COURSE REQUIREMENTS

What you will be graded on:

I. Quizzes (50 pts each x 5 = 250 pts total):

There will be five quizzes during this course. Each quiz is worth 50 points each. Quizzes will be online, open book, and open note but must be completed individually. Quizzes must be taken in Canvas on the dates in the attached schedule (see course calendar). Once begun, quizzes must be completed within 90 minutes. You will be given one opportunity to take each quiz. Make sure that you are someplace with a reliable connection to Canvas. Student computer or student Internet Service Provider problems will not be accepted as an excuse for failing to take or complete the quiz. Students will only be allowed to retest if there is a problem with Canvas or with University computing facilities. If a problem occurs with University equipment, please have the computing lab staff document the problem. Alternate test forms may be presented to the students. If you want to challenge a test item, you will do so in writing no later than 1-day after the test has been closed. You are required to provide me with the question, your argument as to why the quiz question is incorrect and any supporting information from the text or your notes supporting your argument. Your misunderstanding or misinterpretation of the item is not justification to present a challenge to the quiz. Students are on the honor system for these quizzes and any violation will result in the student receiving a zero (0) for the quiz and the possibility of further sanctions according to university policy (see Academic Honesty & Integrity, below). Make-up quizzes will only be given for University excused absences. The professor reserves the right to change the quiz format for make-up quizzes (e.g. essay as opposed to objective). Appropriate documentation will be required to be given a make-up quiz. If you know that you will not be able to take a quiz by the due date, contact me PRIOR to the scheduled date, alternate arrangements may be made at my discretion.

II. Reaction Papers (100 pts each x 2 = 200 pts total)

You will be given access in Canvas to several short (and some long) videos about psychopharmacology (see calendar below). You will write two reaction papers to the videos. The first reaction paper should be written about content presented in one or more of the videos presented in the first half of the class about drugs of abuse and will be submitted online by the end of week 9. The second reaction paper should be written in response to one or more of the videos (Breggin) presented in the second half of the class about psychotherapeutic drugs and will be due by the end of week 15. Each paper should be approximately 800 to 1,000 words in length (about 3 pages), formatted according to current APA style guidelines, and you must cite at least three empirical articles in your paper to support your opinions. More information on this assignment (including a grading rubric) will be provided in Canvas.

III. Short Concept Presentation (150 points total)

Since by definition an online course does not meet in the classroom, you can't just set up a Microsoft PowerPoint presentation to present information to the class. So, you will have to design a short Power Point Presentation on a topic of your own choosing and submit it in the assignment tab in Canvas as well as in a discussion thread for everyone else to see. You are required to submit your topic via Canvas assignment tab by week six of the course. Keep in mind: If you do not submit a topic by the due date, you will not be able to receive credit for the assignment! The presentation should be between five and ten minutes long if you were to present it in front of your classmates. Again: This is an online class, so you are NOT required to present but instead submit it in the assignment tab(s) in Canvas. To receive full points, you should annotate your presentation (include the words you would say if you were to give an in-class presentation) in the notes section of each slide so others can obtain more information about your topic than you have presented on the slides. More information on this assignment will be added in Canvas.

IV. Discussion questions + responses to classmates (15 pts each x 10 = 150 pts total)

You will have a number of discussion board posts during the semester and will be required to comment according to the instructions in the assignment (i.e., number of original posts and posts to classmates). All posts must be substantive and demonstrate that you are actively engaged with the material. Some discussion questions will require you to conduct internet research. In order to get full credit for your individual and response posts, you must create and respond to the questions as outlined by the grading criteria for the instructions assignment in Canvas. Each discussion is worth 15 points (The initial introductory post is worth 9 points, each of the two responses to your classmates is worth 3 points). You can find your weekly questions posted in the "Discussions" tab in Canvas. In your tentative schedule below, you will find the dates and times when postings open for discussion and when they are no longer available. "No longer available" means that once the discussion board is closed and you will not be able to make up those points. Weekly posts are currently open and will close at the day and time indicated in Canvas.

V. Comprehensive Final Exam (250 pts)

A comprehensive final examination that includes all content discussed in the course will be available during final exam week. The exam must be completed by 11:59pm on December 13th. You may use your book and notes when taking the exam. However, using internet resources and/or working with another individual to complete the exam constitute academic dishonesty and will result in failure of the exam and potentially other academic consequences.

Informal Discussion Board Posts:

Apart from the assigned homework questions, you are encouraged to pose your own questions and/or comments on the informal discussion board in Canvas. There might be topics or issues that you would like to discuss with the professor and/or your classmates. Feel free to use this informal discussion board to raise questions, comments, etc. Since this is an online class, this provides everyone with an opportunity to interact with each other and provides opportunity for learning.

Quizzes (5 x 50)	250
Reaction Paper (2 x 100)	200

University Writing Center

Located in Warrior Hall 416, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (TAMUCT) is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday thru Thursday with satellite hours in the University Library Monday thru Thursday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. This semester, the UWC is also offering online only hours from 12:00-3:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available) or by making an appointment via WOnline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC and/or need any assistance with scheduling.

University Library

The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 250,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 85,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available 24 hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place on Skype or in-person at the library. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events. OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].

significant disruption to our community, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/bat.html]. If a person's behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5800.
