General Class Policies

Demonstrate PROFESSIONAL INITIATIVE at all times by taking responsibility for one's own performance in the course, as well as for any opportunities one may be able to take to enhance the course for others. This should be demonstrated vis-à-vis course assignment details, course deadlines (and personal time management, generally), contributions to group work, use of required course technology, and the anticipation and competent management of contingencies relating to oneself and to others that may affect one's performance in the course (e.g., job, family, other courses).

Demonstrate PROFESSIONAL COURTESY at all times by maintaining a professional tone in all communication with all persons involved with this course: peers, professor, teaching assistant, etc. This includes any communication that may involve reporting interpersonal conflict, engaging in discussions or disputes, or giving / responding to negative feedback. Professional courtesy also includes a commitment to listening well, and to engaging in meaningful dialogue where other parties are given ample opportunity to contribute to the discussion or assignment at hand without fear of disruption, retribution, or unwarranted criticism. Finally, it also includes common courtesies such as letting group members know in advance if you going to be unavailable for a scheduled meeting, or if you are going to miss an agreed-upon deadline due to an unforeseen disruption.

Demonstrate PROFESSIONAL INTEGRITY at all times by complying with all guidelines and restrictions regarding the completion of student work, the use of external sources, and the general compliance with the TAMUCT academic integrity policy, and the giving of specific, accurate, and timely peer performance evaluation.

Demonstrate PROFESSIONAL MATURITY at all times by accepting the circumstances under which one has chosen to attempt to complete this course, and by accepting the evaluation of one's work by one's peers and/or instructor without complaining or resorting to irrelevant appeals (e.g., "this could hurt my GPA," "I was really busy,” etc.). This is notwithstanding any exceptional situations in which a student is able to provide written documentation that a legitimate, objective evaluation error has been made, or in which normal evaluation policy should be set aside because of a documented emergency.

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [<https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php>].

Appendix B

Cultural Interview Assignment

A cultural interview is conducted with a person who has different nationality from yours. The main purpose of the interview is to discover and evaluate cultural similarity and differences. The interview summary is for you to reflect on your dialogue with the interviewee. The interview summary should be 2-3 pages, double-spaced, 12-font and cover all points listed below.

1. Identify your own cultural background as the basis of cultural comparison. Provide a brief introduction of how you meet the interviewee and the interviewee's demographic information, such as age, education, family, or occupation.
2. Describe BOTH similarities and differences between your own culture and his/her culture. The similarities and differences can be in diet, attire, etiquette, government, education system, family structure, etc.
3. Reference chapter 2 and describe the cultural dimensions using Hofstede's cultural framework. Reflect on your interview experience and suggest how the interviewee's culture is relatively lower or higher on Hofstede's cultural dimensions compared to your own culture. The interpretation of each dimension should incorporate supporting evidence based on what you learn from the interviewee's culture.
4. Recommendations for handling cultural differences between your own culture and the interviewee's culture.

A. Reflect on your own background and past experience to identify your own cultural identity. Some of you may have a different cultural heritage from American culture, and some of you were born and raised in a foreign country. Which culture influences your values and beliefs the most?

B. Ask your interviewees to identify his or her national culture. Then you have the reference of comparison between your own culture and your interviewee's culture.

C. Do your homework about the national cultural differences before you actually conduct the interview.

Look up the national cultural comparison on Hofstede's website at <http://geert-hofstede.com/countries.html>

Who should I interview?

You may choose any person who has different nationality from yours. The Hofstede's cultural framework will be the most meaningful when you compare two national cultures. You may have known the person from the past and can go back to him/her for an in depth interview. You can also find your interviewee through the international student association on campus or an ESL program at the community college. As the last resort, you may choose a person who has the same nationality as yours and have a different ethnic background. The person with a different nationality is going to give you a more interesting comparison of cultural differences since nations usually uphold the culture dearly so you will be more likely to observe more cultural differences when your interviewee has a different nationality from yours.

Sample Interview Questions

1. What should I know of your culture's recent history, governance and language?
2. What do you understand as the major values and beliefs of your culture?
3. What cultural customs might surprise me?
4. If I were to fall in love with someone from your culture, what would you advise me in terms of dating, courtship and marriage practices?
5. What do different cultural practices look like? For example, understanding of work and leisure?
6. How do you define success?
7. How important is education in your family?
8. Is punctuality important to you? Why or why not?
9. What is the most important meal of the day?
10. What are considered the indigenous foods in your culture?
