COURSE INFORMATION

Course Description

Ethical foundations provides an exploration of the ethical principles of counselors and related codes of ethics. This course covers models for ethical decision making and how to apply to counseling practice. Foundations 550 is a prerequisite for this course.

Course Overview

Although professional counselors need to operate under personal and professional codes of ethics, often these guidelines leave many questions unanswered. No single universally "right" answer exists for most ethical dilemmas. It is critical to be familiarized with the current professional, ethical, and legal issues that confront the counselor's role in a variety of settings. Rather than arrive at one answer, it is important to learn how to think through ethical issues in a systematic manner.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

In accordance with CACREP best practices standards for all counselors-in-training development, the following areas will be promoted in this course:

1. Students will understand professional organizations, including membership benefits, activities, services to members, current issues, as well as licensing and credentialing information for the discipline.
2. Students will learn about ethical decision making for a variety of counseling settings, client populations, and counseling-related situations. Students will demonstrate the ability to apply and adhere to ethical and legal standards.
3. Students will identify a potentially underserved population of potential clients, discuss institutional and social barriers to access, equity, and success, and advocate on behalf of this population through accurate and relevant information dissemination.
4. Students will identify self-care strategies appropriate to the counselor role.

Course Assignments

Ethics in the Discipline Presentation (50 points): Students will be divided into groups and select a CACREP specialty (i.e. clinical mental health, addictions, school counseling, etc.). Students will gather information and resources to develop an audio presentation on ethical considerations for their respective counseling tracks. Information in the presentation must include but is not limited to the following:

- Relevant history of the counseling profession (relevant to the specific track);
- Organizations in which counselors can join in order to promote professional development, community, and up-to-date knowledge in the field;
- Licensure and credentialing within the counseling discipline;
- Steps for managing ethical concerns with the counseling discipline;
- Multicultural trends for populations within this counseling area;
- Ethics regarding referrals within the counseling discipline; and
- A unique ethical consideration within the counseling discipline (i.e. what may be specifically spelled out for counselors in this discipline that may differ from other counseling disciplines)

Ethical Vignettes (3 x 15 points each = 45 points): Students will be given various ethical vignettes across the semester. Students are expected to find within the ethical standards what would be the most appropriate ethical decision to make and support their answer by citing the ethical principle. Students are expected to demonstrate professional knowledge and skill to consider the most appropriate ethical decision and to support that decision.

PowerPoint Submissions (75 points): Students will be asked to submit up to 5 PowerPoint assignments. Each chapter covered will have an accompanying fill in the blank PowerPoint presentations. Each student will choose up to 5 PowerPoint assignments to submit by the end of the course for credit.

“Starting with the Self” Self-Care Project (50 points): Students will be asked to consider the value of self-care for competent, best-practice counseling work. Students will complete the Self Care Assessment worksheet and then identify the area in which they score the lowest. Using the outcome data from the self-assessment, students will create a self-care plan using measurable goals and objectives to implement the plan across the semester. At the end of the semester, students will write a 2-3 page paper reflecting on this activity, including their successes and/or challenges in implementing the self-care plan. Students are encouraged to process the personal and professional implications for their self-care.

Advocacy Project (75 points): Students will be asked to research an underserved population who may receive counseling services. Students are to consider, “what are the advocacy needs of this population”? Using a brochure, newsletter, or other information dissemination outlet, students are to advocate for this client population by identifying the following information:

- Presence of this underserved population in the local community;
- Relevant statistics about this client population;
- Institutional or social barriers that may impede access and equity of services for the client population;
- Local agencies or organizations that may have outreach for this client population; and
- Other important information that helping professionals may not have previously known, or places/sites/sources that they can use to receive additional information.

The University Writing Center.

Located in 416 Warrior Hall, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University-Central

Texas is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students from 10am-5pm Monday-Thursday with satellite hours in the University Library on Mondays from 6:00-9:00pm. Students may arrange a one-on-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available) or by making an appointment via WCOOnline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu to schedule an online tutoring session. Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process.

While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the University Writing Center is here to help!

If you have any questions about the University Writing Center, please do not hesitate to contact Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu.

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS:

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at A&M-Central Texas, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Counseling Services (254-501-5956) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall.

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].
