Research Analysis: An important goal of this course is to critically evaluate and discuss current and past reading research especially as it related to content area reading. assessment. Rubric will be provided. (2x15 = 30 pts.) SLO: 1

Class Discussion Leader

You will be responsible for leading class discussion on one of the topics to be distributed in class. You will research the topic and select 2-3 reading assignments for your classmates so that they are prepared for the discussion. These reading assignments can be chapters from a book, or research articles. The week before your discussion, you will post the discussion topic and the article you have selected as foundation of your discussion on Canvas. This is not a presentation or a lecture and you will be expected to lead the class in active discussion/participation for 75 minutes. A grading rubric will be provided. (15 points) SLO: 1-6

Online Assignments/Discussions: A couple class dates have been designated as online meetings. Modules will be uploaded to Canvas each of these days. Students will also engage in activities designed to reflect on the reading and construct meaning with the other members of the class. This will be done in two parts. First, you will post reflections by responding to prompts that will connect you to the key elements in the readings. Then, you should respond to the postings of your classmates. (15pts.) SLO: 1-6

Resource Evaluation: Students will develop an Internet Workshop and conduct an evaluation of the websites used for the Workshop as directed in the Leu article, Leu, D. J. (2002). The online text can be found full text through the TAMUCT library.

Students will evaluate a content area teacher's manual to identify 1) how the authors of the textbook describe the role of reading and writing in relation to content learning, and 2) activities included in the textbook that assist students in achieving the ability to read print material.

A three-to-four page paper should be included that 1) responds to the evaluation questions, and 2) outlines a professional development plan for sharing/teaching the identified content area reading strategies with other teachers on your campus and which includes additional strategies needed that were not found. Rubric will be provided. (15 pts.) SLO: 2, 4, 5, 6

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS:

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].

INSTRUCTOR POLICIES.

Late Work: Work is due according to the course calendar. When hard copies are specified, they are due at the beginning of class. No late work will be accepted except under extenuating circumstances which are communicated with the professor in a timely manner. If extension is granted, the late work may be subject to deduction of points of 10% each day past the original due date.

Attendance: Professional behavior and commitment to teaching are the expectations. Attendance and punctuality are required. It is not possible to make up the work missed due to late arrival or early departure since the class period involves interactions of students, instructor, and content. Three class absences for any reason will result in lowering the final grade by a letter grade. Four or more absences will result in failure of the class. All tardies or early departures will result in the loss of professionalism points. Two tardies or early departures will count as one absence. Students missing class are responsible for notes, handouts, assignments, and any changes in schedules.

Class Participation: Being prepared to participate includes completing assigned reading and bringing necessary textbooks, assignments, and materials to class. You are expected to read before the class session, actively participate in classroom assignments and discussions, and fully participate in online work. Any in-class presentations and activities cannot be made up. The use of technology, which include cell phones and other electronic devices, can enhance learning and the educational experiences; however, it can also become a distraction to the learning tasks at hand. Off-task technology usage is both unprofessional and disrespectful to everyone involved.
