COURSE INFORMATION

Course Overview and description

Examine computer algorithms, and learn to select appropriate algorithms for tasks within specific computing environments. Study searching and sorting algorithms for their importance in computing. Special emphasis on efficiency, readability, maintainability, advanced design and analysis techniques, advanced data structures, and graph algorithms.

Prerequisite(s): CIS 3351 or concurrent enrollment or permission of department chair.

Course Objective or Goal

This course presents a comprehensive study of modern computer algorithms with emphasis on how to select the best algorithm for a task considering the specific computing environment. It examines searching and sorting algorithms for their importance into solving complex computing problems.

Student Learning Outcomes

A student successfully completing this course will be able to:

- Calculate the theoretical relative efficiency of sorting algorithms with emphasis on "divide and conquer" sorts such as the quick sort.
- Calculate the actual relative efficiency of advanced sorting algorithms.
- Contrast the "divide and conquer" approach with other solutions to programming problems.
- Employ recursion as it applies to binary search and quick sort.
- Diagram graphs as mathematical representations of networks. Review graph manipulation algorithms including spanning tree and shortest path traversal algorithms.
- Implement a program to find the shortest path in a graph.
- Contrast the use of heuristic methods as "good enough" methods to attack otherwise unsolvable problems.
- Apply the "NP-Completeness" theorem to the identification of intractable problems.
- Evaluate Finite State Automata, Push Down Automata, and Turing Machines as models of computers executing algorithms.

By providing a practice audience for students’ ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students’ texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by making an appointment via WOnline at <https://tamuct.mywconline.com/>. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC, need any assistance with scheduling, or would like to schedule a recurring appointment with your favorite tutor by making an appointment via WOnline at <https://tamuct.mywconline.com/>. OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage

[<https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html>].

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [<https://www.tamuct.edu/bit>]. If a person's behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5800.
