Required Reading and Textbook

International Business: The Challenges of Globalization, 8/E
Authors: John J. Wild & Kenneth J. Wild
Publisher: Pearson

Reference Guide for Professional Writing

NOTE: A student of this institution is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from a university-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Introduce Yourself - Meet and Greet! Using the Canvas Discussion forum, introduce yourself to the class - who, where, what, why, etc.; include your work experience, international experience, goals for taking this course, and anything else you would like to share with the class (See Appendix A).

Discussion Questions Participation: You are required to participate in weekly discussion forums consisting of messages you post discussing your ideas and perspectives, follow-up responses, etc. relating to the discussion topics.

To receive full credit, you need to post three messages per discussion: one opening of 150 to 200 words and two additional posts of 150 to 200 words each commenting on class members posts. Both quantity and quality are important considerations when posting substantive messages. For example, "I agree" or “I see your point” are not considered quality participation because neither adds substance to the discussion. Be sure to restate the question you are answering and address your classmates by their names.

IMPORTANT!!! To allow for a discussion, which is an ongoing process that cannot be achieved by submitting all three required posts on the last day of the week, your first post has to be submitted by Wednesday. This will allow for your classmates to read your opening post and reply to you and for you to reply to them in turn. The remaining two posts can be completed between Wednesday and Monday.
Examinations: There are three multiple-choice, true/false, fill-in the-blank, essay examinations during the semester. Each exam will include materials covered in prior sections of the course.

Cultural Interview: A cultural interview is conducted with a person who has a different nationality from yours and documented in a 2 page, 12-font report, single-spaced with double spacing between paragraphs (See Appendix B).

Country Project:

For this project you may work individually or as a team of 2, 3, or 4 members - your choice.

In addition, you will select a product or service and describe the challenges and opportunities of introducing your product into the country and provide relevant guidelines for a successful international business venture based on your research about the country.

Each section (1-7) of the report needs to be at least 3 pages, single spaced, with the content being one page, single spaced, with 11 or 12-point font. For each section, in addition to the one page of single-spaced content, you need to include a cover page, list of references, and other pages as needed. Finally, you will combine all the sections into your final report and add a table of contents and 1 page single spaced executive summary. All references should be properly cited using the American Psychological Association (APA) format.

Appendix B

Cultural Interview Assignment

A cultural interview is conducted with a person who has different nationality from yours. The main purpose of the interview is to discover and evaluate cultural similarity and differences. The interview summary is for you to reflect on your dialogue with the interviewee. The interview summary should be 2 pages, single-spaced with double spacing between paragraphs, 12-font and cover all points listed below.

1. Identify your own cultural background as the basis of cultural comparison. Provide a brief introduction of how you meet the interviewee and the interviewee’s demographic information, such as age, education, family, or occupation.

2. Describe BOTH similarities and differences between your own culture and his/her culture. The similarities and differences can be in diet, attire, etiquette, government, education system, family structure, etc.

3. Reference chapter 2 and describe the cultural dimensions using Hofstede’s cultural framework. Reflect on your interview experience and suggest how the interviewee’s culture is relatively lower or higher on Hofstede’s cultural dimensions compared to your own culture. The interpretation of each dimension should incorporate supporting evidence based on what you learn from the interviewee’s culture.

4. Recommendations for handling cultural differences between your own culture and the interviewee’s culture.

   A. Reflect on your own background and past experience to identify your own cultural identity. Some of you may have a different cultural heritage from American culture, and some of you were born and raised in a foreign country. Which culture influences your values and beliefs the most?

   B. Ask your interviewees to identify his or her national culture. Then you have the reference of comparison between your own culture and your interviewee’s culture.

   C. Do your homework about the national cultural differences before you actually conduct the interview.

   Look up the national cultural comparison on Hofstede’s website at http://geert-hofstede.com/countries.html

Who should I interview?

You may choose any person who has different nationality from yours. The Hofstede’s cultural framework will be the most meaningful when you compare two national cultures. You may have known the person from the past and can go back to him/her for an in depth interview. You can also find your interviewee through the international student association on campus or an ESL program at the community college. As the last resort, you may choose a person who has the same nationality as yours and have a different ethnic background. The person with a different nationality is going to give you a more interesting comparison of cultural differences since nations usually uphold the culture dearly so you will be more likely to observe more cultural differences when your interviewee has a different nationality from yours.

Sample Interview Questions
1. What should I know of your culture’s recent history, governance and language?

2. What do you understand as the major values and beliefs of your culture?

3. What cultural customs might surprise me?

4. If I were to fall in love with someone from your culture, what would you advise me in terms of dating, courtship and marriage practices?

5. What do different cultural practices look like? For example, understanding of work and leisure?

6. How do you define success?

7. How important is education in your family?

8. Is punctuality important to you? Why or why not?

9. What is the most important meal of the day?

10. What are considered the indigenous foods in your culture?

11. Do you have any eating habits/rituals that are specific to your culture?

12. How is physical contact viewed in your culture?

13. What is considered most disrespectful in your culture?

14. What is considered most respectful in your culture?

15. What would you say is, from your perspective, the most commonly held misconception about people of your culture?

16. What is the best thing about living in the USA?

17. What is the worst thing about living in the USA?
