INSTRUCTOR AND CONTACT INFORMATION

Instructor: James J. Bondi

Office: TAMU-CT

Phone: 254-291-0646

Email: james.bondi@tamuct.edu.

Office Hours:

I am available either before or after class.

Student-instructor interaction:

I will routinely check and reply to student emails. Routinely I will be sending out a class email to all students responding to any questions or concerns that the student(s) might have with interpreting class material, scheduling and attendance conflicts, and homework assignments. In the first week of class, I will have each student fill out and complete a questionnaire identifying the best contact information for email and phone number. My intent is to be as transparent and available to students as my work schedule will permit me.

WARRIOR SHIELDEmergency Warning System for Texas A&M University-Central Texas

Warrior Shield is an emergency notification service that gives Texas A&M University-Central Texas the ability to communicate health and safety emergency information quickly via email, text message, and social media. All students are automatically enrolled in Warrior Shield through their myCT email account.

Connect to Warrior Shield by 911Cellular [https://portal.publicsafetycloud.net/Account/Login] to change where you receive your alerts or to opt out. By staying enrolled in Warrior Shield, university officials can quickly pass on safety-related information, regardless of your location.

COURSE INFORMATIONCourse Overview and description:

This course is a non-typical course that explores interpersonal relationships at work through a variety of experiential learning exercises. It is intended to develop understanding and skills that will enable the student in a work environment and develop productive and professional working relationships. The focus of this course centers on “The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People” by Stephen R. Covey.

Course Objective:

The overarching objective of this course is for each student to learn how to assess, develop, carry out, and evaluate strategies that develop productive work relationships. To get to this objective, we will review theories of work and human relationships. We will make extensive use of experiential learning exercises. There will be lots of student interaction and some student presentations to include the development of a Personal Mission Statement. This course explores theories of human personality and how various personality types interact with each other. Strategies for working with different personality types are developed and explored. Interpersonal behavioral issues like trust, fear, difficult people, making work fun, goal setting, motivations, teamwork, team functioning and other relevant issues are explored. Strategies for working with others around these issues are also developed. Throughout the course experiential exercises and activities are used to show students how to work with others to achieve goals, objectives and to learn.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course the student will have an understanding of concepts, principles, and practices of work relationships that result in productive organizations and solid interpersonal relationships. Core competencies achieved at the conclusion of this semester include:

- Ability to identify various types of personalities and their characteristics.

- Clear understanding of characteristics of productive and effective teams.
- Ability to identify the concept of trust between co-workers.
- Ability to understand the impact of fear in the workplace.
- Use of fun to enhance effective working together.
- Ability to identify procedures and techniques for dealing with difficult people and difficult situations.
- Students are expected to participate in course activities as listed in this syllabus.
- Each student is responsible for his / her own learning outcomes.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Course Requirements: (include point values for each not just a percentage)

Class Presentations (6): 10 points each (total 60 points): Students will be assigned to teams and conduct an assessment of a given situation. Upon completion, each team will provide an oral presentation of their assessment focusing on the key principles as addressed in the assigned chapter. Students should be knowledgeable of the key interpersonal relationships at work using a variety of work environments. A well thought out and complete response to each case question applies concepts from the text woven in with case data to fully support the analysis. This assignment will be more defined in class with a separate handout of instructions with grading rubrics.

Personal Mission Statement (1), 20 points each (total 20 points): Students will be assigned to write their personal mission statement focused primarily on the following:

- 1- Students focus on their core ethos – what is your center of values?
- 2- Students focus on what is important to you?
- 3- Students focus on who is important to you?

Once completed, each student will present their personal mission statement.

Exams (2), 60 points each (total 120 points): There will be two (2) required exams. Each exam will cover designated chapters and test student’s knowledge of the key frameworks and concepts. Emphasis will be on content, practical application, and writing skills. Handout assignment with grading rubrics will be given in class.

Final Presentation (1), 20 points each (total 20 points): Students will be assigned a final presentation that focuses on one of the required textbooks key principles. An oral presentation of their assessment will be presented at the final class. This assignment will be more defined in class with a separate handout of instructions with grading rubrics.

UNIVERSITY RESOURCES, PROCEDURES, AND GUIDELINES

Drop Policy.

If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete a Drop Request Form [https://www.tamuct.edu/registrar/docs/Drop_Request_Form.pdf].

Professors cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Registrar's Office will provide a deadline on the Academic Calendar for which the form must be completed, signed and returned. Once you return the signed form to the Registrar's Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Registrar's Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.

Academic Integrity.

Texas A&M University -Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Academic integrity is defined as a commitment to honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. Academic misconduct is any act that improperly affects a true and honest evaluation of a student's academic performance and includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism and improper citation of sources, using another student's work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. All academic misconduct concerns will be reported to the university's Office of Student Conduct. Ignorance of the university's standards and expectations is never an excuse to act with a lack of integrity. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.

Academic Accommodations.

At Texas A&M University-Central Texas, we value an inclusive learning environment where every student has an equal chance to succeed and has the right to a barrier free education. The Department of Access and Inclusion is responsible for ensuring that students with a disability receive equal access to the University's programs, services and activities. If you believe you have a disability requiring reasonable accommodations, please contact the Department of Access and Inclusion at (254) 501-5831. Any information you provide is private and confidential and will be treated as such.

For more information please visit our Access & Inclusion webpage

[<https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/access-inclusion.html>].

Important Information for Pregnant and/or Parenting Students.

Texas A&M University-Central Texas supports students who are pregnant and/or parenting. In accordance with requirements of Title IX and related guidance from US Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights, the Dean of Student Affairs' Office can assist students who are pregnant and/or parenting in seeking accommodations related to pregnancy and/or parenting. Students should seek out assistance as early in the pregnancy as possible. For more information, please visit Student Affairs (<https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/index.html>). Students may also contact the institution's Title IX Coordinator. If you would like to read more about these requirements and guidelines online, please visit the website [<http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/pregnancy.pdf>].

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex and gender – including pregnancy, parenting, and all related conditions. A&M-Central Texas is able to provide flexible and individualized reasonable accommodation to pregnant and parenting students. All pregnant and parenting students should contact the Associate Dean in the Division of Student Affairs at (254) 501-5909 to seek out assistance. Students may also contact the University's Title IX Coordinator.

Tutoring.

Tutoring is available to all A&M-Central Texas students, both on-campus and online. Subjects tutored on campus include Accounting, Advanced Math, Biology, Finance, Statistics, Mathematics, and Study Skills. Tutors are available at the Tutoring Center in Warrior Hall, Suite 111. Tutor.com tutoring will not offer writing support beginning August 1, 2019, but will continue to offer other tutoring support.

If you have a question regarding tutor schedules, need to schedule a tutoring session, are interested in becoming a tutor, or have any other question, contact Academic Support Programs at (254) 519-5796, or by emailing Dr. DeEadra Albert-Green at deeadra.albertgreen@tamuct.edu.

Chat live with a tutor 24/7 for almost any subject on your computer! Tutor.com is an online tutoring platform that enables A&M-Central Texas students to log-in and receive online tutoring support at no additional cost. This tool provides tutoring in over forty subject areas. Access Tutor.com through Canvas.

The University Writing Center.

Located in 416 Warrior Hall, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University-Central Texas is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students from 10am-5pm Monday-Thursday with satellite hours in the University Library on Mondays from 6:00-9:00pm. Students may arrange a one-on-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available) or by making an appointment via WCOOnline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu to schedule an online tutoring session. Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process.

While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the University Writing Center is here to help!

If you have any questions about the University Writing Center, please do not hesitate to contact Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu.

University Library.

The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 250,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 85,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available 24 hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place on Skype or in-person at the library. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events. For more information, please visit our Library website [http://tamuct.libguides.com/index].

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS:A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, who are exhibiting behaviors that pose a threat to safety, or individuals causing a significant disruption to our community, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/bat.html]. If a person's behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5800.
