ENGL 3372-115 Sociolinguistics
Texas A&M University – Central Texas

Summer 2020: 8-Week Session Mode of Instruction: 100% Online
Instructor: Dr. Amber Dunai Meeting Times: N/A
Email: Canvas Course Email Office Hours: WebEx meetings are available
Alternative Email: adunai@tamuct.edu by appointment.

Important: Pacing of 8-Week Courses
If you have taken an 8-week course at TAMU-CT before, you know that the workload is the same as that of a 16-week course, but is completed twice as fast. For this reason, I recommend that you think of each 8-week class in which you are enrolled as the equivalent of two classes, since you will be completing two weeks’ worth of work (including reading and writing) each week.

Course Description
Study of the relationship of language and society as shown in the following areas: language change, language variation and social class, pidgin and Creole languages, and language policy and planning.

Course Objectives/Learning Outcomes
By the end of this course, you should be able to:

- Identify language ideologies and the means through which they are reproduced and reinforced publicly, and describe their influence on language policy and planning.
- Describe the phonological, morphological, syntactic, and lexical features of language varieties and discuss the role of language varieties in the construction of a speaker’s social identity.
- Explain how the relationship between language and society is connected to language contact and change (including the emergence of pidgin and creole languages).
- Support arguments about sociolinguistics topics through consultation and analysis of relevant primary and secondary sources as well as application of discipline-appropriate theory and methods.
- Produce an analytical essay on a sociolinguistic topic of your choosing.
Required Textbooks

Additional readings will be made available on Canvas or the library’s e-reserves.

Course Reading Schedule
Readings (including the relevant “mini-lectures” posted to Canvas) must be completed by Friday of the week during which they are assigned, when all assignments related to the week’s reading are also due (by 11:59 PM). However, it is important that you set additional deadlines for yourself based on your own unique schedule and the amount of time you will require to successfully complete the week’s written assignments. I am available, over email or WebEx, to discuss strategies and scheduling which will help you to be successful in the class. Weekly content will be released in units of two weeks each, and each unit will be made available by the Friday before the unit officially begins to allow ample time for planning. Note that major assignment deadlines have been included in the schedule for your convenience.

Major Assignment Due Dates
All assignments are due by 11:59 PM of the date listed.
Exam 1: Friday, June 26
Analytical Essay: Friday, July 10
Exam 2: Friday, July 24

Short Written Reflections
You will complete a total of eight short written reflections at least 400 words in length each over the course of the semester. Short Written Reflections are due at 11:59 PM on the Friday of each week they are assigned. You will receive a rubric with more information regarding how Short Written Reflections will be scored during Week 1. The Plagiarism Quiz administered during Week 1 will also count toward the Short Written Reflections average, as will the required Introductions discussion post also due at the end of Week 1. This brings the total number of Short Written Reflections scores to ten.

Exams
The two exams will be due during Weeks 4 and 8. The exams will consist of several prompts; these prompts will be designed to test your comprehension of and ability to apply ideas and methods introduced in class and assigned readings. Questions will be in short answer and short essay format. These exams will be open book and open note, but are not to be completed in collaboration with others.

Exam 1 will cover readings and topics from Units 1 & 2.
Exam 2 will cover readings and topics from Units 3 & 4.

Analytical Essay
A prompt and rubric for the essay will be distributed at the start of the semester. The essay will be 4-6 pages long and will involve making an argument backed by research and analysis which is related to a sociolinguistic topic of your choice. The essay will be checked for originality by a plagiarism-detecting service when it is uploaded to the assignment link provided in the course Canvas page.

Instructor Availability
You are welcome to contact me with questions or comments via email (but please send emails to me via the Canvas messaging system, unless the site is down). I endeavor to answer all emails within 24 hours of receiving them, not counting weekends and holidays. Office hour meetings are available by appointment and will be held via the WebEx service in Canvas. You may request an appointment by email. I do ask that any appointment request be made at least 24 hours in advance of the desired meeting time to guarantee that I have time to review and respond to them. Do not assume that the meeting will take place unless I have responded to your request and confirmed the time. For instructions on how to join a WebEx appointment meeting, see the “How to Schedule and Join WebEx Appointments” page in Canvas (linked in the “Orientation: Start Here” and “Handouts and Resources” sections).

Draft Review Policy
Students often ask me whether I’ll look at drafts of major assignments and give advice on how to improve them. The answer is yes; however, students who wish for me to review an entire draft must schedule a WebEx appointment in order to discuss the paper. I will not review drafts that are emailed to me with no explanation; over email, I will only address specific questions that can be answered in a brief email response.

Online Course Etiquette
Students are to maintain a high level of collegiality and respect when interacting with one another and the instructor, whether over email, during a WebEx meeting, or on the discussion board. The same expectations for professional and respectful behavior apply online as in the face-to-face classroom. Disagreements are a normal and often productive aspect of academic discourse, and differences in viewpoint relevant to course content may be expressed and explored during discussion activities. However, participants engaged in discussion must remain respectful to all parties involved and focused on topics relevant to the activity at hand.

Late Submission Policy
I do not accept late/make-up work for assignments unless the student has missed the deadline due to an excused reason (for example, an illness or emergency situation experienced by the student or a member of his or her immediate family). Whenever possible, students should notify me before the assignment deadline if they believe they cannot meet it and let me know why. At that time, I will determine whether an extension is appropriate (based upon the student’s reason for missing the deadline) and, if it is, set a new deadline.

After a new deadline for the assignment is established, you must abide by this deadline or else receive a zero on the assignment. In all situations involving missed and/or extended deadlines, it is the student’s responsibility to contact the instructor if any issues arise. If I do not hear from you and do not have your submission after a deadline passes, I will assume that you do not intend to turn in the assignment and will put a zero in the gradebook. Additionally, extensions must be requested in a timely manner. If a student has not requested an extension within two calendar days (48 hours) of the deadline, the grade will remain zero unless the student can provide a reasonable explanation regarding why it was not possible to contact me sooner.

Attendance Policy
Because this is an asynchronous 100% online class, there is no set meeting time. However, students are encouraged to log in to the site daily (excluding weekends and holidays) in order to view materials, check email, and complete assignments in a timely manner.

Program Assessment Statement
To ensure the learning outcomes are met in the English Department, there is a program-wide artifact collection process. To that end, some of the projects you complete for ENGL 3372 this semester may be used for programmatic assessment. Please note that all efforts will be made to keep your identity anonymous; as such, all identifying markers will be removed from your work if used for programmatic assessment. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Dr. Dunai.

Drop Policy
If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete the Drop Request Dynamic Form through Warrior Web.

[https://dynamicforms.ngwebsolutions.com/casAuthentication.ashx?InstID=eaed95b9-f2be-45f3-a37d-46928168bc10&targetUrl=https%3A%2F%2Fdynamicforms.ngwebsolutions.com%2FSubmit%2FForm%2FStart%2F53b8369e-0502-4f36-be43-f02a4202f612].

Faculty cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Registrar’s Office will provide a deadline on the Academic Calendar for which the form must be completed. Once you submit the completed form to the Registrar’s Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Registrar’s Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.

Incompletes

Incompletes are only assigned due to unexpected emergency situations which occur after the final drop date (for example, an emergency medical situation experienced by the student). If you simply find yourself overwhelmed by the semester’s demands, you do not qualify for an incomplete. If you experience an emergency which you believe will prevent you from completing the semester’s work before the final drop date, you are expected to drop. If you experience an unexpected emergency situation after the final drop date which you believe will prevent you from completing the semester’s work, please contact me as soon as possible so that we can discuss whether you qualify for an incomplete.

Technology Statement

Technology Requirements:

Academic Integrity

Texas A&M University-Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Academic integrity is defined as a commitment to honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. Academic misconduct is any act that improperly affects a true and honest evaluation of a student’s academic performance and includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism and improper citation of sources, using another student’s work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. All academic misconduct concerns will be reported to the university’s Office of Student Conduct. Ignorance of the university’s standards and expectations is never an excuse to act with a lack of integrity. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.
For more information regarding the Student Conduct process, [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct.html].
If you know of potential honor violations by other students, you may submit a report, [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=0].

Instructor’s Note on Plagiarism and Academic Integrity:
Plagiarism is the act of presenting another person’s work as if it were your own or failing to acknowledge your sources. This might be done by quoting a source without indicating that you are quoting (if you neglect to include quotation marks and/or a citation); paraphrasing or summarizing without acknowledging your source; and/or taking part or all of another text and presenting it as your own. Self-plagiarism (also known as “recycling” an assignment) means submitting part or all of an assignment that you previously submitted for credit in a course; this is also not permitted. You are responsible for understanding how to use sources correctly and ethically. You are also responsible for understanding how to cite a source which you have quoted, paraphrased, or summarized. This course uses the 8th edition of MLA for formatting and citations. You can access the guidelines online at the Purdue Online Writing Lab (OWL) website: [https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research_and_citation/mla_style/mla_formatting_and_style_guide/mla_formatting_and_style_guide.html].

If you have questions about using and citing sources, please ask. I am always happy to explain how to cite sources correctly and to provide any clarification needed regarding questions of academic integrity. Be aware that any assignment that fails to attribute sources properly, was written in part or in whole by someone other than the student who submitted it, and/or was previously submitted for credit to another course will receive a grade of zero and will be reported to the Office of Student Conduct. Likewise, any other violations of academic integrity (such as collaborating on an assignment when the instructions are to work individually) will result in a grade of zero on the assignment in question and a report to the Office of Student Conduct. All major writing assignments will be checked for originality through a plagiarism-detecting service when they are uploaded to the assignment link.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students’ ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students’ texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by making an appointment via WCONline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC and/or need any assistance with scheduling.
