5.0 Course Requirements

5.1 Exams (400 pts)

The student will take two exams, a mid-term and a final. The exams are essays, written in a blue book. Work not done in a blue book will not be graded. Blue books are available from the bookstore. Each exam is valued at 200 points. The student has a maximum of two hours to take the exam, given immediately after roll call. The exam window closes, however, when two hours have elapsed. The mid-term exam will receive comments from the instructor and will be returned to the student. Any use of books, notes, or internet (through cell phones) is forbidden during these two exams. Students are encouraged to review their work before submission. The following rubric will guide the instructor:

Qualities & Criteria	Poor	Good	Excellent
Content <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Elements of topics to be addressed • Information is correct • Coherency (Weight: 70%)	Not objective and poorly addresses the issues. Information is unnecessary or insufficient to discuss the issues. (0-109 pts)	Mostly objective and addresses most of the issues. Information is mostly necessary and sufficient to discuss the issues. (110-131 pts)	Objective and addresses all the issues. Information is necessary and sufficient to discuss the issues. (132-140 pts)
Quality of Writing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clarity • Grammar and English usage • Organization and coherence (Weight: 30%)	Poorly written and contains flagrant spelling and grammatical errors. Poorly organized, lacks clarity, and is incoherent. (0-40 pts)	Mostly well-written, without egregious spelling or grammatical errors. Organized, clear, and ideas are presented in coherent ways. (41-55 pts)	Well-written, without egregious spelling or grammatical errors. Well organized, clear, and ideas are presented in coherent ways. (56-60 pts)

A week before each exam, the instructor will provide students with two exam questions. This practice provides the student with a week's worth of preparation. It is highly recommended that students compose some outline of how they will write their essays and commit that outline to memory. After beginning the exam, students may wish to write their memorized outlines on the exam questions page, given to students before they begin their exams. This practice provides coherency and organization for one's essay.

NOTE: Graduate students are expected to have adequate knowledge of the essentials of grammar, writing style, and paper organization in accordance with the ASA Guide or other writing manuals. If the student does not have adequate knowledge in these areas, then the purchase and use of additional books are recommended. Failure to provide written work in accordance with the essentials of acceptable, English writing style and ASA guidelines will result in poor grades. Examples of non-standard English usage include, among other things, sentence fragments, run-ons, dangling modifiers, lack of agreement between pronouns and their antecedents or subjects and verbs, bulleted items, flagrant misuse of punctuation, pronouns without antecedents, slang or abbreviated expressions, and excessive use of metaphorical language.

5.2 Class Participation (300 pts)

Students are expected to participate in class discussions, indicating an understanding of the reading material and how to apply it. Students earn a point for full attendance on a specific day (appears on time and does not leave early). Students earn an additional point for participating in class discussion. (No points are awarded on exam days, however.) Thus, the student earns 0-2 points on each class day (total of 12 days), which corresponds to the following grade:

Points	Grade	Points	Grade
24	200	13	90
23	190	12	80
22	180	11	70
21	170	10	60
20	160	9	50
19	150	8	40
18	140	7	30
17	130	6	20
16	120	5	10
15	110	0-4	0
14	100

NOTE: If the student is tardy (appears in class after roll is called), it is their responsibility to notify the instructor at the conclusion of class (before leaving the classroom that evening), that they arrived in class and would like to receive some credit for class participation. Failure to notify the instructor may result in an absence for that day. Also, the graduate student is allowed one absence without major deduction of points (based on Class Participation rubric). A second absence, however, results in a lowering of final course grade (e.g., A becomes B, B becomes C).

Cell phone use is forbidden during class, and such behavior is not awarded class participation points.

5.3 Academic Integrity Document

During the first week of class, the student reads the section in the syllabus on academic honesty (section 8.0) and the link provided in that section regarding plagiarism. The student must sign the document pertaining to academic honesty and return it to the instructor. NOTE: Students will not be allowed to continue in the course without notifying the instructor of their comprehension of this material (by signing the document and submitting it to the instructor).

5.4 Annotated Bibliography (300 pts)

The student will submit an annotated bibliography of ten sources from the journal, Deviant Behavior, pertaining to some topic of interest. The student accesses the Journal through the online University Library. The student clicks on Academic Search Complete and then in the search box enters Deviant Behavior as a "Journal Name." The student should get hundreds or thousands of articles to browse through. The annotated bibliography shall consist of ten pages, one for each source.

In the header, students shall identify themselves by name. In the text, students provide the reference information in ASA style at the top of each page. Below the reference entry, students shall summarize the findings of the author(s). The student shall use Times New Roman 12 typeface, double-spaced, and normal margins. A half to a full page of notes is sufficient. All notes shall be confined to one page for each source.

Each source is worth 30 points, for a total of 300 points for the assignment.

8.0 Academic Integrity

TAMUCT expects all students to maintain high standards of personal and scholarly conduct. Students guilty of academic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary action. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism, self-plagiarism (“recycling”), or collusion. The instructor shall initiate action for each case of academic dishonesty and report it to the Associate Director of Student Conduct. Zero points are assigned for any course product that violates academic honesty. The student should access this link for more information: : <https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct.html>.

9.0 Disability Support

If students believe that this course may present barriers to learning due to a disability, they must contact Access and Inclusion at (254) 501-5831 in Warrior Hall, Ste. 212. For more information, students may visit their website at <https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/access-inclusion.html>. Any information that the student provides is private and confidential and will be treated as such. The instructor cannot accommodate students’ disabilities unless they first communicate with Access and Inclusion.

10.0 Diversity in the Classroom

Respect for cultural and human biological diversity are core concepts within the social sciences. In this course, each voice in the classroom has value in contributing to class discussion. The student should respect the different experiences, beliefs, and values expressed by one’s fellow students and instructor, and refrain from derogatory comments about other individuals, cultures, groups, or viewpoints. In this course we welcome individuals of all ages, backgrounds, citizenships, disabilities, education, ethnicities, family statuses, genders, gender identities, geographical locations, languages, military experiences, political views, races, religions, sexual orientations, socioeconomic statuses, and work experiences.

11.0 Writing Center

The University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University-Central Texas is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students. The UWC is located in Warrior Hall, Rm 416. One may contact Dr. Bruce Bowles at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu for more information.

12.0 Late Work

As a rule, make-up work is not be accepted. In some cases, the mid-term exam may be accepted late, but with a 20-point deduction for each day late. In no instance will a make-up exam be offered for the final exam, and in no instance will a make-up for the mid-term exam be given after two weeks from the original exam date. To be considered as a prospect for making up the mid-term exam, the student must contact the instructor within 24 hours of having missed the exam for purposes of making it up. The final course grade will be posted within a few days of the final exam; therefore, no incompletes will be awarded for this course. If students foresee that they will be unable to complete the course, then they should either drop the course or accept the posted grade.

13.0 Modification of the Syllabus

The syllabus may be revised in minor ways at the discretion of the instructor. Students are responsible for noting any changes in the syllabus. More than likely, a change in the syllabus will pertain to events in the course calendar (sect. 7.0). If modified, the revised course calendar will be posted on Canvas and will replace section 7.0 of the syllabus.

14.0 Contact with the Instructor

Students should contact the instructor via the message feature of Canvas about any topic or issue that pertains to the course.

15.0 Announcements

Students are responsible for checking Canvas on a near-daily basis for messages
