Course Description and Objectives:

This an eight week class delves into the Method and Historiography of the field of History. Through lecture, discussions, readings, and multimedia, the course will examine ways historians have approached the field. We will examine the various schools of history. This course will strengthen your critical thinking, reading, and writing skills, and provide a foundation for understanding the field of history. You will demonstrate the ability to develop and focus on one topic in writing assignments and present ideas in an organized, logical, and coherent form. You will also demonstrate the ability to use Standard English grammar, punctuation, spelling, and usage.

The course objectives:

- To draw connections between the past and the present.
- To understand historical debates.
- To work with primary documents and develop an understanding of how historians use documents to interpret the past.
- To critically analyze a historical text.
- To write clear and coherent essays that develop a historical argument.

This course is classified as Writing Instructive therefore writing will be an essential part of your assessment. You will be given several opportunities to improve your writing skills on various assignments including book reviews and drafts of research papers. Revising is a key part of the writing process, so you will receive feedback on all written assignments.

Attendance and Participation

Class attendance and participation are crucial elements of the learning experience. Attendance is your responsibility. Attendance will be taken daily. In addition, attendance means staying for the whole class. Do not leave early without speaking to me beforehand. Failure to regularly attend class will result in dire consequences such as failing the class. Please come to class prepared and ready to discuss the readings assigned for the day. Attendance directly effects the final grade. The professor reserves the right to decrease the overall grade if attendance is poor.

Assignments

Reading Quizzes

There will be four reading quizzes online via Canvas. These quizzes will amount to 10% of the grade.

Online Discussion

There will be each week an online discussion about research and your historiography research. It will be worth 20% of your grade

Annotated Bibliography

The Annotated Bibliography will consist of 8 monographs and 3 journal articles. This assignment is worth 15% of the final grade.

Introduction Paragraph with Thesis

Students will write an introduction paragraph with a clear thesis of their historiography essay. This single paragraph is worth 10% of the Final Grade.

A Historiography Paper

A historiographical review essay of at least 10 monographs and 5 scholarly journal articles of your choosing. These may be chosen by topic (you could select two articles on communities at war) or three articles on a specific place (you could choose a book that examines Boston—one that focuses on religion, one on economics, and one on gender). The sources must deal with the class time period. The length will be 13-15 pages. The complete rough draft will be worth 10% of the course grade and the final draft of the assignment is worth 20% of the course grade.

Oral Presentation

Students will give a 10 minute presentation on status of the field of their historiographic paper topic. This is worth 15% of the grade.

Important Reminder

Late Papers will be penalized 10% (or 1 letter grade) for every class day they are late. Weekends do not count as class days.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. You must follow to honesty codes set forth in the student handbook. Plagiarism is a serious offense. This or any other violation of the university's Code of Student Conduct can result in penalties that can include failing the assignment, an F in the class and/or expulsion from the university. For the official definition of what constitutes plagiarism, see the Student Handbook.

All academic misconduct concerns will be reported to the university's Office of Student Conduct. Ignorance of the university's standards and expectations is never an excuse to act with a lack of integrity. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.

The instructor reserves the right to use electronic resources to detect plagiarism.

If you have any questions about this, please see me.

FORMATTING

Essays must comply with the following formatting guidelines. Writing assignments are due at the beginning of class on the date indicated. Essays must be submitted as hard copies (electronic copies of papers will not be accepted).

Your papers must be typewritten, with 12 pt. font in Times New Roman and double-spaced lines. The header of your paper should be single-spaced and in the following format:

Your Name
Paper, HIS 343
Dr. Timothy Hemmis
janedoe@yahoo.com
Due Date

Your paper should have 1” margins on the top and bottom and 1.25” margins on the left right margins. Evidence must be cited using footnotes. Use of alternate forms of citation, such as the MLA format, is not acceptable. Finally, your essays must be stapled (no “dog ears,” paper clips, or binders) and the pages numbered! If you have questions about the proper format of your essay, please see me during my office hours.

The essay must include evidence from the text, and you must cite that evidence using footnotes. Use the following examples as models:

First citation:

¹ Alfred F. Young, The Shoemaker and the Tea Party: Memory and the American Revolution (Boston: Beacon Press, 1999), 45.

Subsequent citations:

⁵ Young, The Shoemaker and the Tea Party, 74.

Unexcused/ Late Work or Absences from Exams:

The only valid excuses for missing an exam or failing to turn in a paper or homework on time are illnesses requiring medical care, required university activities, religious holidays, or a personal emergency of a serious nature. To be excused without penalty, documentation is required. In certain other circumstances, I will allow you to turn in an assignment early or take an exam in advance, but you must see me as soon as possible. Do not wait until the last possible minute.
