COURSE INFORMATION

Course Overview and description:

This course covers an advanced survey of leadership theories and issues, with the emphasis on practical application of newer leadership models in contemporary organizations. Students will explore facets of both leadership and followership, along with the impact of the particular organizational setting and situation. Students will be challenged to explore their own leader, follower and organization situation skills through active reflection, and those of others through analysis of case studies, and discussions of current press articles concerning business leadership. The final project requires students to analyze the leadership style and effectiveness of a current business leader.

Student Learning Outcomes:

At the close of the semester, students should display the following competencies:

1. Ability to explain and apply the “Interactional Framework” of leadership.
2. Clear understanding of the roles the leader, follower, and situation play in the leadership process.
3. Ability to use the action-observation-reflection model to analyze personal skills for leadership and followership
4. Ability to engage in double-loop learning to analyze leadership situations and frame situations from multiple perspectives
5. Ability to analyze practical organizational circumstances and the appropriate role and actions of leaders in “real-world” situations.
6. Ability to discuss, with a knowledgeable lens, the circumstances and factors influencing current business leaders’ actions as reported in current business press.
7. Competency in analyzing the skills and effectiveness of a current business leader in the news.

Detailed learning outcomes associated with each Unit are included on the course web site.

Required Reading and Textbook(s):

Required Textbook and Resources:

Book Title: Leadership, Enhancing the Lessons of Experience, 9th Edition

Author: Richard L. Hughes, Robert C. Ginnett, Gordy J. Curphy

ISBN: 9781260675658 (via the book store). The text must be purchased and received within the first week of class. The 9th edition is REQUIRED.

Students are required to purchase an 8-week subscription to the Wall Street Journal (it’s actually 10 weeks for a dollar a week). A special student rate has been arranged. Information about purchasing this subscription will be posted on the course web site and the subscription must be purchased by the end of the 1st week of class.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Course Requirements: (include point values for each- not just a percentage)

a. Student Profile and Course Agreement: Students should review this Syllabus in depth and be sure they are willing to comply with all assignments, and deadlines in this course. If you have questions, post them to the “Course Q&A” Discussion Forum. The course agreement requires Students to agree to this Syllabi’s expectations, and commit that they have the computer set-up and self-discipline needed for a fully online course. This profile/agreement is due the end of the first week of class as an assignment and is worth 15 grading points.

b. Introductory Discussion Forum: During Week 1 of the semester each student must post to a Discussion Forum introducing themselves to the class and demonstrating knowledge of a Ch. 1 framework. It is requested that you attach a picture to your Discussion Forum posting, so that the class may better get to know you (as images often add context). This discussion forum is worth 15 grading points.

c. Discussion Forums (Learning Outcomes 5 & 6): Business students should be knowledgeable “consumers” of business press articles. Students in this class will be required to purchase a semester long subscription to the Wall Street Journal and must find and read articles relevant to the topics being studied in the course. In conjunction with Units 2-7, there is an assigned WSJ Discussion Forum. Students will report on a current article as Post 1 and then will be required to also read and respond to at least one colleague’s post as a required Post 2. Further instructions about these forums will be provided on the course web site. I will moderate (and also) contribute to each Forum. Each Forum’s postings are worth 30 grading points. Once during the semester, a different discussion forum topic is assigned rather than WSJ; this forum is also worth 30 points.

d. Tests (Learning Outcomes 1 & 2): There will be 2 required tests. Each exam will cover 6 text chapters and test students’ knowledge of the key frameworks and concepts. The test questions will be multiple choice and true/false. Exams will be available over a 4-day period online. They will be timed and once started, must be completed at that time. The chapter PowerPoint lectures, key terms, and publisher provided self-quizzes are all useful study guides for the Tests.

e. Case Study Assignments (Learning Outcomes 2 & 5): Each chapter in the assigned text ends with a short case describing a leadership or followership situation. Two of these case studies are assigned throughout the semester as an individual written exercise. Instructions for case analysis and write-up will be given in conjunction with the first assigned case in Module 1. These instructions include a Sample Case Write-Up, be sure to read it carefully to understand the depth of analysis required for each case discussion question. Each case is worth 30 grading points.

f. Journal Entries (Learning Outcomes 2 & 5): Students will prepare a journal entry in conjunction with three chapters of the text. These entries will require students to learn and apply the “Action-Observation-Reflection” model, and “double loop learning” presented in Chapter 2 of the text. Ability to engage in reflective thinking and frame leader situations from multiple perspectives is a key learning objective in this class. Detailed instructions for preparing these Journal Entries will be provided Unit 2 of class in conjunction with the first assigned Journal entry. Each journal entry is worth 30 grading points.

g. Current Business Leader in the News Paper (Learning Outcomes 6 & 7): As you read the Wall Street Journal this semester take note of a business leader you find particularly interesting. Midway through the semester you must identify a first, second and third choice leader to analyze in more depth as your final paper in this class. For this individual you will be applying the frameworks learn in the class to their handling of organizational situations and analyzing their effectiveness. Detailed instructions for the paper will be posted on the course web site. Your “choice memo” is worth 10 grading points. The final paper is worth 100 grading points, and is in lieu of a final in the course.

Grading Criteria Rubric and Conversion

Grading rubrics are provided for all course assignments within the Canvas course web site. Students should review these rubrics carefully when preparing assignments.

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS:

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].
