- Design effective web sites

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK

Web Development & Design Foundations with HTML5, 9th Edition

Author: Terry Felke-Morris

Publisher: Pearson

ISBN: 978-0-13-480114-8

REQUIRED READING

The student is expected to read and review all material presented in the assigned chapter prior to class.

REQUIRED SOFTWARE

Any free text editor such as the Notepad available built-in with Windows Operating System or TextEdit available as built-in with Mac OS will suffice for most of the class. Although you are free to use any other popular freely available text editors such as Notepad++ or Visual Studio Integrated Development Environment (IDE), I personally prefer using Notepad as it is freely available and lets you program from scratch without the extra bells and whistles of other IDEs.
