Required Texts

The student study website for your textbook (Schutt 2017) can be found at https://edge.sagepub.com/schuttusw. Here you will find helpful tools to increase your knowledge of research methods, concepts etc.

Course Description
Principles and methods of social research, including research design, methods of observation, questionnaires, interviews and other sources of social data; qualitative and quantitative techniques of inference; analysis and research report writing. Limited research studies and projects will be undertaken by the students.

Course Objectives
Knowledge Outcomes:
1. Students will know the nature of scientific inquiry.
2. Students will understand the process of forming research questions.
3. Students will know the techniques of conducting sociological research and critiques of these techniques.
4. Students will understand issues of measurement and sampling.
5. Students will understand the ethical considerations of research.
6. Students will learn and practice writing within the discipline of sociology.
Skills Outcomes:
1. Critical thinking: Students must have "sociological insight" in order to see through official explanations of social life, common sense conclusions, and conclusions based solely on personal experience. Using the tools of the discipline, sociologists analyze social life that entails using their sociological imaginations.

2. Abstract thinking: Sociology is a discipline of theory testing. Research techniques and statistics help us describe social phenomena and allow us to evaluate theoretical statements.

3. Persistence: Just because we live in a society does not mean we automatically know everything about it. Hard study is required, and thinking is mandatory! Research methods help us see through the veneer of official accounting of the world around us. Research is about persistent curiosity.

4. Flexibility: Students will learn the discovery of hidden social processes. It is imperative that we become flexible in our thinking and willing to process what we already know. Students should be active agents in their own learning.

5. Expansion of knowledge: This course aims to expand students’ breadth of knowledge of social behavior, organization, and diversity within populations. Research techniques help us see how social processes affect individual development and life chances.

6. Discipline style writing: The student will learn how to link the thinking and writing dimensions of the research process within the discipline of sociology. This skill outcome will be accomplished by completing a final research proposal paper (with three drafts), and critique scholarly research articles.

Value Outcomes:
1. Students will value scientific inquiry.
2. Students will be able to discern false information from factual information.
3. Students will understand the appropriate method to utilize given the scientific question.

Writing Instructive (WI) Course:
This is a Writing Instructive (WI) course so writing will be an integral part of my instruction and our interactions. Writing will also be a fundamental way that I measure student mastery of course content. WI means that you will have several opportunities to work on improving your writing skills.

1. Assignment Revisions: For this course, you will be completing a Final Research Paper Proposal. You will have three drafts which will help you to develop your final paper. Once you turn in your drafts, if I believe that you need to revise that assignment, I will ask that you do so. It is very important that you complete and submit revisions as specified so that you will have a complete final research proposal.

2. Posting of Grades: Normally, I grade on most weekends. My goal is to grade your assignments the same week that they are turned in, if possible. If I am running behind, I will send out an email letting students know the status of their assignments. Because I expect all students to improve on each writing assignment as they progress through the semester, I strive to get your grades with comments to you as soon as I can.

3. Grade Turnaround: In this course, you can expect that I will provide feedback on all assignments one week or less.

Class/Instructor Policies

Taking a Sociological Perspective: I encourage questions and discussion concerning course material and sharing personal observations and experiences. However, since you are enrolled in a sociology course, the main goal is to utilize a sociological perspective. This means that you should try to analyze various topics with an objective point of view. Objective point of view means looking through the lens of sociology. How does sociology utilize objectivity, you might be asking? Sociology is a social science—qualitative and quantitative research techniques are used to collect data about the social world. Sociologists must always strive to maintain an objective outlook when observing the social world. Therefore, in this course, you will be challenged to look within the layers of a social phenomenon or put another way, to look beyond what you see on the surface. In addition, you will not agree with everything you hear in class from the professor or your classmates. Part of becoming educated requires that your ideas are challenged. As a college-level student, you should be able to see different points of view of the same issue. I expect students to be respectful towards every person in this classroom, even if they disagree with certain viewpoints.

The role of the instructor is to present critical ideas, to offer an analytical framework for understanding the course material, to work with students in providing an inspiring learning environment, and to provide and receive constructive feedback. It is not the instructor’s role to tell the student what to think. The student’s responsibility is to read the readings with a critical mind, to question, to complete assignments on time, to participate in the exchange of ideas, and to work toward an inspiring learning environment. It is the responsibility of all of us to create a safe learning environment free of racism, sexism, classism, ageism, ableism, homophobia, transphobia, and heterosexism.

Late Work: When you are turning in assignments, your work must be uploaded in Canvas at the specified due date and time. I will not accept that assignment through email. However, if you are having an issue with an assignment, let me know ahead of time and I will do what I can to accommodate you.

Additional Help: If you need additional help on assignments, papers, or any materials covered in class, please do not hesitate to contact me. The best way to get in touch with me is through email.

Incomplete Grades: I DO NOT GIVE OUT INCOMPLETE GRADES. ALL ASSIGNMENTS AND TESTS ARE DUE ON THE DATES OUTLINED IN THE SYLLABUS.

COVID-19 SAFETY MEASURES

To promote public safety and protect students, faculty, and staff during the coronavirus pandemic, Texas A&M University-Central Texas has adopted policies and practices to minimize virus transmission. All members of the university community are expected to adhere to these measures to ensure their own safety and the safety of others. Students must observe the following practices while participating in face-to-face courses, course-related activities (office hours, help sessions, transitioning to and between classes, study spaces, academic services, etc.) and co-curricular programs:

- Self-monitoring—Students should follow CDC recommendations for self-monitoring. Students who have a fever or exhibit symptoms of COVID-19 should participate in class remotely and should not participate in face-to-face instruction. Students required to quarantine must participate in courses and course-related activities remotely and must not attend face-to-face course activities. Students should notify their instructors of the quarantine requirement. Students under quarantine are expected to participate in courses and complete graded work unless they have symptoms that are too severe to participate in course activities.

- Face Coverings—Face coverings must be worn inside of buildings and within 50 feet of building entrances on the A&M-Central Texas Campus. This includes lobbies, restrooms, hallways, elevators, classrooms, laboratories, conference rooms, break rooms, non-private office spaces, and other shared spaces. Face coverings are also required in outdoor spaces where physical distancing is not maintained. The university will evaluate exceptions to this requirement on a case by case basis. Students can request an exception through the Office of Access and Inclusion in Student Affairs.

  - If a student refuses to wear a face covering, the instructor should ask the student to leave and join the class remotely. If the student does not leave the class, the faculty member should report that student to the Office of Student Conduct. Additionally, the faculty member may choose to teach that day’s class remotely for all students.

- Physical Distancing—Physical distancing must be maintained between students, instructors, and others in the course and course-related activities.

- Classroom Ingress/Egress—Students must follow marked pathways for entering and exiting classrooms and other teaching spaces. Leave classrooms promptly after course activities have concluded. Do not congregate in hallways and maintain 6-foot physical distancing when waiting to enter classrooms and other instructional spaces.
• The university will notify students in the event that the COVID-19 situation necessitates changes to the course schedule or modality.

All academic misconduct concerns will be referred to the university’s Office of Student Conduct. Course Requirements
1. Research Design Drafts for Final Proposal Paper (200 total points): You will complete three drafts (assignments). These drafts are designed to help in the development of your final proposal paper. Also take a look at https://libguides.usc.edu/writingguide/researchproposal. This website is an excellent resource, providing what your actual research proposal paper should contain.

   Instructions: There are three parts to this assignment with each having a different due date. The goal is to complete each draft which will culminate into your Final Research Proposal Paper. The more work you put into these assignments, the less you should have to complete at the end of the semester when writing the final paper proposal. But the main goal is to construct an outline for what will become your final project. For the questions posed below, do not simply provide a one sentence answer. Provide dialog to support your answers. The grading rubrics for each draft are also located at the end of your syllabus. In addition to your textbook (Schutt 2017), you will also find helpful Writing in Sociology: A Brief Guide by Smith-Lovin and Moskovitz (2017). This short guidebook will help in the writing of your design drafts as well as your final proposal paper.

   Part 1: Research Question Development (50 total points) – Due Saturday September 26 by midnight

   1. State the topic in which you want to write your research proposal. Provide detailed information about your topic, enough that the reader understands the social problem (10pts)
2. What is your research question? Is it exploratory, explanatory, or descriptive in nature? (You will find this information in Chapters 1 and 2 of your textbook) (10pts)

3. What theoretical perspective drives your research question and your research (i.e. inductive or deductive found in Chapter 2) (10pts)

4. Why are you investigating this topic? Why is this social problem important to investigate? (10pts)

5. You will earn points for spelling, grammar and sentence structure (10pts)

Part 2: Review of the Literature – Annotated Bibliography (110 total points) – Due Saturday October 12 by midnight

To begin your exploration of the topic, provide an annotated bibliography of 10 scholarly research articles on your topic. An annotated bibliography is basically a summary of each article. You want to summarize the important details about the research. The abstract of any research article and conclusion are very good places to start but you want to read the entire article. Also take a look at https://libguides.usc.edu/writingguide/researchproposal. This website is an excellent resource, providing what a research proposal paper should contain, including the literature review.

1. Each article is worth 10 points for a total of 100 possible points. You will also be graded on spelling, grammar and sentence structure (10pts).

2. You will use the annotated bibliography to construct your literature review in the final research proposal due at the end of the semester. This means that you will not cut/paste the annotated bibliography into the final paper. If you do, you will not earn points in your final paper proposal for your literature review section. You will write a cohesive literature review for the final paper. Let me know if you have any questions.

Part 3: Research Design (40 total points) – Due Saturday November 7 by midnight

1. Choose your research design. Depending on what method you choose, you will need to discuss how you will collect your data, state hypotheses, define concepts, variables etc. (10pts)

2. How you will you collect your sample? This will depend on the methods that you choose (i.e. Qualitative vs. Quantitative) Please be specific about your specific sampling method. (10pts)

3. What might be some of the limitations of your proposed study? (10pts)

4. You will earn points for spelling, grammar and sentence structure (10pts)
2. Final Research Proposal Paper (200 points) – Due Monday December 7 at 11:59pm:
Your final paper will include the sections that are contained in a research proposal paper (except for the results since you will not actually conduct the research). Your assignments/drafts leading up to the final paper should be utilized for the final project. Keep in mind that you are not doing the actual research.

The Format and Organization of Paper

- Font: Times New Roman 12
- Margins: 1” (inch) top and bottom, 1 (inch) left and right
- Pages should be numbered (page # centered at the bottom of the page)
- Section breaks/headings for each section of your paper
- Your literature review should include no less than 10 scholarly research articles.
- Please double space your paper.
- 10 - 15 pages of written text (3750 words is the maximum). All items in the appendices are not included in the page totals.
- You should use American Sociological Association (ASA) Reference style.

Please organize your final paper by using the following sections. The website https://libguides.usc.edu/writingguide/researchproposal is also helpful in providing an overall depiction of what your proposal can contain. Below are the sections that you will want to include in your final research proposal paper:

- Abstract – 200 to 300 words
- Introduction, Background and Significance
- Review of the literature
  - Your annotated bibliography is NOT your review of the literature. You want to write a literature review as you would for any social science research paper. Your annotated bibliography is used to help construct your final literature review section of this final paper proposal, but that is all. If you have questions, please let me know.
- Methods/Research Design
  - In this section, you want to tell the reader what kinds of methods you would use if you were going to conduct your research project. You might include some of the following (depending on your chosen methodology):
    - Measurement of concepts and variables
    - Data Collection Method
    - Selection of Subjects – Sample
- Discussion/Conclusion
  - Even though you are not conducting an actual study, include a conclusion and answer the following: Summarize your findings. Are any other interpretations possible? Are your results substantively important? Do you think your findings would have been different under different methodological restraints (e.g., different size sample or different research design)? What light did the study shed on the theoretical frame? How do your results relate to social policy or the greater world beyond academia? What additional research questions and hypotheses are suggested or could be posed by your results?
- References (in ASA format)
3. Research Article Critique Papers (4 papers x 45pts/each = 180 total points): For your Research Article Critique Papers, I will provide you with an article to critique. In your tentative course syllabus, you will find the due dates for these papers. I will specify which article to critique for that week. The link to each article is located in Canvas under each assignment tab.

Just a word of warning, I do not want you all to copy/paste your information directly from the articles to fill in the information. Please provide your own analysis. If you do need to directly quote, use proper referencing. If all of your information is copy/pasted into your final assignment, this will be considered an act of plagiarism.

Directions:

- For your Research Article Critique Papers, I will provide you with an article to critique. In your tentative course syllabus, you will find the due dates for these papers. I will specify which article to critique for that week. Your articles are located under each assignment link in Canvas.
- Read the article and fill out the following information below, providing some detail regarding each section. My goal is to provide you with an article that is relevant to the course information you are learning about for that week OR material we have already covered. However, keep in mind that you may not understand everything that you read but the goal is to study each article and do your best to determine the correct answers.
- On page 216 (Appendix A) of your textbook, you can review “Questions to Ask about a Research Article.” On page 218 (Appendix B) of your textbook, you will also find an outline detailing “How to Read a Research Article.”
- Please make sure that you practice good spelling, grammar and sentence structure. This is a senior level class and you will earn points for your writing skills.
- You will find your grading rubric at the end of your syllabus. Do not leave any of your sections blank. If you are unsure of your answer, provide some dialog. I would prefer that you at least try. Sections of your critique include:

Assignment Outline

1. List citation of the article that you are reading (using American Sociological Association – ASA Reference style). Page 57 of your ASA guide goes over how to list a journal article.
2. Theoretical orientation (inductive, deductive etc).
3. Measurement (Chapter 4 covers measurement)
4. Sampling
5. Research design - Specify type of method (examples below):
   - Experiments
   - Survey Research
   - Field Research
   - Content Analysis
   - Analyzing Existing Statistics
   - Comparative or History Research
   - Evaluation Research
6. Data analysis (How was the data analyzed (SPSS, Statistics, Qual software etc.)
7. Reporting (conclusions)
4. Postings (13 Postings x 13 points each = 169 total points):

- You will have 13 postings for this course. You will receive a total of 13 points for providing a substantive post, responding to three classmates, presenting good writing skills and adhering to deadlines.
- In your tentative schedule below, you will find that each week corresponds to a particular posting. Weekly posts will open up on Mondays at 8:00am and close on Fridays at 11:59pm. Your main posting will be due by Wednesday evening at midnight. If your main posting is not submitted on time, you will not earn all points. Additionally, you will have until Friday at midnight to complete all replies to at least three classmates.
- Your postings will cover material from your readings and various topics that we discuss in this class. Since the postings cover your readings, I would like you all to use your books as a reference. Some weekly postings will cover material from BOTH books which include your textbook by Schutt (2017) and the book by Smith-Lovin and Moskovitz (2016) on Writing in Sociology.
- I do not want information cut/pasted from the internet such as Wikipedia. If you do so, you will not earn points for that posting.
- Whenever you post, I also want you to reference using ASA. Remember that anytime you take information from a source (either directly quoting or paraphrasing), you must reference even if you are doing so in a posting.
- All posts must be substantive and demonstrate to me that you have done all the reading associated with the discussion. In order to get full credit for your individual post, you must choose a topic from your readings for that week. In order to get the points in responding to your classmates, you must put thought and effort into your response. A thin answer such as “I totally agree with you” or “That was a really cool post” will not be considered for credit.
- When posting, please describe your topics in enough detail to get other classmates to engage in conversation. From your textbook, you may want to discuss a particular concept in order to get more clarity of what it means. You can be creative but I want you to put thought into what you post. I want to know that you have not only read the material but have something engaging to contribute to the discussion.
- In your Writing in Sociology handbook, the goal is to learn how to write within the discipline of sociology. This book will be very helpful to you throughout this course. Please provide to your classmates something important that you have learned in your readings from this book as well.
- Finally, your postings and your written assignments are two different assessments. Do not copy your assignments into the discussion board. If you do, you will not earn discussion points for that particular week.

GRADING RUBRICS FOR COURSE REQUIREMENTS ARE LOCATED AT THE END OF YOUR SYLLABUS.
Grading Scale

A = 674 – 749 (Excellent)
B = 538 – 673 (Better than Average)
C = 376 – 537 (Average)
D = 225 – 375 (Below Average)
F = 224 and below (Failing)
