COURSE INFORMATION
Course Overview and description:

The course is an introductory history of the cultural and economic interchange across the Persian world after 1470. This vast region spans from Iraq to western China and south to India. The culture of the Silk Road flourished from the invasion of Alexander to the expansion of the sea routes to Europe. Thereafter trade routes shifted and societies struggled to adapt under internal and external pressures.

The ‘Great Game’ defined and divided the region much of the period after 1800. The course finishes by examining the rise of national identities in the region and the impact of the 1979 Islamic Revolution and the fall of the Soviet Union. Since the fall of the Soviet Union, Central Asia has struggled to reintegrate into the world economy, and with the rise of Islamism. The course also discusses the interaction of Islam and regional cultures and the implications of the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI). This course is broken into four major sections: 1) world context, 2) breakdown of the old system, 3) the Great Game, and 4) the emergence of national identities.

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS:
A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don’t agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don’t be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage
