COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Grading Policy

The final average will be calculated based on the number of points received out of a total of 1000. The following point ranges correspond to the final grade for the course: 900 and above = A; 800-899 = B; 700-799 = C; 600-699 = D; below 600 = F. (On the percentage scale: A = 90-100%; B = 80-89%; C = 70-79%; D = 60-69%; F = 0-59%.) The number of points will not be rounded up or down at the end of the semester.

Posting of Grades

Students may find their most current grades on Canvas. Since assignments have a written portion, it will take your professor some time to grade them after students submit them. So be patient. Once an assignment has been graded, the grade will appear in the gradebook on Canvas. Generally, written items will be graded within one week. Your professor usually waits until after the due date to grade all assignments in one batch, so if you turn in your assignments early, be patient.

The instructor will not drop students who are otherwise in good standing but still academically failing the course. It is the personal responsibility of such students to work with their advisor/counselor to remove themselves from the course. Students will not indiscriminately receive incompletes in this course. Students caught cheating, copying, or plagiarizing in any way will automatically receive a failing grade of “F” for the course. Further sanctions may be pursued.

Graded Assignments

Students will be graded and earn points for:

REACTION PAPERS: These are worth 400 points or 40% of the class grade ($8 \times 50 = 400$). Further guidelines for these reaction papers are posted in Canvas. The purpose of a reaction paper is to prove that you have read, understood, and thought about the reading material, the written paper is your reaction to the readings. Talk about the assigned readings for that day, any positions or stories in the readings, facts you never knew, things you think might be incorrect, etc. The reaction is up to you. These must be completed and submitted on the date it is due (see Course Calendar below). After that date it will lose 10% of its value for each calendar day it is not turned in.

EXAMS: These are worth 600 points or 60% of the class grade ($3 \times 200 = 600$). There will be three exams given in this class (a Mid-Term Exam, a Final Exam, and a Test on Slave and Citizen), each worth 200 points for a total of 600 points. Exams will cover the lecture material, assigned readings, class videos, et cetera and are designed to test both general historical knowledge and assess critical thinking and writing skills. Exams will consist of essays that will be completed and submitted on Canvas. More information can be found on Canvas.

A Note about Sexual Violence at Texas A&M University–Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage \(https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html\).

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University–Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online (https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2).

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information (<https://www.tamuct.edu/bit>). If a person's behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or Texas A&M University–Central Texas Police at 254-501-5800.

INSTRUCTOR POLICIES

Make-Up and Late Policy

As a general rule, make-ups or leniency will not be given. The only exceptions are for official Texas A&M University–Central Texas excused absences (such as athletic or scholastic obligations, etc.), military service, illness when accompanied by a note from a doctor, or other forms of documented personal or family emergencies. Assignment due dates are given ahead of time, so please plan accordingly for child-care, vacations, work, etc. Arrangements for legitimate make-ups will be made on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of the instructor. Online assignments will generally not be subject to make-up, because they are offered online, and you will have a significant window of time in which to complete them (so do not wait until the last minute to do them). Other assignments may be turned in late with a penalty as indicated in their instructions.

Nothing can be accepted after the last day of the semester.

Academic Integrity and Scholastic Dishonesty

As noted above, Texas A&M University–Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct.

Scholastic dishonesty includes but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts.

It is this professor’s personal policy that if the instructor determines that a student has been caught cheating, copying, or plagiarizing in any way, at any point in the course, the student will automatically receive a failing grade of F for the entire course, without exception. Further sanctions may also be pursued.

Remember, it is better to earn a poor grade (or even a zero) on an assignment than fail an entire course.

Classroom Decorum and Other Policies

Students are expected to behave as adults, be ready to listen and learn, and treat their professor and fellow students with the respect they would desire. This includes refraining from things such as: talking while others are talking; doing work for other courses in the classroom; leaving before class is over; playing with your cell phone, text messaging, messing around on the internet, etc.; and whining of any sort. Please understand that, at times, we will be reviewing and discussing historical events that some students may find disturbing and unsettling. College-level courses may include controversial, sensitive, and/or adult material. Students are expected to have the readiness for college-level rigor and content.

Online Classroom Policy

In an online classroom environment using software platforms such as Canvas, Zoom, Teams, etc., students are expected to respect the privacy of the professor and fellow students. No screenshots, images, audio or video recordings should be taken or disseminated publicly in any way. Virtual class meetings and materials are intended for Texas A&M University–Central Texas virtual classroom education and is reserved for those faculty and students enrolled in this specific course. Online classroom technology may only be used for personal, private, research and study purposes only, and must not be disseminated publicly in any way. Students who abuse online technology and/or the privacy of the professor and students do so at their own risk and assume all liability. Offenses will be treated as disruptive behavior and further sanctions may be pursued.

Electronic Device Policy

You may record class lectures (audio only), but recordings may only be used for personal, private, research and study purposes only, and must not be disseminated publicly in any way. (A “Recorded Lecture Agreement” might also be required.) Computers, tablets, etc., may only be used for taking notes or accessing course materials in class. If used for any non-academic purpose, especially if it disrupts class, the instructor will ask you not to use a computer for the remainder of the semester. Cell phone and smartwatch use, for any non-academic purpose, is strictly prohibited. Headphones, earbuds, etc., may not be used or worn during class. Abuse of electronic devices in class, including cell phones, may be treated as disruptive behavior or an absence
