I. COURSE OVERVIEW

a. Course Overview and Description:

"Companies must learn to operate as if the world were one large market—ignoring superficial regional and national differences" –Theodore Levitt.

Global markets are dynamic and ever-changing. Understanding these markets requires that businesses, of all size, stay abreast of the latest developments in the field. This course provides an examination of issues impacting businesses from an international marketing context. Students will explore the role that the global marketplace plays on a firm's mission, structure, and competitive strategy. A thorough understanding of global marketing environments, global marketing functions and strategies, and global marketing mix strategies is an essential part of this course. Students will be exposed to international marketing issues from both an academic and a practitioner perspective.

b. Student Learning Outcomes: At the close of the semester, students should display the following competencies:

1. Ability to understand, interpret, and analyze current international marketing theories and practices.
2. Ability to describe the role international marketing plays in a broader managerial framework.
3. Ability to research and report leading international marketing/business issues and cultural practices.

c. Method of Instruction: This course is a traditional, face-to-face course. It is imperative for students to attend class, as a portion of the exams will be based on the lecture material, which may not be found in the text. Additionally, attendance is required in this course.

The TAMUCT Canvas Learning Management System will be used to complete a portion of the required assignments throughout the semester. Moreover, supplemental materials will be made available through this learning system. This system may be accessed at <https://tamuct.instructure.com>. Students not familiar with Canvas should carefully review the access instructions detailed in section III of the syllabus.

d. Required Textbook:

Cateora, P. Gilly, M. and J. Graham (2016). International Marketing. 17th Edition. Boston: McGraw-Hill Irwin. ISBN 978-0-07-784216-1.

Students can purchase or rent the print text or digital text at their chosen retail or online store. It must be purchased and received within the first week of class.

II. INSTRUCTOR COMMUNICATION AND CONTACT INFORMATION

- a. Office Hrs: MW 12:20pm-2:20pm & 4:00pm-6:00pm; T 5:00pm-6:00pm
- b. Student/Professor Interaction: Posted office hours will be held in my office, Founder's Hall room 319. I encourage students to interact with me during office hours to ask any questions about assignments, get clarity on concepts, and/or review grading status in the course. If you cannot communicate with me during this time, please email me to schedule an appointment for an alternative time. I am readily accessible through email, which I check multiple times a day during the week and once a day on weekends. Be sure to allow plenty of lead time prior to a due date if you are asking about an assignment.
- c. Email Etiquette: When communicating via email, make certain to adhere to the following email etiquette standards: (1) begin your message with a greeting (2) formally address the person you are emailing (use Mr., Ms., Mrs., Dr., Professor, or other appropriate title followed by the person's last name), (3) identify yourself and state the purpose of your email, and (4) add a signature, including your name and contact information. Failure to adhere to this policy will result in the deduction of 50% of the student's participation grade.

III. TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

- a. Canvas Tools and Resources: Effective use of the Canvas Learning Management System is critical for success in this course. Logon to TAMUCT Canvas [<https://tamuct.instructure.com>].

- b. Personal Computer Set-Up: When you log on for the first time this semester or whenever you use a different computer to access Canvas run a browser check to be sure each computer is set up properly. Issues with technology or your personal computer are not allowable reasons for missing a deadline or resetting an exam, so be sure you have the correct computer settings and have a back-up computer available.

- c. Technology Issues & Troubleshooting: For course technology issues, students should contact the TAMUCT Help Desk Central, available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The Canvas Support "Help" Desk contact information is as follows:
- Email: helpdesk@tamu.edu

IV. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- a. Student Profile/Course Agreement: Students will be asked to complete a student profile on the first day of class. The student profile will assist students when introducing themselves to their peers. In addition, the student profile will allow the professor to become acquainted with each student's background. The student course agreement is an agreement the student signs at the beginning of the semester, stipulating that the student understands and agrees with the responsibilities associated with the course and has read the syllabus thoroughly. The student profile/course agreement is worth 25 grading points.
- b. Attendance: Attendance is mandatory in this course. Attendance will be taken during each class session. In order to receive full credit for attendance, each student is required to be present to each class session. Attendance is critical, because it is highly unlikely that any student will successfully complete the course without regular attendance. A substantial portion of the exams will be based on lecture material, which may not be found in the text. Attendance is worth 50 grading points. (Objectives 1, 2, & 4)
- c. Exams: There will be two exams. The exams will test each student's knowledge of the key frameworks and concepts. The test will contain multiple choice, true/false, and open ended questions. The exams will be based on concepts learned from the text as well as concepts learned during lectures. The chapter PowerPoint lectures, key terms, and publisher provided self-quizzes are all useful study guides for the Exams. In addition, students are encouraged to take notes during class time on material not covered in the text. Exams are each worth 100 grading points totaling 200 grading points. (Objectives 1-3)
- d. Student-Led Discussions: Students will form teams and be assigned to lead two class discussions on an international product of their choice. Discussion dates for student teams will be selected at random at the beginning of the semester. The discussions are meant to expand the students' perspective on international products, while allowing them to gain practice in short, formal presentation delivery. Each student-led discussions are worth 50 points totaling 100 grading points. (Objectives 1-3)
- e. Cultural Analysis Project: Students will watch a film that has international issues heavily embedded within its content. Students must carefully discern the issues' impact on business practices, particularly from an international marketing perspective. Detailed instructions will be provided on the day of the in-class assignment. The cultural analysis is worth 100 grading points.

- f. Country Analysis Project: In an effort to gain in-depth general-business and marketing-specific knowledge on a country and its cultures, student teams will engage in a comprehensive country analysis project. The final product will be an in-class presentation. Countries will be assigned at the beginning of the semester. Detailed instructions will be provided to students on the day of the Midterm Examination. The Country Analysis Project is worth 125 grading points.

- c. The University Writing Center: Located in 416 Warrior Hall, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University – Central Texas is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students. Students may arrange a one-on-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available). Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process.

While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the University Writing Center is here to help!

If you have any questions about the University Writing Center, please do not hesitate to contact Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu.

Research guides for each subject taught at TAMUCT are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On-campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available twenty-four hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place on Skype or in-person at the library. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

VI. COURSE AND UNIVERSITY POLICIES/PROCEDURES

- a. Academic Integrity: Texas A&M University—Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. Texas A&M—Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Academic integrity is defined as a commitment to honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. Academic misconduct is any act that improperly affects a true and honest evaluation of a student's academic performance and includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism and improper citation of sources, using another student's work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. All academic misconduct concerns will be reported to the University's Office of Student Conduct. Ignorance of the University's standards and expectations is never an excuse to act with a lack of integrity. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action. A found incidence of Academic Dishonesty for any assignment, project, or exam in this class will result in 0 points. Multiple incidences will result in an F course grade.

b. Academic Accommodations: At Texas A&M—Central Texas, we value an inclusive learning environment where every student has an equal chance to succeed and has the right to a barrier free education. The Department of Access and Inclusion is responsible for ensuring that students with a disability receive equal access to the University's programs, services and activities. If you believe you have a disability requiring reasonable accommodations please contact the Department of Access and Inclusion at (254) 501-5831. Any information you provide is private and confidential and will be treated as such.

c. A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [<https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php>].

d. Drop Policy: If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete a Drop Request Form [https://www.tamuct.edu/registrar/docs/Drop_Request_Form.pdf].

Professors cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Registrar's Office will provide a deadline on the University Calendar for which the form must be completed, signed and returned. Once you return the signed form to the Registrar's Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Registrar's Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.
