Canvas Discussions: Select Discussions from the menu found on the left side of the Canvas class home page or within each module. All discussions and questions will be placed in their respective topics for ease of understanding by all class members and the instructor. All entries are threaded so that you may easily see a question and the respective responses to that question. All class members are invited to fully participate in the discussions, assisting their class members when they are able. This means class members may answer questions if they know the answers. Please note discussions are required as part of your grade and are highly encouraged for better understanding and clarification of the theory. The instructor will always read each question and the respective answers to ensure correctness and accuracy. If the instructor is unable to effectively answer the question in the threaded discussions groups, the instructor may provide a recorded answer.

Individual Participation: To ensure successful course completion, participation is expected. Participation is defined as your substantive responses, as defined in each assignment, to both your submission and to other class members’ submissions in the discussion threads in the Canvas classroom.

Access to ConnectPlus: Click the first Connect assignment in your Canvas course. You'll be prompted to either login with an existing Connect account username and password, or to create a new account. Assessments

Assignments: All assignments will be completed according to the course schedule and are due by midnight on the due date. Late assignments will be reduced 20% for each day they are late. Assignments will include LearnSmart activities, in Connect, for each assigned chapter (Chs 1 – 16), Discussion questions (including responses to other students), and a series of organization analyses. See Appendix A for the listing of organization analyses. Your goal should be to complete each assignment, with a minimum of 80% mastery.

Writing/Communication Standards: Professional level writing and communication are critical skills in the business world. This standard should be displayed in all assignments for this class. All communications, both to the instructor and student colleagues should be kept professional, including discussion board postings and email correspondence. For written assignments, all work should be proofread, free of grammatical errors, include proper citations and references in accordance with American Psychological Association (APA) standards (most current edition).

NOTE: Regardless of the device you are using to complete this course (phone, tablet, computer, etc.), your writing must be grammatically correct, with few to no errors, complete sentences, and, under no circumstances reflect a “text message” style of shortened writing.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is the intentional or unintentional claiming of the statements or ideas by others, as their own (APA, 2010, p. 15; Owl Purdue Online Writing Lab, 2018, para 1). For Owl see: Plagiarism at <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/589/01/>. Both of these sources (APA and Owl) show you how to avoid plagiarism. Plagiarism is considered a grievous offence in academia and is not tolerated in the Management and Marketing Department, and will not be tolerated in this course. Plagiarism is an ethical decision someone makes and as undergraduate students, you must decide to learn how to avoid plagiarism and make avoiding plagiarism your standard in writing throughout your academic career and beyond.

If any student is caught plagiarizing within any assignment in this course, that student will receive a zero for that assignment. If any student is caught continuously plagiarizing assignments in this course, I have the option of failing that student. Additionally, that student will be reported (with his or her first offense) to Student Affairs for possible university level disciplinary action.

LearnSmart Activities (SLO 1.0: 160 total points, 16 at 10 points each: Chs 1 – 16): Each week you will be responsible for completing a required Learn Smart activity with ConnectPlus that helps measure and improve your understanding of key concepts. The end score is what you make it in terms of effort. You can continue to work at each activity until you earn the full points available. These always must be completed by the due date.

LearnSmart Quizzes (4 at 75 points each): You will have four quizzes over the book and supplemental resources provided by LearnSmart. The quizzes will be composed of 25 multiple-choice questions that can be accessed within ConnectPlus.

Management Discussions (SLO 3.0, 4.0: 240 total points, 6 at 40 points each):

Six times this semester, you will complete an activity either practicing or reflecting on some of the necessary tools for good management, as well as participate in a discussion question with your classmates. You are required to post three messages per discussion to receive credit for each forum: one opening point of 150 to 200 words that needs to be posted by Thursday and two counterpoints of 100 to 200 words each that are due by Sunday. Both quantity and quality are important considerations when posting substantive messages. For example, “I agree” or “I see your point” are not considered quality participation because neither adds substance to the discussion. Effective responses might share personal experience, ask for clarification, or add additional information, so feel free to analyze, interpret, critique, and suggest. Do not use any attachments, instead, cut and paste your questions/responses directly into a forum message. Be sure to restate the question you are answering and address your classmates by their names.

Your postings/insights on the discussion topic should be based on the following:

- Application of text concepts.
- Ability to articulate assigned analysis clearly.
- Integration of student colleagues' contributions and insights leading the discussion to a deeper level of understanding.

IMPORTANT!!! To allow for a discussion, which is an ongoing process that cannot be achieved by submitting all three required posts on the last day of the week, your first post has to be submitted by Thursday. This will allow for your classmates to read your opening post and reply to you and for you to reply to them in turn. The remaining two posts can be completed between Thursday and Sunday. If initial posts are not posted by Thursday, points will be deducted from your weekly grade (30% of your discussion grade per day that the initial post is late). Remember, for full participation points you need to post at least three substantive notes throughout the week!

Fortune 500 Organization Analysis (SLO 2.0, 3.0, 4.0: 300 total points): In this course you will be analyzing a chosen organization. In terms of their strategies, design and structure, control systems, leadership, and other management practices. The pretense for this analysis is that you would potentially apply for a management position within this organization (that doesn't mean you will actually apply, unless you desire to). You may ONLY select one of these companies. Use the following link / URL to see a list of the 2021 Fortune 500 Companies: <https://fortune.com/fortune500/2021/search/>

- Organization Analyses (6 at 40 points): There are 6 company analysis assignments based on the text that challenges you to analyze and apply the concepts learned for an organization that you will choose at the beginning of the course. The organization you select will be a Fortune 500 company. The questions to be addressed are found in the Appendix. In each analysis, make sure to follow APA guidelines. Each analysis should be approximately 1-2 paragraphs in length. Make sure to cite your sources in answering the questions posted and include the associated references at the end. Each analysis assignment is worth 40 points (10 points are devoted to grammar, citations and references), thus they're worth 240 total points of your final course grade.
- Deciding On an Organization: Use the information contained in the Appendix to assist you in your decision of which organization to select. Ensure you are able to obtain the given information, either from the organizational websites or from the Business Source Complete databases in the digital TAMUCT library.
- Final Organization: The organization used in the first analysis will be the same organization used throughout the term (even if, from your research, you decide this would not be a company you would work for). After that first assignment has been graded, you may not change your organization. Therefore, it is important that you conduct initial research on your chosen company, prior to completing that first assignment.
- Organization Reflection (60 points): At the end of the semester you will re-assess whether or not you would still be interested in working for the company you identified.

Instructor Access: The instructor will be available during normal office hours, at class time, and online a minimum of 5 days a week and will answer all questions, either in the messages or discussions forums, within 24-36 hours of the question's posting date. Feedback for assignments and exams will be as written in paragraphs 4.7 and 4.8.

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

Appendix (Organization Analysis Assignment Instructions)

Part 1 –Getting to Know Your Company

When you submit the answers for each analysis, it must be cited and grammatically correct, as well as have proper APA style references at the end. Each chapter's questions should be answered in one or two paragraphs (no more than a half page) total and double-spaced.

Analysis 1) Company Identification In order to ensure you have enough researchable information about a selected organization, choose a company that is listed in the top 500 of Fortune's Fortune 500 (they actually go on to the top 1000). Select one of the companies that you might aspire to work for, or that is interesting to you. After identifying a company give a brief history including: How old is it? What products or services does it sell? Why did you choose it? What are the company's mission, vision, values, and major goals?

Use the following link / URL to see a list of the Fortune 500 companies:

NOTE: After completing the first analysis, you may not change organizations.

Analysis 2) Find two examples of a significant strategic error or a significant strategic success that managers at the organization have made over the last decade? What concepts discussed in the text contributed to the failure or success?

Analysis 3) Ethics and Corporate Social Responsibility (This one should approach a page in length)

1. How would you characterize the ethical climate of your company? What evidence is there to support your conclusion? If there have been any problems, try to determine whether this was due to the isolated actions of rogue managers or to more systemic, organization wide problems.
2. Does the organization undertake investments related to corporate social responsibility or the natural environment and sustainability that go beyond its narrow economic self-interest? If so, what kind of investments has it made?

Analysis 4) Who are your organization's major competitors and how is your company performing in comparison? Also, conduct a detailed SWOT analysis for your company. What are your company's core capabilities and what unique challenges does it face in the future? How does your organization manage change? Is there evidence that your organization is a change agent, responsive and/or flexible?

Analysis 5) What is your company's main approach for staffing the organization? Do they appear to value diversity? Cite examples, including any legal issues they have had from a labor and/or employment discrimination standpoint.

Analysis 6) Who is the CEO? How long has she or he been in this position? What has been the career track of the CEO? Discuss the CEO's leadership style. Would you characterize the CEO as an effective leader? How would you explain his or her success or lack thereof based on text principles? (Cite examples)

Part 2 – Lessons Learned

Reflection Assignment: You are to re-assess whether you are still interested in working for your chosen company. Expand on Why or Why Not? Also, discuss management lessons learned in doing the company analysis assignment. This reflection assignment should be a minimum full page in length, double-spaced.
