COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- The student is expected to dedicate a total of 115 hours (average of 11.5 hours per week for 10 weeks) to the class.
- The student will maintain a spreadsheet with the following columns: Date, Hours worked, Description of activity, Accomplishments.
- The student will maintain regular email contact with the instructor, on a weekly or more frequent basis.
- Students who have little background in the Python language will complete a tutorial in Python to ensure proficiency.
- Students will complete projects in mathematical computation. Some projects will be individual, and some will be collaborative as determined by discussions between students and the instructor.
- The student is expected to show some degree of initiative and mathematical maturity. Specifically, once the purpose and outcomes of a particular task is described, they are expected to find their own way to achieve these purpose and outcomes without specific step-by-step instructions from the instructor.

Grading Criteria Rubric and Conversion

The student will be evaluated based on time spent and the quality of the material produced. If the student's puts in the requisite hours and produces working output that correctly performs computations, then the student will receive an A grade. If the student consistently produces carelessly-written, unusable material, then the student may receive a C grade or lower.

University Writing Center: Located in 416 Warrior Hall, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University-Central Texas is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students from 10am-5pm Monday-Thursday with satellite hours in the University Library Monday-Thursday from 6:00-9:00pm. Students may arrange a one-on-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available) or by making an appointment via WOnline at [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu to schedule an online tutoring session. Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process.

While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the University Writing Center is here to help!

If you have any questions about the University Writing Center, please do not hesitate to contact Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu.

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS:

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].
