Other Instructional Materials

Reference Guide for Professional Writing

American Psychological Association. (2010). Publication manual of American Psychological Association (6th ed.). Washington, D.C. (ISBN-13: 978-1-4338-0561-5).

- Proper citation, both in-text and references, are a critical part of academic writing.
- Proper citation involves diligent research of relevant previous work from credible sources, accurate representation of those credible sources, and proper attribution to those sources (i.e. giving credit where credit is due).
- Hence, in this course you are required to properly cite your sources, in-text and in a reference list, for all assignments. The APA guideline listed above will help you generate a consistent format of citations and references.

Equipment

A properly configured computer, per the previous technology requirements section above in this syllabus, with: speakers or a headset (to listen to audio/video files), reliable Internet access, MS Word, Adobe Acrobat Reader, and Power Point.

Articles

For these, good Internet access, MS Word, and Adobe Acrobat for pdf files are required.

Instructional Software

Both normal power point slide notes and audio presentations of my lectures for that chapter, in Canvas in the relevant (weekly) modules. The lectures are very large files, but do open fairly quickly generally.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The assessments below will measure the applicable Course Learning Objectives (CLOs) and Weekly Learning Outcomes (WLOs) stated above. In some instances, a particular outcome may be assessed by multiple methods, ex. homework and an exam question.

General Note: Use APA-style citations to cite the sources of your information in all assignment submissions. If you are unacquainted with APA citation style, the reference guide (listed in 2. Instructional Materials) above is helpful for writing and citation. All assignments must be submitted in .doc or .docx format.

Late Work Penalties:

1. McGraw Connect Homework & Quizzes – Late Assignments are accepted up to three days after the due date, but will lose 10% per day.
2. Discussions – Late Discussions are accepted up to three days after the due date, but will lose 10% per day.
3. Collective Bargaining Simulation Website Quiz & Journal Entries: No late submissions are accepted.
4. If you fail to take an exam without notifying me PRIOR TO the exam, you can score no higher than the lowest grade a class member received who took it on time and only if I feel the excuse warrants allowing a make-up.

Below, you will find summary information concerning assignments and exams. Assignments details are outlined in Appendices to this syllabus.

1. Exams –400 points (200 Points each)–There will be a midterm exam covering Chapters 1-7 and a final exam covering Chapters 8-13.
 - a. • The midterm exam will be open from Tuesday, Oct. 17th at 12:01 AM (00:01) through Thursday, Oct. 19th at midnight (23:59).
 - b. • The final exam will be open from Tuesday, Dec. 12th at 12:01 AM (00:01) through Thursday, Dec. 14th at midnight (23:59).
 - c. • You can access exams when the window opens by clicking on Module in Canvas, and then on Week 8 and Week 16 respectively. Please note that the links for the tests may not show up until the test is scheduled. Check the syllabus calendar for dates and availability windows.
2. Cases – You will be tasked to analyze five labor relations cases and respond with your analysis. These are each worth 20 points each (100points total)
3. 3. Connect Homework & Quizzes – 225 total points (10 Points each HW & 10 points each Quiz) – Each week you will utilize Connect to complete Homework (“HW”) questions and quizzes related to the chapter(s) covered that week. We cover 13 chapters, but the worst HWs and/or worst quizzes will be dropped, leaving a total of 225 points available. They do come with short time limitations, so you need to be very familiar with the content prior to taking them. There are minimal hint/answer checks programmed in. Taken together, these assess all CLOs and will generally be due on Saturdays. Grading: Answers are either right or wrong. Connect gives you immediate grade feedback on each of the quizzes and exercises.

4. Discussions – 50 points (10 points each) – Prior to Week 7 when you begin working in teams, you will have the opportunity to get to know one another and share thoughts concerning various employee and labor relations concepts, events, and issues. In order to receive full credit for each discussion, you must at least (1) submit a thoughtful original post and, in a separate post (2) reply to another student's post.
5. Journal Postings – 50 points (10 points each) – Every few chapters (5 total entries), you will reflect on what you have learned during the last couple of chapters and what you found troubling or confusing in the following manner: In order to receive full credit, you must at least (1) thoughtfully reflect on what you learned in the past two weeks or found interesting in at least two sentences, and in a separate paragraph, (2) state what you found confusing (muddiest issues) and either write any questions that you have or, if you have no questions on the material, write “I have no questions” or something similar. There are no format requirements for requirement #2, other than it appearing separately from requirement #1. You will lose 2 points if you do not state whether you have questions or not. If you believe you understood all of the material and do not have any questions, just write that you understood the material and have no questions. I will generally respond to these within a week of their due date and if you have any questions, I will try to answer those by replying directly to your journal entry. You may access the Journals by clicking on “Modules” in Canvas, and then on the weekly units to see the work for that week. The link for each journal will open for the week that it is due. As such, each Journal entry should only consider material scheduled to be covered in that week per the syllabus and contained in that week’s content folder (points will be taken off if you stray from the topic for that week.) Type in the text box and do not attach your journal in a Word document. Taken together, the journals assess all CLOs, and will be due on Sundays. Grading: Though there is no right or wrong, the requirements noted above must be met in order to avoid point loss.
6. Collective Bargaining Simulation Website Quiz – 5 points – This quiz will contain a few T/F and multiple-choice questions about the Collective Bargaining Simulation Website. You will find the link for the quiz in the Week 7 Module (Click on the “Modules” link on the Canvas course menu.) You may reference the website during the quiz. You may take it as many times as you need before the due date until you get the perfect score. There is no reason not to get a perfect score. This quiz is to test how well you have read the website and understand the material that has been posted on the website. See the Schedule for due date. This assignment assesses CLO 8, 9, 12, and 16. Grading: A student can do this assignment until 100% is achieved.
7. Collective Bargaining Simulation – 200 points – Students will participate in the collective bargaining simulation known as “The Zinnia and Service Workers Local H-56.” In this simulation, students will be put into small groups of between 2-4 students and will represent either the Zinnia or Service Workers Local H-56 as they engage in collective bargaining. A brief introduction to the exercise can be found in Appendix D of your textbook and even more information can be found at www.thezinnia.com.

Students will be required to do the following actions and submit the following:

- 1) Each team must submit a negotiation plan.
- 2) The teams should negotiate for at least two weeks. Each member should contribute to the actual negotiations with the other team (to avoid some members contributing to just the negotiation plan and then doing nothing for two weeks).

- 3) Each team member must submit team contract input for the team contract outlining that particular student's input for team member roles, team deadlines, team rules, and the team's plan B (should things go awry in the team).
- 4) Each team member must submit an individual draft of that student's input for the negotiation. This serves as evidence that each member is contributing to the negotiation planning, and it gives the team material to work from when creating the draft and final version of the negotiation plan.
- 5) Each team must submit a final paper detailing the negotiations process and final agreement (if any) or write a paper explaining why they went on strike to their boss.
- 6) Each team must submit a final paper detailing the negotiations process and final agreement (if any) or write a paper explaining why they went on strike to their boss. Each member should contribute to that final paper (I recommend having the team label who wrote what in the final paper).
- 7) Each student must write a peer evaluation of their fellow teammates. If you are on a team where one member does not respond or does not participate, please let me know ASAP!

Every student must participate in the Collective Bargaining Simulation.

More information will be provided closer to the simulation and in the Simulation assignment, in Canvas.

Please schedule around the available time window. If there is an unavoidable conflict, you must let me know ahead of time, not after. You cannot retake the exam or reschedule the exam after the fact unless you have documentation of an extenuating circumstance outside of your control. Make-up exams, if permitted, will be an entirely different structure (all essay), as it is important to contact me before the exam. If you fail to take an exam without notifying me prior to the exam window, you can score no higher than the lowest grade a class member received who took it on time and only if I feel the excuse warrants allowing a make-up.

Exams are not easy and will be comprised of multiple choice and T/F questions. Plan for “long” exams since you will be tested over 6 or 7 chapters at a time and I want to make sure to cover the important material. You will have 180 minutes to complete each online examination. Given the time constraints, I highly suggest that you study hard before the test because you will not have time to look all the answers up. You may use your text, personal notes, and anything I put in Canvas to assist you, but you may not use another person's help or the internet. Googling is cheating! Cutting and pasting from the internet is cheating! Follow exam instructions closely and watch the clock as your answers will “auto-submit” once time has expired.

PLEASE NOTE: All assignment & exam due dates and times are for the Central Time Zone. Therefore, if you travel to another time zone, you must still turn in all assignments at the correct time for the Central Time Zone and not the time zone you are in at that moment. You are responsible for making sure that you make all of your deadlines when traveling.

It is vital for business success to be able to communicate courteously and professionally, as saying the wrong things to the wrong person can ruin one's career, thus we have CLO #16. As such, I reserve the right to reduce the grade of a student who communicates in a grossly unprofessional manner (email, classroom, Canvas, etc.) with respect to another student or myself. We can disagree with one's view or judgment, but we must learn how to do so respectfully in order to maintain employment and be successful in business today.

Disrespectful communication in class & team interactions, course messaging, email, or communications using other communication modes & platforms can result in a lower grade and, if severe enough, will be reported to the University for action consistent with University policy (see section below: University Policies).

GRADES and GRADING Calculations:

Grading Criteria Rubric and Conversion to Letter Grade Graded Coursework	Points/Percentage Weight
Exams (Mid-term & Final)	400 points = 40%
Cases (5 @ 20pts)	100 points = 10%
Connect Assignments (13 exercises / 13 quizzes)	225 Points = 22.5%
Discussions (5 @ 10 points each)	50 Points = 5%
Journals (5 @ 5 points each)	25 Points = 2.5 %
Collective Bargaining Simulation	200 Points = 20%

Grading Scale and Adjustments: Note the C, D, and F ranges

- 900 -1000 = A – Excellent
- 800 – 899 = B – Good
- 700 - 799 = C – Acceptable
- 600 - 699 = D – Needs Improvement
- 600 or less = F - Unacceptable

Posting of Grades

- Generally, assignment feedback and grades will be available in Canvas under the “Grades” tab, allowing you to monitor your progress during the semester.
- I endeavor to give you feedback within a week of due dates, though in exam weeks this may vary somewhat.
- Grades may also be adjusted at the end of the semester based on class results. This means that an average may qualify for a higher letter grade than the scale normally provides for, to facilitate an appropriate grade distribution.

UNIVERSITY RESOURCES, PROCEDURES, AND GUIDELINES

Drop Policy.

If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete a Drop Request Form [https://www.tamuct.edu/registrar/docs/Drop_Request_Form.pdf]. Professors cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Registrar's Office will provide a deadline on the University Calendar for which the form must be completed, signed and returned. Once you return the signed form to the Registrar's Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Registrar's Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.

Academic Integrity.

Texas A&M University -Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Academic integrity is defined as a commitment to honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. Academic misconduct is any act that improperly affects a true and honest evaluation of a student's academic performance and includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism and improper citation of sources, using another student's work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. All academic misconduct concerns will be reported to the university's Office of Student Conduct. Ignorance of the university's standards and expectations is never an excuse to act with a lack of integrity. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.

The University Writing Center.

Located in 416 Warrior Hall, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University-Central Texas is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students from 10am-5pm Monday-Thursday with satellite hours in the University Library on Mondays from 6:00-9:00pm. Students may arrange a one-on-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available) or by making an appointment via WOnline [<https://tamuct.mywconline.com/>]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu to schedule an online tutoring session. Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the University Writing Center is here to help!

If you have any questions about the University Writing Center, please do not hesitate to contact Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu.

University Library.

The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 250,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 72,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On-campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders. Research assistance from a librarian is also available twenty-four hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place on Skype or in-person at the library. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments. Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [<https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php>].
