What should I expect from the instructor?

- This is a face-to-face class with online components; most communication will be done during class time. In addition, all students are welcome and encouraged to make an appointment for an office visit.
- I will be checking and replying to student emails daily - students should expect a response within 24 hours. Emails sent on a weekend will be responded to the following Monday, unless it is a holiday. Any deviations from this will be announced in Canvas. During office hours, emails will be responded to more quickly, and other methods of communication can also be utilized if pre-arranged (e.g., Facetime, Skype, Canvas Chat (preferred)).
- Most assignments will be graded within one week of submission. Depending on length, writing assignments will be graded within two weeks of submission. Deviations from this will be announced in Canvas. All grades will be posted in Canvas. Feedback on writing assignments will be provided in Canvas, either within the Canvas grading system or as an attached Microsoft Word document*. Students are encouraged to track their progress in the course through the Canvas gradebook.

- Grading of written assignments: I will provide detailed feedback on the first few paragraphs/first page of any written assignment; I will not mark all writing issues.

What do I have to do to pass this course?

Assignments (0-25 points; 275 points total)

- There will be 11 assignments over the course of the semester. Some of these assignments will be in the form of discussion boards; others will be brief individual written assignments. The assignment topics are provided in the course calendar and assignment details will be provided in Canvas. The grades for these assignments are participation grades--complete participation earns full points.
- See calendar for due dates.

Writing Journal (0-25 points; 100 points total)

As part of this course, each student will write an essay on a social problem (see the next section). As this is a course designed to provide students with helpful tools/strategies for being successful in their courses, the writing journal will break down the writing process into manageable and meaningful parts, culminating in the final essay.

The writing journal will be divided into four parts:

1. Possible topics
2. Final topic
3. Primary resources
4. Outline

Full credit will be given to fully completed journal entries. Due dates are included in the course calendar. For feedback on journal entries, you must meet the due dates. Feedback will help you in your final essay, so students are encouraged to meet these deadlines.

Social Issue Essay (0-125 points; draft 25 points, essay 100 points)

Each student will prepare an essay on a social problem of their choice. The topic must be approved by the instructor – assignments based on an unapproved topic will not be graded. See the syllabus for the due date for topic submission.

ESSAYS SHOULD ADDRESS THE FOLLOWING:

- Information about the social problem (who, what where, why, how)
- Challenges to combating the problem (expected or known; e.g., costs, problems with adoption by general public)
- Benefits to solving the social problem (who benefits and how)

*A draft will be required and will be worth 25 points of the final course grade.

Social Issue Presentation (0-50 points)

Each student will present to the class about their social problem research. This presentation should be 5-10 minutes long to include PowerPoint. Details about the presentation will be discussed later in the semester.

Course Reaction Essay (0-50 points)

- Students will be responsible for completing a course reaction essay by the end of the semester. For this exercise, the student should think critically about the content presented in the course as a whole.
- Details for this assignment will be provided in Canvas.
- See course calendar for due dates.

ETS Assessment (0 or 25 points)

- Students will complete the ETS Assessment in Criminal Justice. The ETS is a testing program intended to evaluate criminal justice students nationwide. The criminal justice and sociology departments at TAMUCT use the ETS as a program assessment tool, to better understand student learning, and develop program improvement plans.
- Students will not be graded on how well they do on the assessment; however, given the importance of the assessment for the criminal justice program, students are encouraged to do their best work. Upon taking the ETS assessment, you will receive 25 points towards the final course grade.

How do I submit assignments?

- All assignments must be submitted through Canvas. Assignments that are emailed or submitted in person will not be accepted.
- All assignments must be in Microsoft Word format - make sure when you save a final draft of any assignment that it is either a .doc or .docx document. If you do not know how to do this, I suggest visiting the computer lab.
- Discussion/journal responses should be typed in the discussion board text box. Do not attach a document to discussion boards. Best practice would be to write everything in a Word document first, then copy and paste into the discussion box; save this work.

What about extra credit?

- There is no extra credit built into the course. Any extra credit opportunities will be posted in Canvas. Generally, these will involve attending a presentation or lecture and writing a brief essay about the topic.

- Extra credit opportunities are not guaranteed; do not expect them and do not ask for them.

Do you accept late assignments?

- Late assignments will be accepted up to one week after the due date. For each day the assignment is late, 10% of the total grade will be deducted from the assignment before it is graded. For example, if the assignment is worth 100 points and you turn it in two days late, you will start off with a grade of 80 before the assignment is graded.
- Exceptions to the late policy would be any work due the last week of classes. No assignments will be accepted past the last day of classes. Please plan accordingly.
- Assignments turned in later than a week will not be graded

How do I figure out my grade?

Final course grades will be assessed on the following scale:

Assignment	Points	My Grade
Writing journals	100 (4x25)
Assignments	275 (11x25)
Rough draft	25
Social issue essay	100
Social issue presentation	50
Course reaction essay	50
Total	600

University Writing Center

Located in Warrior Hall 416, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (TAMUCT) is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday thru Thursday with satellite hours in the University Library Monday thru Thursday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. This semester, the UWC is also offering online only hours from 12:00-3:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available) or by making an appointment via WOnline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC and/or need any assistance with scheduling.
