warned against doing so once and found to do so again in this or any subsequent course will receive an F for the course in which the behavior was identified and referred to Student Affairs.
6. Students are NOT permitted to work collaboratively (together) on any assignment unless given EXPRESSED permission by the instructor to do so. This includes homework, take home quizzes, papers, etc. Failure to adhere to this policy can result in a zero (0) on the assignment and referral to Student Affairs for academic integrity concerns.
7. All assignments must be turned in at the beginning of class on the day they are due unless indicated otherwise by the professor. The professor will explain to you when the beginning of class is for the course (for example: 10 minutes after the start of class, following the class greeting by the instructor, etc.). Late work will not be accepted or graded unless this has been discussed with and approved by the professor BEFORE the due date (not the due time) of the assignment. Being absent from class on a day when an assignment is due does NOT grant a student an extension to the due date; the student must still arrange to get that assignment turned in to the professor before class starts. Allowing students to turn in assignments late for a grade is not fair to other students who get their work done on time, disrupts the grading process for the professors, and sends a message that such behavior is professionally “okay,” which it is not. This, as well as all other policies, will be held to strict code, and failure to adhere to this policy will result in a zero (0) for the assignment. This is inclusive of all assignments.

Please note: This professor considers it unprofessional and unacceptable to run into class with a newly printed paper and attempt to assemble the paper at the professor’s desk/podium (getting pages together, stapling, etc.) prior to turning the paper/assignment in. This shows failure to effectively plan and take initiative to get assignments turned in on time. Two (2) points will be deducted from any paper/assignment (even if turned in before class) that is prepared and submitted in such a manner; hence, it is advisable to appropriately assemble papers for submission BEFORE entering class.

8. Unless otherwise noted, hard copies of papers must be submitted. Students should be prepared to submit electronic copies of any paper for class at the discretion of the instructor.

9. All papers submitted for grading MUST adhere to APA 6th edition standards unless otherwise stated by the professor. This means that all papers must, minimally, be: 1) typed, 2) double spaced, 3) use Times New Roman font, 4) use 12 point font, 5) include an APA style cover page, and 6) include in-text citations AND a reference page for ANY SOURCED INFORMATION (this includes information learned in current or previous classes, read online, learned during a personal communication, reviewed over email, read in a text-book, etc.). Further, all typed papers submitted in class MUST be stapled or clipped together (if too large for staple). It is not acceptable, nor professional, to hand in a paper that is not professionally bound (in academia, professionally bound means stapled or securely clipped together). Unless instructed to do so, submitting papers in folders, binders, etc. are not required and should be limited in use.
10. TAMU-CT expects all students to maintain high standards of personal and scholarly conduct and avoid any form of academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (intentional or unintentional), copying another person's work, turning in someone else's work as your own, downloading material from the internet and inserting it into a paper as if it was your own work, taking ideas from classes or readings and putting them in a paper without citations/references, cheating on an examination or other academic work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. Any idea, even paraphrased ideas, used or borrowed must be given credit by showing the source with an appropriate citation and reference. Any student who violates class and/or university policies regarding Academic Honesty will be sanctioned according to the University and program guidelines. More information on university policies can be found at www.ct.tamus.edu/studentconduct. A copy of the University's policy is also located at the end of this syllabus.
11. Additional & Important Note on Writing Assignments: All written assignments are expected to be the original work of the student. While paraphrasing and some direct quotations are permitted, it is expected this will be done within the context of your own analysis and synthesis of the information read. Paraphrasing is a skill of reading information and, using your own thoughts, summarizing the information in a way that supports the topic discussed. While the paraphrase involves your own thoughts, it originates from a source and that source is cited. Quoting is a matter of taking words, verbatim, from another source and restating them without, or with minimal, manipulation. Quotations are placed in quotation marks (" ") or placed in a block format within the text. Quoting does not involve analysis and synthesizing and, therefore, does not require critical thinking except when used appropriately to support (not substitute) an idea. Because of this, students are discouraged from using significant quotations as this limits your learning experience. Students found to excessively quote will be penalized. Students using words as their own without appropriately citing will be penalized – including failing the assignment and up to failing the course. Students found to have plagiarized (using words as your own without giving proper credit, whether paraphrasing or directly quoting) will also be referred to the Student Affairs. Therefore, it is VERY important that students take academic integrity in writing very seriously. If you are in doubt, it is always best to cite your source and/or speak with your professor for more guidance. The Writing Center, Library, and Owl Purdue are also resources that can help you. A copy of this statement is located at the end of this syllabus. You are required to acknowledge receipt and understanding regarding the policy for academic integrity in this course by signing and submitting the acknowledgement statement no later than the second (2nd) week of class. Failure to do so will result in consultation with the professor, program faculty and/or Student Affairs and could limit your successful continuation in this course.

12. Class discussions, oral presentations, and written materials must adhere to professional standards of expression and conform to the style described by the American Psychological Association (APA, 2009). This includes avoidance of the use of language that degrades women, people of color, gays, lesbians, bisexuals, transgendered, and other diverse and at-risk populations. All students are expected to display the utmost respect for all people, regardless of differences.

13. Use of Technology in the Field:

The Internet has created the ability for students and social workers to communicate and share information quickly and to reach millions of people easily. Participating in social networking and other similar Internet opportunities can support a students' personal expression, enable individual social workers to have a professional presence online, foster collegiality and camaraderie within the profession, provide opportunity to widely advocate for social policies and other communication. Social networks, blogs, and other forms of communication online also create new challenges to the social worker-client relationship. Students should weigh a number of considerations when maintaining a presence online:

(a) Students should be cognizant of standards of client privacy and confidentiality that must be maintained in all environments, including online, and must refrain from posting identifiable client information online or conducting searches using client information.

(b) When using the Internet for social networking, students should use privacy settings to safeguard personal information and content to the extent possible, but should realize that privacy settings are not absolute and that once on the Internet, content is likely there permanently. Thus, students should routinely monitor their own Internet presence to ensure that the personal and professional information on their own sites and, to the extent possible, content posted about them by others, is accurate and appropriate.

(c) Students should never interact with clients, co-workers, or supervisors on the Internet, students must maintain appropriate boundaries of the social worker-client relationship in accordance with professional ethical guidelines, just as they would in any other context. Example, do not ask your supervisor, clients, or co-workers to be your friends on Facebook.
Example, do not accept friend request of any client or anyone you work with at your field agency.

(d) To maintain appropriate professional boundaries students should consider separating personal and professional content online. Should a client seek out a student online, the student should direct the client with the students professional contact information.

(f) Students must recognize that actions online and content posted may negatively affect their reputations among clients and colleagues, may have consequences for their social work careers and can undermine public trust in the social work profession.

(Adopted from the American Medical Association, 2010)

14. Final Note Regarding Class Policies

The aforementioned policies are designed to create and foster a positive and rewarding learning environment for all students. Failure to adhere to the aforementioned class policies, as well as university policies, demonstrates a potential inability to conduct oneself professionally in the field of study. These policies are applicable throughout the program and, as such, students who consistently fail to comply with these policies will be considered inappropriate candidates for field placement and/or the degree of Bachelor of Social Work at TAMU-CT, as their behavior is considered inappropriate for a social work practitioner.

An assessment of student behavior as it relates to class policies, and overall decorum required throughout the TAMU-CT social work program and the University, is provided via the “Rubric for Assessing Professional Behaviors” (attached to this syllabus). Any student in this course found to perform below the standard requirements will be provided with a rubric outlining areas for concern. Failure to obtain scores of 3 or 4 in any of the 15 professional behavior areas listed in the rubric will limit a student’s ability to be assigned a field placement and/or can result in removal from a field placement. These behaviors, which align with the National Association of Social Workers (NASWs) core values and ethics, TAMU-CTs Code of Conduct, and the Social Work Program class policies, are considered the expected professional behaviors of social work interns and future generalist social workers and, therefore, are held to the strictest code.

University Policies

1. Drop Policy

If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must go to the Records Office and ask for the necessary paperwork. Professors cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The records office will give a deadline for which the form must be completed, returned, and signed. SW: Good morning, Ms. Jones. I'm glad you were able to make it in. What brings you here today?	Good introduction, but my body language was stiff. I should have tried to appear more relaxed. I had good eye contact with her.
CL: I have really been stressed out lately because of my job. I was hoping maybe you could help me with that.	I could have said something empathetic before just jumping in with my first question. For example, I could have said, "I'm glad you decided to come get some help with that; job stress can be very frustrating." Closed ended questions and multiple questions are not good. I should have asked an open ended question at first, such as, "Tell me about your job and the kinds of stresses it has been creating for you."
SW: What kind of job do you have?
CL: I am a sixth grade teacher.
SW: What do you teach, and how long have you been teaching?
(You would put here everything client said about the job.)	I'm sitting forward and really listening to her, which is good. I think she could tell I was really interested in hearing her story. I was patient and did not interrupt her while she was talking. I did notice that I was having a little trouble listening to her, because I was busy wondering what to say next. But I don't think that showed. Good empathy and reflecting client's feelings.
SW: I can hear that you are in a very challenging position. You have a lot of concerns about how to cope with it.	It was good that I asked a clarification question. I also wish I had said something about the fact that she has a love of teaching, and that hopefully we can work together to help her feel that love again.
CL: I love working with the kids, but I am just so stressed out, I am about to lose it.
SW: What do you mean when you say you are about to lose it?

CL: I get so depressed, sometimes I just go home and cry.

Jumping to solutions way too soon. I didn't ask her detailed questions about how depressed she is feeling. I didn't ask what she has tried to do to deal with those feelings of depression. I didn't find out if she has previously sought help with this problem. I shut down her talking about the problem in my eagerness to help her.

SW: Have you tried just taking relaxing walks after class?

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND AGREEMENT FOR ACADEMIC INTEGRITY IN Methods and Skills of Interviewing

All written assignments are expected to be the original work of the student. While paraphrasing and some direct quotations are permitted, it is expected this will be done within the context of your own analysis and synthesis of the information read. Paraphrasing is a skill of reading information and, using your own thoughts, summarizing the information in a way that supports the topic discussed. While the paraphrase involves your own thoughts, it originates from a source and that source is cited. Quoting is a matter of taking words, verbatim, from another source and restating them without, or with minimal, manipulation. Quotations are placed in quotation marks (""") or placed in a block format within the text. Quoting does not involve analysis and synthesizing and, therefore, does not require critical thinking except when used appropriately to support (not substitute) an idea. Because of this, students are discouraged from using significant quotations as this limits your learning experience. Students found to excessively quote will be penalized. Students using words as their own without appropriately citing will be penalized – including failing the assigned project and up to failing the course. Students found to have plagiarized (using words as your own without giving proper credit, whether paraphrasing or directly quoting) will also be referred to the Student Affairs. Therefore, it is VERY important that students take academic integrity in writing very seriously. If you are in doubt, it is always best to cite your source and/or speak with your professor for more guidance. The Writing Center, Library, and Owl Purdue are also resources that can help you. You are required to acknowledge receipt and understanding regarding the policy for academic integrity in this course by signing and submitting the acknowledgement statement no later than the second (2nd) week of class. Failure to do so will result in consultation with the professor, program faculty and/or Student Affairs and could limit your successful continuation in this course.

My printed name and signature below confirms that I acknowledge the above mentioned Academic Integrity guidelines for this course. I willingly agree to participate in the class and abide by ALL academic integrity parameters for this course (including ALL university and class policies). I further understand that failure to do so can result in academic penalties including and leading up to failure of the course and referral to Student Affairs.
