Required Text

Course Structure and Requirements

Portfolio (10 points): Students will compile a digital portfolio highlighting your classroom activities, records, and accomplishments. The portfolio should be divided into five sections. Section one should contain your multicultural presentation handout materials. Section two should contain your autobiographic experience. Section three should contain multicultural newsworthy items (current event critiques) collected over the course of the semester. Section four should contain a selected collection of your journal entries that show your growth and development across the semester. Section five should contain your Culturally Immersive Advocacy Project.

Final Presentation (30 points)
Students are encouraged to consider ethical and multicultural considerations of effective counseling practice based on your selected culture. You can bring guest speakers as part of your presentation, along with other visual aids and hands-on materials that may allow classmates to experience elements of the cultural group in which the presentation is pertaining. Each presentation must have an experiential component. Presentations are expected to last approximately 30 minutes, with time for Q & A following the presentation. You will also present a resource list to your colleagues to help them pursue further knowledge and understanding. You will need to do research information about this population and include that information in your presentation. The scenario below is how you will be expected to structure and format your presentation.

Multicultural Newsworthy Items and Critiques (40 points)
We as individuals do not exist in a vacuum. Life happens as we grow and change. In order to ensure that we become global and responsible citizens, each student will be required to complete 4 Multicultural Newsworthy Items and Critiques over the course of the semester. Each summary will be 1-2 pages and will summarize the topic or topics covered in the article. Summaries will also include a critique of the information presented. Submissions will be made through canvas.

Journal Activities (10 points): Journal activities are entries that you complete between classes. These entries represent an on-going dialogue with your classmates regarding your self-awareness, honest reactions and struggles that you may be experiencing to readings, discussions, and in-class experiences. You may also seek out experiences with diversity in our community to challenge yourself and your preconceived attitudes. Journal entries should be at least one written page. There will be ten required entries dispersed throughout the course. Submissions will be made through canvas. These submissions are NOT meant to be course, assignment, or instructor evaluations. Please note that if your submissions are of this nature they will count for 0 points.

Diversity Interview (30 points): Each student will conduct (1) interview. You will interview someone who identifies differently from you in at least two ways. Consider gender, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, disability status, socioeconomic status, immigration status, religion, etc. Describe the content of the interview. Use the identity models we discuss to speculate on what stage of identity development you and your interviewee might fall. Describe your reactions to the person you interviewed, emphasizing insight you gained from this experience. You will need to submit a paper between 2-5 pages. You will need to get prior instructor approval. Submissions will be made through canvas.

Culturally Immersive Advocacy (CIA) Project (50 points): Students will be required to proposal and participate in a semester long culturally immersive advocacy project. This project is composed of two phases. The first phase is Cultural Entry and Immersion. The goal of the first phase is to research and build a mutualistic relationship with members of a culture that is different than your own in at least two identifiable ways. The second phase is Direct Advocacy. The goal of the second phase is to develop an advocacy product that you can use to directly advocate for members of the community you chose.

Students will need to submit a 4-6 page reflection paper. Of specific focus of the paper is what the counselor-in-training noticed about him/herself throughout the experience, including thoughts, feelings, beliefs, fears, etc. Self-awareness and depth of personal journey through this experience are the focus of the minority experience. Students will also compile a list of community organizations and/or programs that support and advocate for equity with the clients for whom they may serve. Additionally, students will need to develop artifacts for that are significant to their experiences during the project. Students will need to submit a proposal for this assignment to the professor prior to beginning this project. This meets the Multicultural Competency/Advocacy Social Justice Competency component of the CMHC Program Portfolio. Submissions will be made through canvas.

Book Reports (30 points): In addition to the assigned readings, you will be expected to complete supplemental reading pertaining to diverse populations or relating to sociocultural considerations. Students will select two books from the autobiographies (or get approval to use another autobiography of a diverse person) from Appendix A or B. Book reports will need to be at least 3 pages. Submissions will be made through canvas.

University Writing Center.
Located in Warrior Hall 416, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (TAMUCT) is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday thru Thursday with satellite hours in the University Library Monday thru Thursday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. This semester, the UWC is also offering online only hours from 12:00-3:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students’ ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students’ texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-on-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available) or by making an appointment via WCOnline at [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/] . In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu for any assistance needed with scheduling.

University Library.
The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 250,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 72,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On-campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available twenty-four hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place on Skype or in-person at the library. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events. OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS:
A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas
Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at A&M-Central Texas, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Counseling Services (254-501-5956) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall.

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don’t agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don’t be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].

INSTRUCTOR POLICIES.

Late Assignments and Make-up Work Late work will be evaluated on a case by case basis. In the event that a student is allowed to submit an assignment late, the assignment will lose one letter grade each day it is late. Make up work may be assigned at the instructor’s discretion.

Grade Disputes
Conversations regarding grades and assignments are welcomed. It is strongly recommended that grade disputes follow the 24/7 rule. This means that students are highly encouraged to wait 24 hours from the time of receiving a graded assignment to schedule an appointment. This also means that students are highly encouraged to schedule an appointment within 7 calendar days of receiving the grade on an assignment.
