Course Description

Diachronic study of the English language with focus on the Old English, Middle English, and Modern English periods. Topics include phonological, morphological, syntactic, and lexical change in English along with the cultural and historical events and contact situations, which accompany language development.

Objectives

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

- Describe the major stages of the English language in terms of phonological, morphological, syntactic, and lexical/semantic features.
- Understand and apply principles of language change to the development of the English language.
- Discuss the relevance of historical and cultural events to the development of the English language.
- Identify and analyze the linguistic features covered in class in a variety of texts in the English language.
- Use primary and secondary sources in order to research the etymology of an English word, and
- Produce a detailed etymology of an English word.

Required Textbooks

Albert C. Baugh and Thomas Cable. A History of the English Language. 6th ed. ISBN: 9780415655965. Please purchase this edition.

All grades will be posted to Canvas’s grade book, and students will be able to view their grades, along with instructor feedback, as assignments are returned. You can generally expect grades to be posted within one week of the assignment deadline, and assignments will be returned on the class meeting immediately following the posting of grades.

Major Assignment Due Dates

Exam 1: Wednesday, October 3

Exam 2: Monday, October 29

Exam 3: Wednesday, December 5

Etymology Project – Written Portion: Monday, December 10, 1 PM

Etymology Project – Presentation: Monday, December 10

Participation

Participation is based on course attendance and involvement in class discussions and activities. You will receive a participation score (rated 0-10, with 10 representing excellent participation and 0 representing no participation) at the end of each week, and the average of weekly participation scores will determine the final participation score. A participation rubric will be distributed during Week 1. See the Attendance Policy for information regarding the participation score and absences.

Article Review

For this assignment, each student will choose a different scholarly source (either article/chapter or book-length) on a topic related to historical linguistics and produce a two-page written review of and response to the source. Both the written review and brief (3-5-minute) in-class summary of the source will be completed and submitted during the week when the source's topic is being discussed in class. A prompt and rubric for this assignment will be distributed at the beginning of the semester, and students will sign up for presentation dates during the first week of class.

Exams

There will be three in-class exams this semester. They will be closed-book, closed notes. Exams will focus on content covered in assigned readings and related class meetings leading up to each exam. The topics from A History of the English Language covered in each exam are as follows:

Exam 1: HEL Ch. 1-4

Exam 2: HEL Ch. 5-7

Exam 3: HEL Ch. 8-12

Exams can contain multiple choice, true/false, short answer, and/or short essay questions. Question types may vary based on exam.

Etymology Project and Presentation

The term project consists of a detailed written etymology of an English word and presentation of research findings at the end of the semester. Prompts and rubrics for both the written and presentation aspects of the project will be distributed at the beginning of the semester, and students will be asked to sign up for a word by the end of the third week of class.

Instructor Availability

You are welcome to contact me with questions or comments via email (but please send emails to me via the Canvas messaging system only, unless the site is down). I endeavor to answer all emails within 24 hours of receiving them, not counting weekends and holidays. Appointments are not required during regularly-held office hours (see top of syllabus for details); you can stop by at any time during office hours. You may request an appointment outside normal office hours in person or by email; however, I do ask that any appointment request be made at least 24 hours in advance of the desired meeting time. Do not assume that the meeting will take place unless I have responded to your request and confirmed the time. Please only request an appointment if it is impossible for you to meet during regularly-scheduled office hours.

Draft Review Policy

Students often ask me whether I'll look at major assignment drafts and give advice on how to improve them. The answer is yes, with two requirements. First, students who wish for me to review an entire draft must come to office hours or make an appointment to do so and must bring a print copy of the draft with them. I will not review drafts that are emailed to me with no explanation; over email, I will only address specific questions that can be answered in a brief email response. Second, students who wish for me to review an entire draft must also come to the meeting with two or three specific areas in their assignment that they'd like to discuss. You might mention paragraph organization/structure, thesis statement strength, or other such topics. This does not mean that I will not comment on other areas for improvement; I have found that beginning by discussing specific aspects of the project identified by the student helps to make the meeting time more effective and focused.

Classroom Etiquette

Students are to maintain a high level of collegiality and respect when interacting with one another and the instructor. Disagreements are a normal and often productive aspect of academic discourse, and differences in viewpoint relevant to the class meeting may be expressed and explored during discussion portions of the class. However, participants engaged in any variety of classroom discussion must remain respectful to all parties involved and focused on a topic relevant to the class meeting. Students who do not abide by these requirements (either through showing disrespect to others or through refusing to remain on-topic) will be asked to leave the classroom.

Late Submission Policy

I do not accept late/make-up work for assignments unless the student has missed the deadline due to a documented, university-excused absence or emergency (for example, an illness or an accident experienced by the student or a member of his or her immediate family).

If you miss a deadline due to a university-approved, documented reason, it is your responsibility to initiate a discussion regarding a deadline extension in a timely manner, ideally within 24 hours of missing the deadline. Documentation must be presented before a new deadline will be scheduled, and must be provided within 24 hours of the extension request. After a new deadline for the assignment is established and the confirmation of the new deadline is emailed to you, you must abide by this deadline or else receive a zero on the assignment. In all situations regarding missed and/or extended deadlines, it is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor if any issues arise. If I do not hear from you and do not have your submission after a deadline passes, I will assume that you do not intend to turn in the assignment and will put a zero in the gradebook.

Attendance Policy

Because class meetings this semester will be light on lecture and heavy on activity and discussion, attendance is of utmost importance. You may miss up to two classes without a documented, university-excused absence before your participation score will be affected. Any unexcused absences beyond these two will result in a zero participation score for the missed day, which will be factored into the participation score at the end of the week. Any in-class activities or assessments (including exams) missed without a documented, university-excused absence cannot be made up, even if they are missed during the two allotted "free" absences. A sign-in sheet will be passed around during each class meeting; it is your responsibility to initial the sheet to record your attendance each meeting.

Program Assessment Statement

To ensure the learning outcomes are met in the English Department, there is a program-wide artifact collection process. To that end, some of the projects you complete for ENGL 4378 this semester may be used for programmatic assessment. Please note that all efforts will be made to keep your identity anonymous; as such, all identifying markers will be removed from your work if used for programmatic assessment. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Dr. Dunai.

Drop Policy

If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete a Drop Request Form [https://www.tamuct.edu/registrar/docs/Drop_Request_Form.pdf].

Professors cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Registrar's Office will provide a deadline on the Academic Calendar for which the form must be completed, signed and returned. Once you return the signed form to the Registrar's Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Registrar's Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.

Incompletes

Incompletes are only assigned due to unexpected emergency situations which occur after the final drop date (for example, a life-threatening medical situation experienced by the student or a member of his/her immediate family). If you simply find yourself overwhelmed by the semester's demands, you do not qualify for an incomplete. If you experience an emergency which you believe will prevent you from completing the semester's work before the final drop date, you are expected to drop. If you experience an unexpected emergency situation after the final drop date which you believe will prevent you from completing the semester's work, please contact me as soon as possible so that we can discuss whether you qualify for an incomplete.

Academic Integrity

Texas A&M University -Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Academic integrity is defined as a commitment to honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. Academic misconduct is any act that improperly affects a true and honest evaluation of a student's academic performance and includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism and improper citation of sources, using another student's work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. All academic misconduct concerns will be reported to the university's Office of Student Conduct. Ignorance of the university's standards and expectations is never an excuse to act with a lack of integrity. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.

Plagiarism is the act of presenting another person's work as if it were your own. This might be done by quoting a source without indicating that you are quoting (if you neglect to include quotation marks and/or a citation); paraphrasing without making significant changes to the source text; and/or intentionally or unintentionally taking part or all of another text and presenting it as your own. Self-plagiarism means submitting part or all of an assignment that you previously submitted to another class for credit; submitting work done for previous courses is not permitted. You are responsible for understanding how to use sources correctly and ethically. You are also responsible for understanding the difference between quoting and paraphrasing, and understanding how to cite a source which you have quoted, paraphrased, or summarized. Even if a student is ignorant of what constitutes plagiarism, s/he is not exempt from the consequences for plagiarizing.

If you have questions about using and citing sources, please ask. Any assignments that fail to attribute sources properly, were written in part or in whole by someone other than the student who submitted it, and/or were previously submitted for credit to another course will receive a grade of zero and will be reported to the Office of Student Conduct. All major writing assignments will be checked for plagiarism via a service such as VeriCite.

Academic Accommodations

At Texas A&M University-Central Texas, we value an inclusive learning environment where every student has an equal chance to succeed and has the right to a barrier-free education. The Office of Access and Inclusion is responsible for ensuring that students with a disability receive equal access to the university's programs, services and activities. If you believe you have a disability requiring reasonable accommodations please contact the Office of Access and Inclusion at (254) 501-5831. Any information you provide is private and confidential and will be treated as such.

For more information please visit our Access & Inclusion web page [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/access-inclusion.html].

Important information for Pregnant and/or Parenting Students

Texas A&M University-Central Texas supports students who are pregnant and/or parenting. In accordance with requirements of Title IX and related guidance from US Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights, the Dean of Student Affairs' Office can assist students who are pregnant and/or parenting in seeking accommodations related to pregnancy and/or parenting. Students should seek out assistance as early in the pregnancy as possible. For more information, please visit the Student Affairs web page [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/index.html]. Students may also contact the institution's Title IX Coordinator. If you would like to read more about these requirements and guidelines online, please visit the website [http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/pregnancy.pdf].

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex and gender—including pregnancy, parenting, and all related conditions. A&M-Central Texas is able to provide flexible and individualized reasonable accommodation to pregnant and parenting students. All pregnant and parenting students should contact the Associate Dean in the Division of Student Affairs at (254) 501-5909 to seek out assistance. Students may also contact the University's Title IX Coordinator.

The University Writing Center

Located in Warrior Hall 416, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (TAMUCT) is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday thru Thursday with satellite hours in the University Library Monday thru Thursday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. This semester, the UWC is also offering online only hours from 12:00-3:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Students may arrange a one-on-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available) or by making an appointment via WOnline at [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu for any assistance needed with scheduling.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

If you have any questions about the UWC, please do not hesitate to contact Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu.

Tutoring

Tutoring is available to all A&M-Central Texas students, both on-campus and online. Subjects tutored on campus include Accounting, Advanced Math, Biology, Finance, Statistics, Mathematics, and Study Skills. Tutors are available at the Tutoring Center in Warrior Hall, Suite 111.

If you have a question regarding tutor schedules, need to schedule a tutoring session, are interested in becoming a tutor, or have any other question, contact Academic Support Programs at (254) 519-5796, or by emailing Dr. DeEadra Albert-Green at deeadra.albertgreen@tamuct.edu.

Chat live with a tutor 24/7 for almost any subject from on your computer! Tutor.com is an online tutoring platform that enables A&M-Central Texas students to log in and receive FREE online tutoring and writing support. This tool provides tutoring in over 40 subject areas. Access Tutor.com through Canvas.

Library Services

The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 250,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 85,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available 24 hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place on Skype or in-person at the library. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events. For more information, please visit our Library website [http://tamuct.libguides.com/index].

911 Cellular

Emergency Warning System for Texas A&M University – Central Texas

911Cellular is an emergency notification service that gives Texas A&M University-Central Texas the ability to communicate health and safety emergency information quickly via email, text message, and social media. All students are automatically enrolled in 911 Cellular through their myCT email account.

Connect at 911Cellular [https://portal.publicsafetycloud.net/Texas-AM-Central/alert-management] to change where you receive your alerts or to opt out. By staying enrolled in 911Cellular, university officials can quickly pass on safety-related information, regardless of your location.

The professor reserves the right to amend this syllabus at any time during the semester as issues or needs arise. Written addendums will be distributed should this need occur.
