COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Course Requirements

A syllabus serves as an instructional and study planning document for both faculty and students. Although every effort will be taken to complete the semester according to the syllabus, it may become necessary to make certain changes to facilitate the academic environment better. In such an event, changes will be announced within one week of the change decision in the Canvas classroom. Changes may be made within the last two weeks of the semester only in exceptional circumstances. Conflicts between Canvas and the syllabus will be resolved according to syllabus requirements. Following is a description of the major course assignments as well as other components that make up the total grade for this course.

Professional Etiquette

Students are expected to embody professionalism to include the following: Demeanor – polite and well-spoken, demonstrating tact, respect, compassion, appreciation, inclusive, mature - not rude, belligerent, arrogant, or aggressive; Reliable – follow through on tasks in a timely manner, communicate unanticipated events; Competent – commit to learning and applying content from the course, act in a responsible manner and practice sound judgement, seek assistance when appropriate; Ethical – honest and trustworthy; Equality – refrain from giving or seeking preferential treatment unless supported by the office of Student Success, adhere to published policies of the university, seek assistance or clarification when appropriate. A student who violates professional etiquette in a manner that is egregious (as determined by the instructor) may result in a failing grade for the course. A less severe penalty may be assigned by the instructor depending on the circumstances of the situation.

Understanding of Course Design

This course design is distinctly different from MGMT 3302 – a traditional approach to learning content. MGMT 3302 sought to ensure students' understanding of foundational information related to the human resource management discipline. As a result, MGMT 3302 assessed students' learning through quizzes, exams, and short essays. Unlike MGMT 3302, this course uses an active learning approach to the course design. As a result, MGMT 4304 seeks to challenge students in learning and applying concepts learned in this course. This means, you are expected to learn and apply skills unique – not taught in previous courses – to recruitment, selection, and placement of human resources for an organization.

About Discussions and Activities

Students are expected to be prepared each week by completing the assigned readings before due dates as posted in the course schedule. For this online course, the week begins on Monday and concludes the following Sunday at midnight Texas time, CST. Readings, videos/audios, and chapter quizzes are due by Sunday. Most weeks have an activity related to assignments also due on Sunday.

Please note: Discussions and activities are interactive and time sensitive; therefore, contributions to discussions and activities will not be accepted for course credit after they close. Further: A student's behavior that is unprofessional and or violates netiquette expectations will receive a Canvas Inbox message from the instructor and a 10% deduction on the course requirement. A 25% deduction per occurrence will be assessed on the course requirement after that. Online netiquette and in-person professional conduct is related to course outcome 6 and is required at all times.

Discussions: 100 points (4 @ 25 points each)

Discussions are a critical part of the learning design and are intended to provide an opportunity for student-to-student discussion of required readings as well as to help students prepare for exams 1-3. Discussions are intended to facilitate students' creation of knowledge through applying learned content, asking clarifying questions, contributing personal representation of concepts and ideas, and engaging in analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of multiple perspectives.

Discussions are based on exercises in the required textbook. When completing discussion, be sure to read the directions provided with the discussion in Canvas, because some directions are different from what is listed in the textbook. You may want to complete exercises related to the week's chapter during the week we are reading that chapter. However, you need to watch the schedule to ensure all initial responses submitted by Sunday of the required submission week. You have until Sunday of the closing week to complete follow-up responses. In your approach to discussions, it may be easier to finish the follow-up responses the weekend after initial responses are due since it will still be fresh from the readings.

Initial response expectations. You are required to post one initial response to each topic listed. This is your response to the exercise. Keep in mind, initial responses are due at a time that allows students to work ahead if they want. However, students posting initial responses late will incur a late penalty, but you can still post late. This is to ensure students who need/want to work earlier in the course schedule have someone else to "discuss" the topics with for posting follow-up responses. However, the discussion is open for several weeks to allow you to come back when it is convenient for you. Keep in mind, discussions are student-to-student discussions that require other students to "discuss with." Therefore, no late postings will be accepted for course credit after the discussion closes. Please note the discussion closing date in the course schedule. All closing dates are on Sunday, except the last discussion, which closes on Friday - the last day of class.

Follow-up response expectations. Discussions require you to provide at least 3 total follow-up responses. Unlike initial responses, the follow-up responses can focus on one or two topics that most interest you. However, when responding to students in discussions, be sure that your responses contribute to the discussion in a meaningful way. While responses to classmates can take a conversational tone, the comment should go beyond the summary of "I agree." Students whose posts are insufficient in quality or quantity, or late will receive point deductions.

Submitting your responses. To submit an initial post, click on the link provided in the module for the week the discussion is open. This link will take you to the discussion board. Each topic within the discussion requires a separate post. Be sure to label your response with an appropriate title heading so that you receive full credit for your initial submission. For example, RebeccaM DISCUSSION 1:1 or something similar.

Please note: Professional etiquette is required at all times.

Grading Criteria: Discussions

- Initial Responses: 45% (11.25 points) Provided initial responses to all required topics. Overall initial responses were complete, demonstrated understanding and comprehension of concepts. Answers were thorough and demonstrated an understanding of the assigned reading material.
- Responses to Classmates: 45% (11.25 points) Actively participated in the discussion met the minimum required responses to classmates in quantity and quality. Minimum responses should add to the conversation beyond "good point" or "I agree." Responses are intended to be conversational, but well written and add value.
- Timeliness and Academic Writing Style: 10% (2.5 points) Met expectations for active and timely responses. Writing quality was adequate with good sentence structure, spelling, and effective word choice. APA formatting of citations was provided. Links to outside sources or APA formatted reference provided for sources other than the required textbook.

Assignment Activities: 85 points (6 @ 5, 1@ 15, 2 @ 20 points)

Activities are a critical part of learning and assignment completion. They are intended to provide an opportunity for student-to-student as well as student-to-instructor discussion of applied concepts. Activities are intended to facilitate students' creation of knowledge through controlling the learning process in staged hands-on activities, contributing learner's personal experiences, engaging in analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of multiple perspectives as well as engaging in a collaborative assessment of learning.

Assignment activities are activities to help you complete your assignments. Assignment activities allow you to get feedback from other students as well as your instructor. These activities require at least 2 follow-up posts to other students. It is in your best interest to actively engage other students and your instructor on these topics. You should think of these activities as mile markers toward completing assignments where you have ample opportunity to ask questions, assist other students, and share your own experiences (very conversational). Unlike Discussions 1-4, which focus on exercises from the text and span several weeks, assignment activities occur weekly with initial responses due and closing at the end of each week on Sunday. Three posts required for all activities except 1:1, 1:2, and 2:1 (1 post).

Grading Criteria: Activities

(1) 5 activities @ 5 points, (2) 1 activity @ 15, (3) 2 activities @ 20 points

- Initial Responses: (1) 60% (5 points), (2) 100% (15 points), (3) 50% (10 points) Provided initial response to stated activity. The overall initial response was complete, demonstrated understanding and comprehension of concepts, and followed directions. Overall, the response contributed to the development of the related assignment.

- Initial Responses: (3) 100% (10 points) Provided initial response to the stated activity. The overall initial response responded to the questions posed and were thoughtful - demonstrating effort. Answers contributed to the development of the related assignment.
- Responses to Classmates: (1) 40% (2 points), (2) 0% (0 points), (3) 50% (10 points) Actively participated in the activity, met the minimum required responses to classmates in quantity and quality. Minimum responses should add to the conversation, be conversational in tone, and share your perspective.
- No late submissions accepted for course credit.
- 25% deduction for poor writing quality. (Writing quality should be adequate with good sentence structure, spelling, and effective word choice.)

Worksheets and Exercise: 70 points

Worksheets and exercise are intended to help students identify and retain essential information from video lessons related to the week's module-level outcomes. You can open videos on a different webpage and complete the worksheet while watching related videos. There is no time limit for completing the worksheet. All questions on the worksheet are available at one time; however, worksheets can only be attempted one time. Some worksheets are graded automatically (a) and others are graded by the instructor (i).

Assignments: 275 points (125 and 150 points respectively)

Assignments in this course are qualitative assessments of course learning objectives, which are designed to help you practice applying course concepts to demonstrate mastery of course objectives.

Assignments are an integrated part of the course and draw from class discussions and activities as well as individual work.

Assignments may be turned in up to three days late with a 10% late penalty. Assignments are not accepted after three days late without written documentation of an unavoidable or unforeseeable event. For more information about my policy regarding late work, please review Late Assignments under the Instructor's Policies. While assignments represent the independent work of students; collaborative teamwork is appropriate in the related activities. Also note: any assignment not made up as approved and arranged by the professor will receive a zero.

Students whose assignment includes academic integrity violations, such as but not limited to plagiarism, will receive a 0 on the assignment and possible referral to Student Affairs. However, "I reserve the right to reduce the penalty if I believe the academic integrity issue was unintentional or very minor in impact. Please review the policies regarding Academic Integrity and Plagiarism" (Dr. Rebecca). If you are unfamiliar with APA, I encourage you to purchase your own copy of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA, 6th ed.). Keep in mind, you are required to use the American Psychological Association (APA) formatting for assignment formatting, layout, citations, and references as part of your MGMT4304 assignments.

About Assignment 1

Trends in Workforce Planning and Talent Management: The War-for-Talent is worth 125 points and supports learning outcome 1. This assignment is a written paper requiring research – a literature review - into the topic of workforce planning and employment trends related to labor shortages. Your literature review will examine trends related to a specific APPROVED labor group, which you will select in week 2. The theme for this course's literature review is the relationship between employer branding, organizational fit, and employability. The theme should be applied to a specific labor group, which is incurring labor shortages. Consider employer branding efforts and competition for talent. Some employers focus more on organizational fit and employability. In this assignment you are going to investigate employer branding efforts and how this links to organizational fit and employability. Your specific labor group should be incurring a labor shortage - lots of competition for this labor generally referred to as the war for talent.

Assignment activities. In-class activities allow you to engage other students and the instructor about hands-on activities designed to help you complete the assignment in stages. Assignment activities are worth low levels of points but should not be overlooked. Additional information will be provided in stages through required videos and/or related assignment activities listed in the course schedule. Failing to watch required videos and/or participate in assignment activities could result in a failing grade for the assignment – especially if you misunderstood or overlooked a critical aspect of the assignment.

Completing the assignment. The literature review includes a title page, abstract (150 – 250 words), the body of the paper 4-5 pages synthesizing 10 sources, and a reference page (7-8 pages total). This paper requires a minimum of 10 sources, which are peer-reviewed journal articles and less than 5 years old. Be sure to paraphrase only, no direct quotes. Properly cite and reference in APA all sources of information. Utilize APA writing style and layout.

- Journal articles not correctly referenced AND cited in the paper will not be counted. I will check for citations. I will also spot check the dates. Changing journal article dates is an ethics violation under professional conduct. 40% deduction (-50 points) for less than 8 peer reviewed journal articles less than 5 years old.
- Do not exceed the page limit of 4-5 pages for the body of the paper.

Submitting your assignment. Your assignment should be uploaded as an MS Word document by midnight of the due date. For this assignment, you will need MS Word to complete this assignment. To submit the assignment, go to the left menu under Assignments, then select Assignment 1.

About Assignment 2

Full Life Cycle Staffing is worth 150 points, supports learning outcomes 1, 3, and 5. In this assignment, you will illustrate - through a systems approach – the organization's context as well as processes and components for workforce planning, sourcing and recruiting talent, assessing and selecting talent, acquiring and retaining talent, which makes up the Matchmaking Process. To do this, you will conduct Internet research to acquire needed information, then share your ideas and engage other students' perspectives and experiences to help you analyze and evaluate information, breaking down the components of your selected organization's staffing process.

Selecting an organization. Your choice of an organization must be pre-APPROVED by the instructor. Failing to use the instructor approved organization will result in a 40%-point deduction (-60 points). You may not use an organization where you currently or previously worked. If you are currently working, consider a competitor for talent as your selected organization. All students must have different organizations. Your organization needs to have easily accessible information on their website and published articles/video. Consider organizations in your local area that are well documented and in an industry in which you are interested in working. The best options are usually those with labor shortages such as manufacturing (skilled trades), healthcare, information technology, telecommunications, transportation, construction, mining, professional highly skilled talent or workers in community and social services. [Do not use national, state, or local government, public schools, or retail chains with small store locations. Each of these groups will not result in the needed information to complete the assignment.] Other companies that cannot be selected include Google, Zappos, Starbucks, Coca-Cola, Target, Chick-fil-A, Wal-Mart, Blue Bell, or Ben& Jerries'.

You will need to interview an HR professional at your selected organization OR within the selected industry worth 25% of your grade.

Assignment activities. In-class activities allow you to engage other students and the instructor about hands-on activities designed to help you complete the assignment in stages. Assignment activities are worth low levels of points but should not be overlooked. Additional information will be provided in stages through required videos and/or related assignment activities listed in the course schedule. Failing to watch required videos and/or participate in assignment activities could result in a failing grade for the assignment – especially if you misunderstood or overlooked a critical aspect of the assignment.

Completing the assignment. Your response to this assignment is a power point presentation with notes and voiceover narration of all the slides – except the reference slide. Screencasting is not an alternative to the powerpoint narration. The powerpoint should include a title slide, presentation overview, introduction to your organization, the body of the presentation with notes – apx. 1-2 slides for each topic based on assignment activities, the organization’s matchmaking process, informed points for process improvement, communication with an HR professional, and transferable concepts. Include a reference slide with the organization’s website, sources of other information about the organization including conversations/communications, and source of industry trends or research. Be sure to use powerpoint best practices including the addition of images and limited, streamlined text on each slide. Be sure to download and use the assignment sample located in the left menu under Modules, and then at the bottom - Additional Resources, which includes more detailed information about slide content and demonstrates linkages to each assignment activity.

Submitting your assignment. Your assignment should be uploaded as an MS PPT by 11:59 p.m. on the due date. For this assignment, you will need MS PowerPoint and a microphone for audio recording. To submit the assignment, go to the left menu under Assignments, then select Assignment 2. The file upload may take a while so plan this into your submission timeline.

The reflective journal is an individual assignment and a descriptive account of your incremental learning over the duration of the course related to course outcomes 1-5. This journal not only provides you with an opportunity to reflect on what you have learned so far, but it also helps the professor to understand your unique learning experience. Information from journal entries will also help to improve the overall course experience for you and subsequent students.

This reflection is worth 10 points. Please answer all of the questions below.

- Describe your most memorable learning experience(s) in completing this assignment.
- Which discussions or activities most contributed to your ability to complete this assignment and why?
- Which discussion or activities least contributed to your ability to complete this assignment and why?

Quizzes will be completed and submitted in Canvas, then scored automatically through A&M-CT's Web-supported Canvas application.

Completing quizzes. Each quiz includes 10 questions and is anticipated to take approximately 10 minutes to complete. However, you may take up to 15 minutes to complete the quiz. Quizzes are low stress based on their design allowing them to be retaken as many times as you like and you can keep the highest grade. However, keep in mind that quizzes must be completed by the due date posted in the course schedule. A note of caution, choosing not to take the quizzes can have a negative impact on your grade over the duration of the course. Finally, opportunities to complete quizzes late will only be provided with written documentation of an unavoidable or unforeseeable event.

Exams: 375 points (3 @ 125 points each)

There will be three objective exams administered during the semester, which assess knowledge and understanding of module-level objectives. Exam 1 supports course outcomes 1 & 2, exam 2 supports course outcomes 3 & 4, and exam 3 supports course outcomes 4 & 5. Similar to quizzes, exams will be completed and submitted by the due date posted in the course schedule.

Completing exams. Exams include 50 multiple choice and true/false questions, which assesses content from the required textbook. These are open book exams; however, if you do not study and choose to look up all of the answers during the exam, you will not have sufficient time to complete the exam. Questions will be scored automatically through A&M-CT's Web-supported Canvas application. Exams are anticipated to take approximately 60 minutes each, and they must be completed in one sitting by the due date posted in the course schedule. Opportunities to complete exams late will only be provided with written documentation of an unavoidable or unforeseeable event. Exams represent the independent work of students; teamwork will not be permitted on exams. Further: any exam not made up as approved and arranged by the professor will receive a zero.

All exams open on Saturday 12:30 am before the scheduled week, and close on their due date at 11:59 p.m. CST. Exams can only be taken one time.

Grading and Late Assignments

All weekly discussions are due on the date designated on the syllabus course schedule unless otherwise posted in the classroom announcements. In some cases, an alternate due date (typically the late submission deadline) can be arranged before the due date, except items due in week 16. Exams can only be taken at alternate times in exceptional circumstances and require documentation to support the exceptional circumstance.

A ten percent penalty will be assessed for late assignments (assignments #1, #2, and #3). Assignments that are late will not be accepted more than three days late without written documentation of an emergency or unavoidable unplanned event preventing you from completing and turning in the course requirement during the week it was available for submission. All late assignments should be uploaded to the Canvas classroom.

Discussion and quizzes cannot be submitted late. Contributions to discussions are dependent on the interaction of other students. Quizzes are intended to ensure students are keeping up with weekly reading assignments.

Please keep in mind that any exception to the late policy requires documentation supporting an emergency or unplanned event. No submissions are accepted after the last day of class unless the student has an approved incomplete contract in place.

Instructor Policies:

Instructors policies can be found at the end of the syllabus under Instructor Policies Related to Absence, Grading, etc.

In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-on-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available) or by making an appointment via WCOOnline. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC and/or need any assistance with scheduling.

University Library

The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 250,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 85,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available 24 hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place on Skype or in-person at the library. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events. Instructor Policies

Plagiarism

Students whose assignment contains plagiarized information, i.e., failing to cite and reference the information source in properly applying APA formatting to citations and references, will receive a 0 for the assignment and possibly a referral to Student Affairs. However, I reserve the right to reduce the penalty if I believe plagiarism was unintentional or very minor in impact. Students whose assignment contains inadequate effort will receive a substantial deduction in points, i.e., a citation that does not include the author and date in the citation or a reference missing the majority of the required information.

Being an Online Student

Students' learning experiences will be largely impacted by interaction with the instructor and other students as part of a learning community. Therefore, by registering for a Web-based course, you have made a commitment to participate in your course discussions as well as other online activities. Plan to participate regularly.

- The Canvas class begins on Monday and concludes on Sunday. Each week includes practices quizzes, discussions and activities supporting assignments and exams.
- I suggest briefly reviewing the discussion and assignment descriptions due in the current period before you complete the required reading assignments and view multimedia.
- Read assigned readings and provide your initial response to the topics as soon as the discussion opens. Then, go back and follow-up with other student postings. Remember this is a discussion. So, plan time to read other students' posts.
- Begin developing ideas for your assignment when you read the related chapter. Some students will complete assignments quickly, and others will take much longer. Please plan accordingly to ensure you do not encounter technical difficulties trying to submit an assignment to Canvas at the last minute.
- Complete quizzes and retake them to increase your score. Quizzes are typically open in advance and due by Sunday of their respective week. However, exams are only open the week they are due and close on Sunday at midnight. Remember the week for this course is Monday-Sunday.

Dr. Rebecca's Personal Statement

I view myself as a scholar-practitioner, committed to both teaching and research in the human resource management (HRM) and human resource development (HRD) disciplines. I enjoy teaching adult learners, and I approach teaching as a shared learning experience. As a scholar, I choose projects that will contribute to existing scholarship, but also projects that will enhance my students' learning experiences or broaden my knowledge within my chosen disciplines.

My approach to students draws from my own life experiences as an adult working student with family responsibilities and those of close family members struggling in the academic environment with severe dyslexia. I believe each student is different in their capacity to handle stress, which comes from the multiple and conflicting demands of being a non-traditional adult student. Because I acknowledge students' disparate life demands and unique backgrounds, I try to partner with students to ensure appropriate support and access to educational resources is provided when needed facilitating both self-efficacy and achievement. I have found that despite the heavy demands of adult non-traditional students' lives, the very nature of their demanding lives allows them to bring to the classroom a wealth of experience and knowledge that helps to shape the learning environment and enrich the learning experience of all involved.

My approach to teaching and learning is student-focused, experience-based, and bridges academia with human resource practices in the workplace. This teaching approach is framed by the competency-based learning model, utilizes mixed teaching methodologies, and creates an interactive, outcomes-based learning experience. As the teacher and facilitator, I believe my role is to provide a challenging, well-designed learning environment that draws on students' life experiences, engages students in the educational content, and enables mastery of learning outcomes.

My background reflects a value for teaching and learning over the duration of my life course. I believe to be an effective teacher I must continue to be a learner. This means that I am committed to continuously increasing my knowledge in the HRM and HRD disciplines, maintaining professional certifications and memberships, participating in continuing education, as well as contributing to the research, theory, and practice in the HRM and HRD disciplines.
