I. COURSE OVERVIEW

a. Course Overview and Description:

"Companies must learn to operate as if the world were one large market—ignoring superficial regional and national differences" –Theodore Levitt.

Global markets are dynamic and ever-changing. Understanding these markets requires that businesses, of all size, stay abreast of the latest developments in the field. This course provides an examination of issues impacting businesses from an international marketing context. Students will explore the role that the global marketplace plays on a firm's mission, structure, and competitive strategy. A thorough understanding of global marketing environments, global marketing functions and strategies, and global marketing mix strategies is an essential part of this course. Students will be exposed to international marketing issues from both an academic and a practitioner perspective.

b. Student Learning Outcomes: At the close of the semester, students should display the following competencies:

1. Ability to understand, interpret, and analyze current international marketing theories and practices.
2. Ability to describe the role international marketing plays in a broader managerial framework.
3. Ability to research and report leading international marketing/business issues and cultural practices.

c. Method of Instruction: This course is a 100% online course utilizing the TAMUCT Canvas Learning Management System [<https://tamuct/instructure.com>]. Students will access all course materials, assignments, exams, student-instructor and student-student communication, and resource links via the Canvas website. Online learning requires students to be very self-disciplined. Make sure you understand and are prepared to comply with all required class assignments and deadlines. If you have a question about the syllabus or course expectations, you should post those questions on the "Course Q&A" Discussion Forum.

d. Required Textbook:

Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the University Writing Center is here to help!

VI. COURSE AND UNIVERSITY POLICIES/PROCEDURES

- a. Academic Integrity: Texas A&M University—Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. Texas A&M—Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Academic integrity is defined as a commitment to honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. Academic misconduct is any act that improperly affects a true and honest evaluation of a student's academic performance and includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism and improper citation of sources, using another student's work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. All academic misconduct concerns will be reported to the University's Office of Student Conduct. Ignorance of the University's standards and expectations is never an excuse to act with a lack of integrity. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action. A found incidence of Academic Dishonesty for any assignment, project, or exam in this class will result in 0 points. Multiple incidences will result in an F course grade.
- b. Academic Accommodations: At Texas A&M—Central Texas, we value an inclusive learning environment where every student has an equal chance to succeed and has the right to a barrier free education. The Department of Access and Inclusion is responsible for ensuring that students with a disability receive equal access to the University's programs, services and activities. c. A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [<https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php>].

d. Drop Policy: If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete a Drop Request Form [https://www.tamuct.edu/registrar/docs/Drop_Request_Form.pdf].

Professors cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Registrar's Office will provide a deadline on the University Calendar for which the form must be completed, signed and returned. Once you return the signed form to the Registrar's Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Registrar's Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.
