Course Overview and Description. This course focuses on restricted periods in American literary history with an emphasis on a thematic or genre development during the period. This semester, we will explore the theme of nature and the environment as it is represented in a variety of literary texts throughout the long nineteenth century (circa 1790-1905). Students may repeat this course for credit when the topic varies.

Expected Learning Outcomes/Course Objectives. Students will examine the representation of nature and the environment in a variety of literary texts from the nineteenth century, tracing its development from early gothic novels and travel writing to poetry and short stories. As part of our exploration, we will engage with scholarly voices in the field of American studies to challenge our perceptions of the natural world and its relationship to race, class, and gender, among other vectors. By the end of the semester, students who have successfully completed the assignments should be able to:

1. Analyze and interpret texts by employing close reading skills with an eye towards themes in nature, environmental issues, nonhuman subjects, and the relationship of the human toward the larger ecosystem. In short, apply an ecocritical lens toward the authors and texts from this semester.
2. Engage in a conversation with scholarly texts from the field of American studies by responding to the ideas presented therein with one’s own critical perspective using the literary text as a foundation for response.
3. Express their ideas and readings of a text in clear, logical, organized, concise, and persuasive ways, in both written and oral forms.
4. Perform independent research, using the MLA bibliography and other methods.
5. Use scholarly sources in an effective manner.

Means of Achieving Course Goals. Students will achieve the above course goals by:

1. Watching brief online lectures and participating in online discussions using the Discussions application in Canvas as a form of small group conversation.
2. Submitting writing projects to assess knowledge and mastery of the material including: three exploratory papers that engage with a literary text and a scholarly text each time and one seminar research paper that develops from the revision of an exploratory paper.

The goal of these assessments is to gain skills in close reading and textual analysis; to explore, examine, and engage with a specific theme significant to this historical period across a variety of literary genres; and to understand writing and meaning-making of literature as a process by which knowledge is gained through trial-and-error.

Disclaimer: Due to its subject matter, some of the following material will contain mature content—some of which may contain sexual references or innuendos.

Required Texts.
Charles Brockden Brown, Edgar Huntley (1798).

Additional Texts. Other course materials for this class can be found on Canvas. These include:
- John James Audubon, Excerpts from Ornithological Biography.
- Emily Dickinson, Excerpts from The Poems of Emily Dickinson.

Course Reading Schedule. Assignments and readings are due on the day they are listed. As the instructor for this course, I reserve the right to adjust this schedule in any way that serves the educational needs of the students enrolled in this course. Note: ALL assignment deadlines are by 11:59 PM on that due date unless otherwise stated. – Dr. Tavera

Participation Policy and Attendance. Your active, informed participation is crucial to the success of the course and your individual success in this class. Discussion Board posts will serve as your attendance and participation grade for this course. There will be no other form of attendance or participation calculated as part of your overall grade for this course beyond the twelve Discussion Board posts. As such, carefully prepare for and contribute to “class” via Discussion Board posts by reading in a rigorous, inquisitive manner and responding to your classmates thoughtfully and in a considerate manner. I will penalize students who engage in disrespectful discourse with myself or their peers.

Grade Distribution. Final grades for this course are A, B, C, D, and F. Final grades will be calculated as follows: A=90-100%, B=80-89%, C=70-79%, D=60-69%, F=59%-and below. Your final grade for this course will consist of the following:

- Exploratory papers (three; 15% each) 45%
- Discussion Board Conversations (12 total) 25%
- Final Research Paper 30%

INSTRUCTOR POLICIES

Posting of Grades. All grades for both major and minor assignments will be posted in the Gradebook on Canvas. During the summer, I generally grade major writing assignments within one week of submission date. Please do not contact me asking about your grade for an assignment until this personal grading deadline has expired.

Discussion Board Posts. The prompt for each of twelve discussion board posts is provided in detail in Canvas. Please answer the prompt as fully and completely as possible to earn full credit for the assignment. The content of all posts should be related to the week’s reading and should seek to use correct grammar, sentence structure, and mechanics. Although they are more informal, even minor assignments like discussion board posts are writing assignments and should be treated as such. Please allow a 24- to 48 hour-response time after the deadline has passed for the grading of discussion board posts.

Incompletes. Students who are struggling to complete the course due to extenuating circumstances may qualify for a grade of incomplete. However, per departmental policy, a grade of incomplete may only be awarded (1) if the course drop date has already passed and (2) the student can provide documented evidence of extenuating circumstances such as an unplanned and unexpected medical condition or health emergency, etc. Please be advised that students awarded an incomplete must submit all unfinished work prior to the end of the next long semester in order to receive a grade for the course.
Plagiarism and Paper Reuse Policy. Please note that plagiarism is a serious offense and will be punished to the full extent. In my course, you are not allowed, under any circumstances, to reuse papers from prior classes in this course or any other course that you have taken at any institution. Reusing papers does not demonstrate any advance in knowledge or skill, and so would not be helpful for you either in terms of your learning this semester, or for me in terms of assessing this learning. If you feel your situation constitutes a clear or significant exception to this rule, you must discuss this with me prior to the due date. Otherwise, paper reuse will be reported as a collusion offense and will also be punished to the full extent per university policy. Similarly, students who plagiarize on an assignment will receive a zero for the assignment for the first offense and be reported to the Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) for remedial instruction on avoiding plagiarism. A second plagiarism offense may result in failure of the course.

Turning in Assignments to Canvas. All major writing projects will be submitted to Canvas. I will not accept any assignments via e-mail or paper unless accommodation arrangements were made in conversation with me prior to the assignment deadline. All assignments submitted to Canvas must be saved as a .doc, .docx, or .pdf file to ensure that I am able to open them on my computer (please no Google docs). It is your responsibility to ensure that all of your work is saved in this way and submitted in the correct format. If you submit work in the wrong format, then you may receive a zero for the assignment.

Late Submissions. Students who contact me in advance for an extension and provide legitimate rationale detailing extenuating circumstances may be granted an extension within a reasonable and negotiated deadline. Do not make the assumption that I will grant you an extension—contact me first! For those who do not contact me in advance, and simply fail to submit or submit late: I will accept late submissions for major writing projects only (e.g. NOT homework, classwork, or discussion board posts) with a deduction of 10 points for each day that the submission is late.

Student-Instructor Interaction. The best way to contact me is via email, as I check it regularly both on- and off-campus. Do allow for a 24- to 48-hour turn-around time for emails as I do not sit at my email all day, rather I check it during specific times once or twice per day. If your situation is an emergency, I advise contacting the Chair of the Humanities Department, Dr. Allen Redmon: allen.redmon@tamuct.edu or (254) 519-5750.

Communication Etiquette. Students should use a professional and respectful tone with fellow learners and myself (the instructor) in all forms of communication including, but not limited to, Discussion Board posts and responses, and emails. I reserve the right to censor (via deletion and warning to the student) any post or response that is not appropriate for the assignment or on task. Additionally, I expect the use of Standard English rather than popular online abbreviations and regional colloquialisms in all forms of written communication. In emails, please use a salutation (i.e. “Dear Dr. Tavera” or “Hi Dr. Tavera”) at the opening of your email and a signature (i.e. “Best” or “Sincerely”) at the close of your email.

Technology Requirements. This course will use the A&M-Central Texas Instructure Canvas learning management system (aka Canvas). UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES AND GUIDELINES

Drop Policy. If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete a Drop Request Form: [https://www.tamuct.edu/registrar/docs/Drop_Request_Form.pdf].

Professors cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Registrar’s Office will provide a deadline on the Academic Calendar for which the form must be completed, signed and returned. Once you return the signed form to the Registrar’s Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Registrar’s Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits. Please note: Oftentimes, students feel the need to drop a course because they are overwhelmed by personal or professional responsibilities. As your instructor, I humbly request that you make an appointment or drop by during office hours to speak with me about your concerns before dropping my course.

Academic Integrity. Texas A&M University-Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Academic integrity is defined as a commitment to honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. Academic misconduct is any act that improperly affects a true and honest evaluation of a student’s academic performance and includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism and improper citation of sources, using another student’s work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. All academic misconduct concerns will be reported to the university’s Office of Student Conduct. Ignorance of the university’s standards and expectations is never an excuse to act with a lack of integrity. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.

For more information regarding the Student Conduct process, [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct.html]. If you know of potential honor violations by other students, you may submit a report, [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=0].

Academic Accommodations. At Texas A&M University-Central Texas, we value an inclusive learning environment where every student has an equal chance to succeed and has the right to a barrier-free education. The Office of Access and Inclusion is responsible for ensuring that students with a disability receive equal access to the university’s programs, services and activities. If you believe

In accordance with requirements of Title IX and related guidance from US Department of Education’s Office of Civil Rights, the Dean of Student Affairs’ Office can assist students who are pregnant and/or parenting in seeking accommodations related to pregnancy and/or parenting. Students should seek out assistance as early in the pregnancy as possible. For more information, please visit Student Affairs [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/index.html]. Students may also contact the institution’s Title IX Coordinator. If you would like to read more about these requirements and guidelines online, please visit the website [http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/pregnancy.pdf].

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex and gender—including pregnancy, parenting, and all related conditions. A&M-Central Texas is able to provide flexible and individualized reasonable accommodation to pregnant and parenting students. All pregnant and parenting students should contact the Associate Dean in the Division of Student Affairs at (254) 501-5909 to seek out assistance. A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas. Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don’t agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don’t be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

Campus Carry. Effective August 1, 2016, the Campus Carry law (Senate Bill 11) allows those licensed individuals to carry a concealed handgun in buildings on public university campuses, except in locations the University establishes as prohibited. Under the new law, openly carrying handguns is not allowed on college campuses. For more information, visit [https://www.tamuct.edu/police/campus-carry.html]. Per university policy, concealed handguns should not be visible during class and are prohibited in the A&M-Central Texas Counseling Center, including the co-located Community Counseling and Family Therapy Center.

Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place on Skype or in-person at the library. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events.
