COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- Exams (200 total points, 2 at 100 points each):
The student will take two exams valued at 100 points apiece. The exams are reviewed during the subsequent class period. The exams include matching, multiple choice, and short answer prose questions. The student is advised to review his/her work before submission.
- Reaction Comments (100 points, 7 at 14.28 points each):
At the conclusion of each week (except the Mid-term and Final Exam), the student will submit a Reaction Comment (RC), due before midnight. In Canvas, the student will send an email to the instructor, reacting to material discussed or experienced in class. A few sentences are sufficient. The student expresses his/her reaction to something discussed or experienced in class. The reaction may be emotional, cognitive, insightful, positive, negative, or neutral. A mere summary of material discussed in class, however, is insufficient for credit. The student shall identify his/her email with the heading of RC1, RC2, etc., as indicated in the Course Calendar. Please use only RC1, RC2, etc. for credit. An inaccurate heading may result in no credit. There are 7 Reaction Comments valued at 14.28 points each. A student must attend class in order to react to class discussions.
- Class Participation (100 points):
The student is expected to participate in class discussions. The student earns 3 points for full attendance on a specific day (appears on time and does not leave early). He/she earns another 4.14 points for participating in class discussion. (No points are awarded on exam days, however.) Thus, the student earns 0-7.14 points on each class day (total of 14 days).
- Online FEMA Course Certifications (200 total points, 4 certificates at 50 points each):
The student will earn four certificates from the FEMA Emergency Operations training website (<http://training.fema.gov/IS/NIMS.aspx>), each valued at 50 points. Each of the links below allow you to complete a lesson and test. When you have achieved a passing grade, FEMA sends you a certificate in pdf format. Simply attach the certificate to an email message on Bb and send it to your instructor for credit. In the heading of your email, indicate FEMA1, FEMA2.

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].
