Course Description

An examination of the factors and conditions leading to behaviors that violate and deviate from fundamental social values. The relationship of personal and social maladjustment is addressed in relation to the various theories of deviant behavior.

Course Objectives

1. Understand the nature of deviant behavior.
2. Identify and understand current perspectives and theories on deviant behavior.
3. Describe and understand the social organization and forms of deviance, including violent behavior, white collar crime, drug and alcohol deviant behavior, sexual deviance and suicide.
4. To develop critical thinking skills by integrating a “sociological perspective” into your oral and written communications.

Class/Instructor Policies

Taking a Sociological Perspective: I encourage questions and discussion concerning course material and sharing personal observations and experiences. However, since you are enrolled in a sociology course, the main goal is to utilize a sociological perspective. This means that you should try to analyze various topics with an objective point of view. Objective point of view means looking through the lens of sociology. How does sociology utilize objectivity, you might be asking? Sociology is a social science – qualitative and quantitative research techniques are used to collect data about the social world. Sociologists must always strive to maintain an objective outlook when observing the social world. Therefore, in this course, you will be challenged to look within the layers of a social phenomenon or put another way, to look beyond what you see on the surface. In addition, you will not agree with everything you hear in class from the professor or your classmates. Part of becoming educated requires that your ideas are challenged. As a college-level student, you should be able to see different points of view of the same issue. I expect students to be respectful towards every person in this classroom, even if they disagree with certain viewpoints.

The role of the instructor is to present critical ideas, to offer an analytical framework for understanding the course material, to work with students in providing an inspiring learning environment, and to provide and receive constructive feedback. It is not the instructor's role to tell the student what to think. The student's responsibility is to read the readings with a critical mind, to question, to complete assignments on time, to participate in the exchange of ideas, and to work toward an inspiring learning environment. It is the responsibility of all of us to create a safe learning environment free of racism, sexism, classism, ageism, ableism, homophobia, transphobia and heterosexism.

Late Work: I will NOT be accepting late work under any circumstances. If you are turning in assignments, they must be uploaded at the specified due date and time in Canvas. I will not accept that assignment through email. You will earn a zero for the assignment and/or paper.

Additional Help: If you need additional help on assignments, papers, or any materials covered in class, you are more than welcome to set up an appointment with me or we can talk via email. Since this is an online class and you may not be in the area, email and/or talking on the phone may be the best solution. I am available equally to all of my students.

Incomplete Grades: I DO NOT GIVE OUT INCOMPLETE GRADES. ALL ASSIGNMENTS AND TESTS ARE DUE ON THE DATES OUTLINED IN THE SYLLABUS.

Course Requirements

1. Book Review – (100 points) - Due on Friday April 20 by midnight: The instructions for the book review are posted in Canvas. Please follow the book review guidelines as specified. Please use the headings (Introduction, Brief Description of the Book, Critical Review, Closing Comments and Reflections) to organize your review. Please upload your book review under the appropriate link. Your review should be double-space, written in Times New Roman 12 point font, and uploaded in a Word Document.
2. Essay Papers (6 x 25 pts each = 150 total points) - Please write a two page essay paper focusing on a topic or topics from your readings that pertains to deviant behavior. You want to focus on the readings for that particular week. Your essay papers will be due on Fridays by midnight. Please check the tentative course schedule below for due dates.
  - Your papers should be no less than 500 words and in Times New Roman 12 point font. Please double-space your essays.
  - For these papers, you must also reference correctly. If you take information from a source, you must give credit to your reference. If you turn in an essay without referencing, you will earn a zero for that assignment.
  - Please use ASA (American Sociological Association) referencing style. The ASA reference guide is listed under required texts on the first page of your syllabus. After the grading rubrics in this syllabus, I have also included some tips on how to properly reference your textbook.
  - I will be grading on your writing, correct referencing, organization (introduction, body and conclusion) and the content of your essay. Please see your rubric at the end of this syllabus.
  - Your papers should be uploaded in Canvas under the proper assignment link. I will not accept your work through email. I will not accept late work under any circumstances.
3. Final Exam (100 points) – Due on Monday May 7 at 8:00am. Your final will be an essay exam worth 100 points. I will grade on content, organization, proper referencing and your writing skills. The final essay exam will bring together what you have learned in the course with a length of no less than 1250 words, double-spaced in 12 point font. If you reference, you will use ASA referencing style. Your final exam will be available in Canvas by Monday April 30 at 8:00am.

4. Postings (14 Postings x 13 points each = 182 total points):

- You will have 14 postings for this course. You will be required to comment on a question (s) that I post and then respond to three of your classmates. You will receive a total of 13 points for providing a substantive post, responding to three classmates, presenting good writing skills and adhering to deadlines. A one sentence response will not earn you the points. Put thought into your responses to your classmates. Put effort into your postings.
- You will post to questions that will cover material from your readings and various topics that we discuss in this class. Since the postings cover your readings, I would like you all to use your book as a reference. I do not want information cut/pasted from the internet such as Wikipedia. If you do so, you will not earn points for that posting.
- All posts must be substantive and demonstrate to me that you have done all the reading associated with the discussion. In order to get full credit for your individual post, you must answer each question that I pose to you. In order to get the points in responding to your classmates, you must put thought and effort into your response. A thin answer such as “I totally agree with you” or “That was a really cool post” will not be considered for credit.
- I also expect you to use proper spelling, grammar and sentence structure in your postings and replies to other students. You will earn points for your writing.
- In your tentative schedule below, you will find the dates and times when postings open for discussion and when they are no longer available. “No longer available” means that once the discussion is closed, you will not be able to make up those points. Weekly posts will open up on Mondays at 8:00am and close on Thursdays at 11:59pm.
- Finally, your postings and your essay paper are two different assessments. Do not copy your essay into the discussion board. If you do, you will not earn discussion points for that particular week.

ASA Examples Using Adler and Adler (2016)

Referencing Parts From the Text Written by the Editors:

The Adler and Adler (2016) text is a reader. This means that in this book, there are readings from other authors. Adler and Adler (2016) are the editors who in the beginning of each Part of the book provide an introduction. For instance, from page 11 to page 15, Adler and Adler (2016) provide their introduction. If you take information from the introduction, you reference Adler and Adler (2016). Then in your reference page, you reference the entire book like so:

Adler, Patricia, and Peter Adler. 2016. Constructions of Deviance: Social Power, Context and Interaction. Australia: Cengage Learning.

How to list a book in your reference page can be found on page 48 for your ASA guide.

In text, you do the following if directly quoting:

According to Adler and Adler (2016), “When we speak of deviance, we refer to violations of social norms” (p. 11).

OR

“When we speak of deviance, we refer to violations of social norms” (Adler and Adler 2016:11).

If you are paraphrasing, you would do the following:

When social norms are violated, most often this is referred to as deviance (Adler and Adler 2016).

OR

According to Adler and Adler (2016), when social norms are violated, most often this is referred to as deviance.

Referencing Your Readings:

If you reference one of the readings, you include the name of the author(s) in the text of your paper and list the reading as a chapter from a book. An example can be found on page 50 of your ASA guide.

So say that you reference the first reading found on page 17 by Kai Erickson (2005). In text, you would say:

According to Erikson (2005), “In each of the three situations he is required to use a different set of criteria to decide whether or not the behavior in question exceeds tolerable limits” (p. 18).

OR

“In each of the three situations he is required to use a different set of criteria to decide whether or not the behavior in question exceeds tolerable limits” (Erikson 2005:18).

If paraphrasing, you can place (Erikson 2005) at the end of the sentence or say According to Erickson (2005)...

Since you are not directly quoting when you paraphrase, technically you do not need to provide a page number.

Information on all readings can be found at the bottom of the page of each reading. This is where you find the year of publication etc.

If you come across a reading that does not provide the year in which the reading was written, you do the following:

“Positive deviance is a contested term in the sociology of deviance” (Heckert and Heckert N.d.:27).

Or when you paraphrase:

According to Heckert and Heckert (N.d.), positive deviance is sometimes considered to be a contested term.

N.d. stands for “no date.”

In our reference page, the reading should be listed as a chapter from a book found on page 50 of your ASA guide. Using Erikson (2005) as an example, you would do the following in your reference page:

Erikson, Kai. 2005. “On the Sociology of Deviance.” Pp. 17-24 in Constructions of Deviance: Social Power, Context, and Interaction, edited by P. Adler and P. Adler. Australia: Cengage Publishing.

Using Herkert and Heckert (N.d.) you would do the following in your reference page.

Heckert, Alex, and Druann Maria Heckert. N.d. “Applying an Integrated Typology of Deviance to Middle-Class Norms.” Pp. 25-39 in Constructions of Deviance: Social Power, Context and Interaction, edited by P. Adler and P. Adler. Australia: Cengage Publishing.
