Semester: Fall 2021
Instructor’s Name: Claudia Rappaport, PhD ACSW, MSSW
Office Number: 420D Warrior Hall
Office Phone: (254) 519-5432
E-Mail: rappaport@tamuct.edu. PLEASE ALWAYS USE THIS ADDRESS TO EMAIL ME; DO NOT TRY TO EMAIL ME THROUGH THE CANVAS SYSTEM!

Emails are responded to as soon as possible, usually the same day (or the next day if sent very late at night). I do respond to emails at night if I am still up grading papers. However, on Saturdays I volunteer for hospice and do not respond until late evening.

Office Hours: Mondays and Wednesdays, 12:30 to 2:00 PM
Tuesdays and Thursdays, 4:30 to 6:00 PM
These are times when I will be in my office and available to meet with students. If you would prefer to schedule a WebEx meeting with me, that can also be arranged. Call the Social Work office at 519-5406 to schedule an appointment. Walk-ins are also possible as long as I do not already have an appointment scheduled at that time.

A note about the COVID-19 pandemic: For the most recent campus information about COVID-19, see the Texas A&M University-Central Texas Fall 2021 Return to Campus Plan (https://www.tamuct.edu/covid19/)
See the current protocols described later in this syllabus.

I. Course Description

Catalog Description: This course will familiarize the student with the cultural roots of the diverse ethnic groups that make up American society, tracing the process of acculturation that characterizes their American experience.

Prerequisites: There are no prerequisites to this course. This diversity course is especially designed for students going into counseling and human services professions. Other students who are taking it as an elective are a welcome addition to the class, but please understand that examples used will be geared to persons who will be going into the social work and counseling fields. I hope you will be an active participant in the class discussions to add your own field’s perspective on the topics we will be discussing. There is no professional field in the United States in which cultural competency is not an issue, so I feel sure you will find useful information in the class.

Note: For social work majors, this is one of three foundation-level social work classes you need to take to qualify for formal admission to the social work major. The other two courses are Introduction to Social Work and Methods and Skills of Interviewing. If you will have completed all three of those classes by the end of this semester, you need to plan to turn in your application to the major by November 15.

II. Nature of Course

Social work practitioners and other professionals frequently encounter client populations that differ from themselves in terms of gender, sexual orientation, disability, race, ethnicity, cultural background, and religious practice. Competencies necessary for multi-cultural professional practice are examined. A framework for interacting effectively with culturally diverse populations is presented. Important topics to be covered include history of oppression, religious practices, family structure, acculturation, poverty, language, racism and prejudice, socio-political factors, child-rearing practices, values, and beliefs. Professionals must work to alter their practices to fit the needs of culturally diverse populations. In order to do this, all professionals need to heighten their awareness of their own cultural backgrounds and how these invariably influence their interactions with other people.

This course has infused curriculum that prepares students with the necessary casework skills required by 45CFR 1356.60 Title IV-E Training Program.

This course supports students’ learning the model of Generalist Social Work Practice: Work with individuals, families, groups, communities and organizations in a variety of social work and host settings. Generalist practitioners view clients and client systems from a strengths perspective in order to recognize, support, and build upon the innate capabilities of all human beings. They use a professional problem-solving process to engage, assess, broker services, advocate, counsel, educate, and organize with and on behalf of clients and client systems. In addition, generalist practitioners engage in community and organizational development. Finally, generalist practitioners evaluate service outcomes in order to continually improve the provision and quality of services most appropriate to client needs. Generalist social work practice is guided by the NASW Code of Ethics and is committed to improving the well-being of individuals, families, groups, communities and organizations and furthering the goals of social justice. (From the website of the Association of Baccalaureate Social Work Program Directors, Inc.)

Teaching Method: The primary teaching approaches in this course will be collaborative and active learning. Material in the course will be presented through interactive class discussions based on reading assignments, videotapes, and written assignments.

Grading: As much as possible, Dr. Rappaport tries to return graded assignments the class after they were due. For longer assignments it may be the second class after they were due. Two times during the semester (after the mid-term exam and before the final exam) Dr. Rappaport will complete grade sheets to show each student where their course grade stands at that time. In the interim, grading can be seen in Gradebook on Canvas, though that will not also reflect the grades for attendance and for class participation, so your final grade will be different than what the Gradebook reflects.

Note: Handouts for the course will be available via the Canvas Online Learning System. Please ensure that you have access to it. For concerns, please contact the Help Desk Central, 24 hours a day, by emailing helpdesk@tamu.edu, 254-519-5466. See tamuct.instructure.com. For help you can also call the Canvas support line at 1-844-757-0953.

III. Department Mission

The mission of the Texas A&M University-Central Texas Bachelor of Social Work Department (TAMUCT BSW Department) is to prepare high quality graduates for entry-level generalist social work practice and for advanced education. This education is delivered in a rigorous and student-centered learning environment that promotes professional behavior, values, and ethics, human and community well-being, respect for human diversity, and a global perspective, and is guided by a person-in-environment framework, knowledge based on scientific inquiry, and social work competencies.

Until Fall 2014 the TAMUCT Social Work Department had accreditation through the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) as a branch campus of Tarleton State University. Now our Department has been awarded our own independent accreditation, effective February 2017.

IV. COURSE OBJECTIVES AND RELATED PRACTICE BEHAVIORS

This course provides content that helps prepare you, the student, to engage in the following CSWE competencies and related practice behaviors:
• Practice personal reflection and self-correction to assure continual professional development (2.1.1b)
• Attend to professional roles and boundaries (2.1.1c)
• Recognize and manage personal values in a way that allows professional values to guide practice (2.1.2a)
• Apply strategies of ethical reasoning to arrive at principled decisions (2.1.2d)
• Recognize the extent to which a culture’s structures and values may oppress, marginalize, alienate, or create or enhance privilege and power (2.1.4a)
• Gain sufficient self-awareness to eliminate the influence of personal biases and values in working with diverse groups (2.1.4b)
• Recognize and communicate their understanding of the importance of difference in shaping life experiences (2.1.4c)
• Advocate for human rights and social and economic justice (2.1.5b)
• Substantively and effectively prepare for action with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities (2.1.10a[a])

The objectives for this course that support the CSWE-related practice behaviors are:

1. Understand importance of culture in establishing effective services for clients.
2. Respect differences in cultural values, beliefs, rituals, and traditions.
3. Explore personal culture, biases, beliefs, and prejudices.
4. Develop knowledge and awareness of personal and other cultures to recognize and advocate against biases and stereotypes.
5. Become familiar with guidelines for effective professional practice with members of various cultural and racial/ethnic backgrounds in the U.S.
6. Utilize knowledge and awareness of culture to uphold social justice and integrity-based practice.
7. Engage in appropriate and professional helping relationships with persons from a variety of diverse backgrounds.
8. Become familiar with major concepts and theories related to racial and ethnic relations, racism, inequality, oppression and discrimination.

The following table shows the relationship between A) the course objectives, B) the CSWE-related practice behaviors, and C) the assignments used to assess ability to fulfill the objective related to the practice behavior:

V. Course Requirements

A. Required Text: There is no required textbook for this course. All required reading assignments will be in handouts provided by Dr. Rappaport through Canvas.

B. Final Grades

A total of 10,000 points can be earned from the course assignments, as follows:

</table>

(Total points divided by 100 equals final grade)

Points and Corresponding Grades for individual assignments are based on the following:

- A+: 100 points
- A: 95 points
- A-: 90 points
- B+: 88 points
- B: 85 points
- B-: 80 points
- C+: 78 points
- C: 75 points
- C-: 70 points
- D+: 68 points
- D: 65 points
- D-: 60 points
- F: 59 points or less

Example: A paper worth 15% of the grade, on which a student earned a B+, would give that student 1,320 points toward the final grade (88 x 15 = 1,320 points).
Final Class Grades are based on the following:

- A: 90 to 100 (9,000 to 10,000 points)
- B: 89 to 80 (8,900 to 8,000 points)
- C: 79 to 70 (7,900 to 7,000 points)
- D: 69 to 60 (6,900 to 6,000 points)
- F: 59 or less (5,900 points or less)

C. Course Assignments

The following activities will be completed during the semester:

1. Paper One: Cultural Messages in a Television Show (5% of final grade).

   Each student will select one thirty-minute television show to watch and will write a paper analyzing the cultural messages (both explicit and implicit, visual and verbal) revealed in the show. First the student will write a concise summary of what the show was about. Then the student will analyze all the different cultural messages (positive and negative) that were revealed in the show, including any stereotypes or prejudices that were revealed. The purpose of the assignment is to heighten students’ awareness of the multitude of ways in which cultural issues are reflected in the media in this country. The paper must be typed and double spaced and must utilize APA (including a cover sheet). It should be a minimum of 4 pages in length.

2. Paper One: Exploration of the Cultural Background of Another Student in Class (20% of final grade).

   During a class period, students will be assigned in pairs to interview each other about their cultures. This will give you practice in how to ask another person questions about their cultures respectfully; it will also give you some practice in thinking about your own culture, which will help you write the second paper. You can use the following outline of cultural aspects to give you ideas about what to ask. Each student will then write a thorough paper (narrative style, telling the student’s story) explaining what they learned about the other student’s cultures. The grade will be determined by how thorough your explanation of the other student’s information is and your ability to draw comparisons between that student’s cultural beliefs and your own. Papers should be 6-8 pages in length and must be typed and double-spaced. Papers that are single spaced will NOT be graded (i.e., they will receive a grade of 0). Papers shorter than 6 pages will receive a deduction for not being thorough enough. If your paper is longer than 8 pages, that is not a problem.

   Cultural Interview Exercise

   - Generation in US?
   - Nationality, ethnicity, “race” – level of identification?
   - Language(s) spoken?
   - Religion/spirituality/agnosticism/atheism
   - Individuality vs. family/community orientation, decision-making
   - Social roles (spouse, child, parent, partner, friend, etc.)
   - Socio-economic status (and has it changed during their lifetime or across generations?)
   - Acquisitive vs. sharing orientation toward belongings/material possessions
   - Work and recreation preferences, attitudes, beliefs
   - Parenting practices
   - Customs, rituals, traditions that are significant
   - Superstitions, folk beliefs
   - Rules/norms regarding interactions, manners, touch, eye contact, gestures, etc.
   - Assertiveness vs. passivity
   - How emotions are expressed; how disagreements are handled
   - Beliefs and practices regarding health, illness, mental health, indigenous healing or healers
   - Gender, birth order, age, housing arrangements
   - Food/drink, beliefs about eating/alcohol/drugs
   - Arts, sports, dress, colors
   - Major values
   - Major beliefs
   - Major attitudes
   - “should”
Current prejudices about other groups?
Extent to which they have experienced prejudice and/or oppression?
Extent to which they benefit from social privilege?
What “other” groups are they most comfortable around? Why?
What “other” groups are they least comfortable around? Why? How do they plan to address this discomfort?
What about their culture makes them most proud? Least proud?
Feel free to explore any other salient cultural factors or issues in addition to these

3. Paper Two: Exploration of the Student’s Own Cultural Background (25% of final grade)

Each student will write a comprehensive paper analyzing all significant aspects of their personal cultural background, going back at least three generations, comparing and contrasting the situations of those three generations (grandparents, parents, and self – or parents, self, and children). Attention should be focused on all the aspects of culture that are listed in the first handout that was given to you in class, to the extent that these are significant to your individual cultural story. The paper must be written as your personal STORY; do not write the paper as if the list in the handout were a questionnaire. How you ORGANIZE your family’s story is a significant aspect of the paper. You should explore any personal experiences with prejudice and discrimination that have occurred. How have all these cultural factors affected you and your family, both in the past and today? What stereotypes and prejudices toward groups different from yourself have you developed over the years that you will need to learn how to overcome in order to deal with other people effectively and professionally? What strategies are you going to use to overcome those prejudices and stereotypes? You may want to interview members of your extended family to complete this assignment, but do not do research in books or on internet sites about your culture; this is a personal exploration, not a research paper. Students need to demonstrate a high degree of personal insight and self-exploration in their papers. Papers should be at least 10-12 pages in length and must be typed and double-spaced. Papers that are single spaced will NOT be graded (i.e., they will receive a grade of 0). Papers that are not at least 10 pages in length will receive a deduction for not being thorough enough. If your paper is longer than 12 pages, that is not a problem.

Note: On every written assignment (the paper on your interview of another student and your paper on your own cultures), 25% of the grade will be based on the style of your writing – i.e., on correct spelling, composition, punctuation and grammar. The other 75% of the grade will be on content of the written assignments. Social workers do a great deal of writing; it is essential that you develop professional, clear patterns of written communication since it will affect your professional reputation. All writing errors in your papers will be corrected by the professor, and you need to study those corrections with each paper returned to you so you can avoid making the same mistakes in subsequent papers. Your score on this 25% of the grade will depend on how many writing errors you made. If you do not understand some of the corrections that are made in your papers, ask the professor about them. The 25% of the grade based on the number of errors in punctuation, spelling, composition and grammar is determined as follows:

4. Mid-Term and Final Exams (20% of final grade total, 10% each)

There will be two tests given in this course, a mid-term and a final exam, both of which will be take-home exams. See the Course Schedule in this syllabus for exam due dates. These exams will not be the type of exams students may be used to (such as multiple choice, true-false, matching, and short essay questions). That type of exam merely expects students to repeat back facts and definitions, and the concept mastery quizzes for this class will be verifying your ability to answer those kinds of questions. Instead, the mid-term and final exams will ask one or two large questions that expect the student to demonstrate their ability to integrate the learning they have done in the class (from reading, class discussions, watching movies in class, etc.) and show how they can APPLY that knowledge in performing culturally competent social work services with people who represent all different kinds of cultural groups. EXAMS MUST BE TYPED AND DOUBLE-SPACED! HAND-WRITTEN EXAMS WILL NOT BE GRADED.

5. Concept Mastery Quizzes (25% of final grade)

Many of the class periods will include a take-home quiz to help students solidify their understanding of the concepts presented in the course material and how to apply them. Typically the quiz will be given at the end of class as a take-home quiz, and it is due at the beginning of the next regularly-scheduled class period. A student who misses class will be allowed to submit a make-up quiz; however, it is the student’s responsibility to pick up the quiz from Dr. Rappaport and turn it in by the class period in which it is due (typically the next scheduled class period). If the student does not do this, then a make-up quiz will not be accepted. DO NOT ASK FOR A COPY OF THE QUIZ AFTER STUDENTS HAVE ALREADY TURNED IT IN!

At the end of the semester, the student’s average numerical grade on all quizzes (including any zeros) will represent 25% of their final grade. A single low quiz grade will be dropped by the professor, so if you only missed a single class all semester, that zero will not affect your final grade. Quizzes will not be pre-announced, so every day students should come to class prepared for the possibility that a quiz might be given.

Note: Take-home quizzes must be completed by each student alone. There is to be NO sharing of quiz answers with other students; this constitutes cheating. If a student shares their quiz answers with another student, BOTH students will receive a grade of 0 (zero) on that quiz.

6. Class Attendance (5% of final grade)

Students are expected to be present for every scheduled class session – and when I say present, I mean being in class the entire period, not using your telephone during class, not sleeping in class, not working on something for another class while you are in my class – in other words, being HERE and being ENGAGED IN LEARNING. If you are unable to avoid missing a class, you must contact the professor within one week of the class period to explain the absence. Any unexcused (or unexplained) absence will affect this portion of your grade. Illness is an excused absence. The professor will review other types of absences to determine how unavoidable they were; not being able to leave work is NOT an excused absence. If your work schedule will not permit you to attend this class on a predictable basis, you should not be enrolled in the class. NOTE: If you do not email the professor within one week of the absence to get it excused, this will NOT be changed later to an excused absence. In addition, to be counted as present you must demonstrate attentiveness and engagement in all of the class activities. Any student found sleeping or doing work for another class will have their attendance for that day changed to “absent.” Students must be present when class begins and are expected to remain until class is dismissed; students are not allowed to arrive late. (See the Code of Conduct for further details.)

The following shows the degree to which unexcused absences will impact your attendance grade. (Note: since the summer has fewer class sessions, each unexcused absence will have a greater impact on this portion of your grade.)

Note: Being late to class twice counts as one absence

7. Class Participation (5% of final grade)

Dr. Rappaport has an interactive teaching style and expects every student to be an active participant in class. An old Chinese proverb says, “Tell me and I will forget–Show me and I may remember–But involve me and I will understand.” You will learn more from this class if you talk and participate. Ask questions, remembering that there is no such thing as a stupid question. Share your reactions to what is being discussed. Reflect on implications of what we are studying. If you are a student who has never before chosen to talk in classes, this will be a good opportunity for you to start developing a new life skill that will serve you well in the profession of social work. (Students are encouraged not to divulge any personal information they will not be comfortable having their fellow students know about them.) Being an active participant increases understanding of the material for your fellow students as well.

Your class participation grade will be determined by how much you talked during class sessions and by whether your contributions added to the quality of the class sessions. Dr. Rappaport also reserves the right to call on students in class if they are not participating regularly in the discussions. Each day a student will earn between 0 and 3 participation points; the points will be totaled at the end of the semester, and grades will be determined based on the student’s total number of points compared to the points of all the other students in the class. Part of your participation points will also be based on the skill with which the student co-led the class discussion on their assigned diagnosis/diagnoses.

While it is important for students to be willing to discuss the course material, be careful when thinking about bringing in stories from your personal life or work. At times this can get the class off subject and use up valuable time. Think about whether the story you want to relate is important for the entire class to hear. If not, you may want to come talk to Dr. Rappaport individually about it, away from class. If Dr. Rappaport is concerned about the class getting sidetracked, she will suggest that you come talk to her individually so the class can get back on the subject. Class time is limited and valuable and needs to be used to best advantage.

While we cannot require that students wear a mask to class, each student who does wear a face covering will be given an extra participation point for that class session.

VI. CODE OF CONDUCT FOR CLASSROOMS

The following policies apply to all students enrolled in this course:

1. Students are not permitted to enter class more than ten (10) minutes late. Exceptions will be made with prior discussion and approval by the professor only.

2. After class has begun, students are expected to remain for the duration of the class. It is expected that all students will take care of personal affairs (i.e., get beverages, take care of phone calls, meet with students and other professors, use the restroom, etc.) before class begins and that they WILL NOT leave class after it has begun.

3. AT THE BEGINNING OF EACH CLASS, ALL TELEPHONES MUST BE PUT AWAY FOR THE DURATION OF THE CLASS. THIS INCLUDES NOT PUTTING IT ON THE STUDENT'S DESK WHERE IT IS VISIBLE. IF DR. RAPPAPORT SEES A TELEPHONE ON A DESK OR SEES A STUDENT TRY TO ANSWER ONE, SHE RESERVES THE RIGHT TO CONFISCATE IT FOR THE REMAINDER OF THE CLASS.

   IN ADDITION, USE OF LAPTOP COMPUTERS IS PROHIBITED DURING CLASS EXCEPT FOR ACCESSING THE TEXTBOOK OR CLASS HANDOUTS. IF A STUDENT IS SEEN DOING A LOT OF TYPING, DR. RAPPAPORT RESERVES THE RIGHT TO SEE WHAT IS BEING WRITTEN, AND IF NECESSARY SHE WILL REMOVE THE STUDENT'S RIGHT TO USE THE LAPTOP DURING CLASS. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES CAN A STUDENT USE THIS CLASS PERIOD TO WORK ON ASSIGNMENTS FROM THIS OR ANY OTHER CLASS.

   IN OTHER WORDS, STUDENTS NEED TO PAY CLOSE ATTENTION TO EACH CLASS IN ITS ENTIRETY, INCLUDING ANY VIDEOTAPES BEING SHOWN, AND TO USE THEIR INTEGRITY AND RESPECTFULNESS IN HOW THEY BEHAVE DURING CLASS.
3. Students are expected to display professional decorum at all times. This includes, but is not limited to, respecting classmates and the instructor. It is expected that students will not speak to/hold conversations with/pass notes to other students, use cell phones, or engage in other types of unprofessional behaviors after class has begun. Talking during class discussions out of turn or while other students are talking is disruptive to the learning environment, disrespectful to peers, and unprofessional in demeanor. Students are strongly encouraged to engage in discussion in a respectful and appropriate manner; hence, it is expected that students apply classroom etiquette and raise a hand if there is something you want to share or you want to answer a question. It is also expected that students will display patience in raising a hand and recognize that the professor may be trying to call on other students who have not yet participated.

4. To support the academic learning environment, students are asked to refrain from sharing personal information in class that will not support/add significantly to the class discussion. Sharing of personal stories and/or issues that are not directly related to the topic can distract class learning and limit knowledge-sharing by the professor and other students. The professor reserves the right to redirect/limit such conversations in class as needed.

5. Students are NOT permitted to work collaboratively (together) on any assignment in this class. All work turned in must be the student’s own product. This includes take-home quizzes, papers, etc. Failure to adhere to this policy can result in a zero (0) on the assignment and referral to Student Affairs for academic integrity concerns.

6. All assignments must be turned in at the beginning of class on the day they are due. Being absent from class on a day when an assignment is due does NOT grant a student an extension to the due date; the student must still arrange to get that assignment turned in to the professor before class starts. Allowing students to turn in assignments late for a grade is not fair to other students who get their work done on time, disrupts the grading process for the professor, and sends a message that such behavior is professionally “okay,” which it is not.

7. All papers submitted for grading MUST adhere to APA 7th edition standards unless otherwise stated by the professor. This means that all papers must, minimally, be: 1) typed, 2) double-spaced, 3) use one consistent font (I prefer Times New Roman since it is easiest to read), 4) use 12 point font, 5) include an APA style cover page, and 6) include in-text citations AND a reference page for ANY SOURCED INFORMATION (this includes information learned in current or previous classes, read online, learned during a personal communication, read in a textbook, etc.). Further, all typed papers submitted in class MUST be stapled. IF A PAPER IS NOT WRITTEN IN APA FORMAT, DR. RAPPAPORT RESERVES THE RIGHT TO RETURN IT TO THE STUDENT WITH A GRADE OF ZERO. USING APA IS NOT OPTIONAL! IF YOU DO NOT KNOW HOW TO USE APA, READ THROUGH THE INSTRUCTIONS LATER IN THIS SYLLABUS OR GO TO THE WRITING CENTER AND ASK FOR SOME TUTORING ON HOW TO USE IT.

8. TAMUCT expects all students to maintain high standards of personal and scholarly conduct and to avoid any form of academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (intentional or unintentional), copying another person's work (INCLUDING THE TEXTBOOK OR OTHER COURSE MATERIALS), turning in someone else's work as your own, downloading material from the internet and inserting it into a paper as if it were your own work, taking ideas from classes or readings and putting them in a paper without citations/ references, cheating on an examination or other academic work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. Any idea, even paraphrased ideas, used or borrowed must be given credit by showing the source with an appropriate citation and reference. Any student who violates class and/or university policies regarding Academic Honesty will be sanctioned. More information on university policies can be found at tamuct.edu/studentconduct.

9. Class discussions, oral presentations, and written materials must adhere to professional standards of expression and conform to the style described by the American Psychological Association (APA). This includes avoidance of the use of language that degrades women; people of color; people who are gay, lesbian, bisexual, or transgender; and other diverse and at-risk populations. All students are expected to display the utmost respect for all people, regardless of differences.

10. An assessment of each student’s behavior as it relates to class policies and overall decorum required by the TAMUCT Social Work Department and the university is provided via the “Rubric for Assessing Professional Behaviors” that is given to students at the New Social Work Student Orientation. All social work majors receive a RAPB when they apply to the social work major and again when they apply for a field placement. Failure to obtain scores of 3 or 4 in any of the 15 professional behavior areas listed in the rubric will limit a student’s ability to be admitted to the social work major or assigned to a field placement and/or can result in removal from a field placement. These behaviors, which align with the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) core values and ethics, the TAMUCT Code of Conduct, and the Social Work Department class policies, are considered the expected professional behaviors of social work interns and future generalist social workers and, therefore, are held to the strictest code.

VII. University Policies

1. Warrior Shield:
   Warrior Shield is an emergency notification service that gives TAMUCT the ability to communicate health and safety emergency information quickly via email, text message, and social media. All students are automatically enrolled in it through their myCT email account. Connect at portal.publicsafetycloud.net/Account/Login to change where you receive your alerts or to opt out. By staying enrolled in Warrior Shield, university officials can quickly pass on safety-related information, regardless of your location.

2. COVID-19 Protocols:
   - Students and employees must check for symptoms every day before coming on campus. Do NOT come to campus if you suspect that you have COVID-19 or another infectious illness.
   - You must complete the COVID-19 Reporting Form if you believe you have been exposed to or have tested positive for COVID-19. Find this reporting form on the TAMUCT website: https://redcap.tamhsc.edu/surveys/?s=N38DRD4EMK If you do contract COVID-19 and must stay home, contact the professor to see about remaining current with the course while you have to remain at home. If ill, you can contact the office of Student Success, Equity and Inclusion to see about requesting accommodations to be able to succeed in the course.
• Free COVID-19 testing will be available on campus
• The university does not require face coverings (masks). However, it is strongly recommended according to the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) for both vaccinated and unvaccinated people. We encourage students to wear a face covering, to continue social distancing when possible, to wash their hands often, to cough and sneeze into your arm/elbow junction, to disinfect your area that needs to be touched, and to monitor your health daily. The University also strongly encourages people to get vaccinated to prevent further spread of COVID-19.

3. Technology Requirements:
This course will use the TAMUCT Instructure Canvas learning management system to deliver handouts as supplemental reading assignments and all written assignments. We strongly recommend using the latest versions of Chrome or Firefox browsers, not Internet Explorer.

4. Drop Policy
If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must contact the Records Office and ask for the necessary paperwork. Professors cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The records office will give a deadline for when the form must be completed, signed, and returned. After you return the signed form to the records office and wait 24 hours, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you are still enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the records office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalties for absences. Should you miss the deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course if you stopped attending and doing the assignments.

5. Academic Integrity
Texas A&M University - Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. TAMUCT expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Academic integrity is defined as a commitment to honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. Academic misconduct is any act that improperly affects a true and honest evaluation of a student’s academic performance and includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism and improper citation of sources, using another student’s work, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. All academic misconduct concerns will be reported to the university’s Office of Student Conduct. Ignorance of the university’s standards and expectations is never an excuse to act with a lack of integrity. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your professor before taking a course of action.

6. For Pregnant and/or Parenting Students:
TAMUCT supports students who are pregnant and/or parenting. In accordance with requirements of Title IX and related guidance from the US Department of Education’s Office of Civil Rights, the Dean of Student Affairs office can assist students in seeking appropriate accommodations. Students should seek assistance as early in the semester as possible. Visit Student Affairs (tamuct.edu/student-affairs/index.html) or contact the Title IX Coordinator. Title IX prohibits discrimination of the basis of sex and gender, including pregnancy, parenting, and all related conditions. Contact the Associate Dean in Student Affairs at 254-501-5908.

7. Academic Accommodations
At Texas A&M University – Central Texas, we value an inclusive learning environment where every student has an equal chance to succeed and has the right to an education that is barrier-free. The Dept. of Access and Inclusion is responsible for ensuring that students with a disability receive equal access to the University's programs, services and activities. If you believe you have a disability requiring reasonable accommodations, please contact the Department of Access and Inclusion at (254) 501-5831. Any information you provide is private and confidential and will be treated as such. For more information, please visit our webpage: http://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/access-inclusion.

8. Library Services
The university library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 250,000 ebooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 72,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at TAMUCT are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders. Research assistance from a librarian is also available 24 hours a day through our online chat service and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance and can take place on Skype or in person at the library. Assistance can cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments. The library facility on campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library offers workshops tours, readings, and other events. For more information, visit the webpage: http://tamuct.libguides.com/

9. Tutoring Services
Tutoring is available to all TAMUCT student, both on-campus and online. On-campus subjects tutored include Accounting, Advanced Math, Biology, Finance, Statistics, Mathematics, and Study Skills. Tutors are available at the Tutoring Center in Warrior Hall, Suite 111. If you have a question regarding tutor schedules, need to schedule a tutoring session, are interested in becoming a tutor, or any other question, contact Academic Support Programs at 254-519-5836, visit Student Success in 212F Warrior Hall, or email studentsuccess@tamuct.edu. Chat live with a tutor 24/7 for almost any subject on your computer through tutor.com, an online tutoring platform that enables TAMUCT students to log in and receive FREE online tutoring. This tool provides tutoring in over 40 subject areas, but it no longer offers writing support as of 8/1/19. To access tutor.com, go to the “My Courses” tab in Blackboard.

10. University Writing Center
Located in 416 Warrior Hall, the University Writing Center is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students from 10 AM to 5 PM Monday thru Thursday. Students can arrange a one-on-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available). Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students’ ideas and writing, tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students’ texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students can work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all the relevant style guides (such as APA). Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proof-reading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the University Writing Center is available for help. If you have any questions about it, contact Dr. Bruce Bowles, Jr., at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu.

11. Sexual Violence
Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. TAMUCT offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of domestic or dating violence or stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955), located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L). It is incumbent on all of us to find ways to create environments that tell predators that we do not agree with their behaviors and to tell survivors that we will support them. Your actions matter; do not be a bystander. Be an agent of change. For additional information visit the Title IX webpage at www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php.

12. Behavioral Intervention:
TAMUCT cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, those who are exhibiting concerning behaviors, or individuals causing a significant disruption to our community, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. Complete the referral online (cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2). Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the BIT website (tamuct.edu/student-affairs/bit.html). If a person’s behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or TAMUCT police at 254-501-5800.

13. Copyright Notice
Students should assume that all course material is copyrighted by the respective author(s). Reproduction of course material is prohibited without consent by the author and/or course instructor. Violation of copyright is against the law and against TAMUCT’s Code of Academic Honesty. All alleged violations will be reported to the Office of Student Conduct.

VIII. The professor teaching this class

Dr. Rappaport has a life-long interest in (really, fascination with) issues related to cultural diversity. She grew up the daughter of an officer in the U.S. Air Force and lived on many culturally diverse air bases and communities, including living in Japan during childhood and spending her senior year of high school living in Tehran, Iran. Having a Christian mother born in Texas and an Orthodox Jewish father born in New York City (whose own father was born in Russia and immigrated to the U.S. as a child) also exposed her to issues of cultural diversity and intolerance. In her 25 years of practice as a social worker before coming to Killeen to teach social work in August 2000, she worked with clients of many different cultural backgrounds and learned first-hand the importance of social workers striving to be culturally competent. She enjoys teaching this class because of her commitment to helping students learn more about their own cultural realities as well as the cultural realities of people who are different from those students.

Dr. Rappaport takes teaching very seriously. She wants students to enjoy this class and to feel like they learned a great deal from it. She is committed to coming to class prepared, to openly and willingly sharing her professional knowledge and experiences with students, and to encouraging everyone to participate actively in the discussions. In return, she expects students to come to class prepared, having read the day’s assignment ahead of time and being ready to ask any questions they might have about things they did not understand in the reading. Students are also expected to have different opinions about the material discussed, and she encourages students to disagree respectfully and to explore how their opinions have developed over time. She responds to emails as soon as possible, and she tries to get all written assignments graded and returned to students within the following 1-2 class periods. At least twice during the semester she will also give students a grade sheet, letting them know what their grade currently is in the course.

APA CHECKLIST

The following checklist is designed to serve as a guide for you when writing papers in the Social Work Department. Use of this guide will support your success when using APA and help to prevent plagiarism. All instructors in the Social Work Department will use this checklist as a guide when grading your papers for APA policy adherence, so it is advisable that you become familiar with and apply these rules to all papers.

A. Entire document MUST HAVE
   - Times New Roman Font (preferred by the professor)
   - 12 font size
   - 1 inch margins on all four sides
Double spacing after periods at the end of a sentence (except in the “Reference” page)
Numbers 1-9 spelled out (e.g. “one”, “five”, “seven”)
Numbers 10 and above do not have to be written out (except at the beginning of a sentence)
Introduction of acronyms (e.g. “Supplemental Security Income (SSI)”, “SSI” may be used alone thereafter)
Paragraphs versus bullets (unless approved by professor)
No use of “I” (unless approved by professor due to nature of the assignment)
No contractions (won’t, can’t, don’t), lbs, %, $ (percent signs may be used directly after numbers)
Complete sentences, no sentence fragments
Indented paragraphs (tab once from margin)
Introduction, body and conclusion (unless otherwise noted by professor)
Cover page, abstract page, reference page (unless otherwise advised by professor)

B. Cover Page
- Page # (always starts with “1” at the top right) – do NOT include any words or your name with the page number. It should be the number by itself.
- Title of work (in bold and followed by an extra space), your name, Department of Social Work and the name of the university, professor’s name, due date of assignment, all centered and not in bold. This should also be double spaced.
- Title should be no more than 12 words, first letters of words are capitalized except “and”, etc.

C. Abstract Page
- This is page 2 (upper right corner)
- The word “Abstract” is centered, not bold at the top of the paper
- The Abstract is only 4-5 sentences (max 150-250 words)
- There is no indentation at the beginning of this paragraph
- Must be double spaced

D. START OF YOUR BODY
- Continue page number on every page in upper right corner
- Write the title at the very top. This should be the same one used on the cover page above your name
- The title is centered and not in bold
- All paragraphs must be indented
- Paragraphs have a minimum of 5 sentences
- Using Level Headings where appropriate (refer to your professor on when to use; see APA manual for all levels of headings: 1-5)

E. Reference Page
- The word “Reference” (or “References” if more than one) is centered and not bold
- The references must be alphabetized (by last name of author of work as listed on the work. DO NOT reorganize the authors in alphabetical order from the source).
- If there is more than one citation with the same author and year, put them in alphabetical order by title and make them 2021a, 2021b, 2021c, etc., as needed.
- Double space references
- Remove extra space between references
- Only single spacing after punctuation
- Remember that personal communication in-text citations are not listed on the reference page
- Remove hyperlinks from websites (a line should not appear under websites in your reference page)
- If the reference is long and continues on the next line, then you must indent the second line (this is called a “hanging indent”)
- All references MUST have an in-text citation to match (except in personal communication; only in-text citations are used).
If the reference has an edition, it goes in parentheses and is not italicized. For example, Turner, F. J. (2017). Social work treatment: Interlocking theoretical approaches (6th ed.). Oxford University Press.

Following are explicit examples that can serve as guides for you when writing your papers.

- Boston University School of Social Work:

- Sample APA Paper Owl Purdue:

EXAMPLES OF APA ERRORS

- Missing comma after name and before year
  - Incorrect: (Dobson & Pewter 2013)
  - Correct: (Dobson & Pewter, 2013)

- Missing parenthesis
  - Incorrect: Many children in America are diagnosed with ADHD Dobson & Pewter, 2013.
  - Correct: Many children in America are diagnosed with ADHD (Dobson & Pewter, 2013).

- Using and instead of & in a citation
  - Incorrect (Dobson and Pewter, 2013)
  - Correct: (Dobson & Pewter, 2013)

- Using “pp.” instead of “p.” to denote page.
  - Incorrect: “Many children in America are diagnosed with ADHD” (Dobson & Pewter, 2013, pp. 5).
  - Correct: “Many children in America are diagnosed with ADHD” (Dobson & Pewter, 2013, p. 5).

- Missing punctuation at the end of sentences when citing.
  - Incorrect: Many children in America are diagnosed with ADHD. (Dobson & Pewter, 2013)
  - Correct: Many children in America are diagnosed with ADHD (Dobson & Pewter, 2013).

Correct Citation Example:

In-Text: (Dobson & Pewter, 2013)

- Using quotation marks without page number/paragraph information.
  - Incorrect: “Many children in America are diagnosed with ADHD” (Dobson & Pewter, 2013).
  - Correct: “Many children in America are diagnosed with ADHD” (Dobson & Pewter, 2013, p. 5).

- Example of how to cite a class handout: (Be sure to use the hanging indent on your paper)
Example of how to cite a movie: (Be sure to use the hanging indent on your paper)

  - To obtain information for a movie citation, look up the movie on the internet and select the IMDb listing. Get the name of the director and the year at the beginning of the entry. Click on Full Cast and Crew, then on Company Credits to list the production companies (ignore the list of distributors, but be sure to list all of the production companies).

Example of how to cite an episode of a television series:
  - Writer, W. W. (Writer & Director), Writer, D. D. (Director). (2020, March 26). Title of episode (no italics), (Season No., Episode No.) (TV series episode). In P. P. Producer (Executive Producer), Title of TV series (in italics), Production companies (separated by ;).

Checklist to avoid some common errors using APA in papers

Dr. Claudia Rappaport

_____ The title on the front page is repeated on the first page of the text of the paper, and both titles are exactly the same wording.

_____ Entire paper in Times New Roman 12 font. You can’t change font in title, on the front page, etc., to be decorative

_____ The front page can ONLY contain the page number, the title of the paper, your name, Department of Social Work and the name of the university, professor’s name, and due date of assignment. Nothing else!!

_____ No contractions (isn’t) are used anywhere in the paper unless quoting someone.

_____ There is no extra line space between paragraphs (to achieve this, go to page layout, then go to spacing and make sure that the spacing is set to 0”).

_____ All paraphrasing from another source has an in-text citation, and the format would be like this: (Rappaport, 2021). If exact words are used from the source, then you also use quote marks and the page number is included in the in-text citation (the format would be: Rappaport, 2021, p. 2). If you are using more than one Rappaport handout for citations, you will have to use Rappaport 2021a, Rappaport 2021b, etc., and the letters will be assigned based on the titles of the handouts being in alphabetical order on your reference page.

_____ When writing a paper about an interview of a person, you use personal communication citations within the text of the paper. After every paragraph in which you summarize information given in the interview, your in-text citation will appear like this: (C. Rappaport, personal communication, August 1, 2021). THERE IS NO REFERENCE PAGE ENTRY FOR PERSONAL COMMUNICATION CITATIONS.

USES OF COMMAS AND OTHER COMMON PUNCTUATION/GRAMMAR ERRORS

The following are some common uses of commas:

Putting two sentences together, joined by and, but, or another linking word. Both parts have to have both a subject and a verb, or you don’t need a comma.

- Example: Martha went to the Laundromat, and she discovered that she forgot her money at home.

- Does NOT need a comma: Martha went to the Laundromat and discovered that she forgot her money at home.
• Note: Two sentences can also be joined together by a semicolon without a connecting word.

• Example: Martha went to the Laundromat; she discovered that she forgot her money at home.

• Example: I thought this was going to be complicated, but I was surprised; they listened and paid attention.

• Note: Two sentences can also be joined together by a semicolon and a connecting word such as however, followed by a comma.

• Example: Martha went to the Laundromat; however, she discovered that she forgot her money at home and had to make a return trip.

Writing a list of objects, when no item of the list requires a comma within the item. If one item requires a comma, then the items have to be separated with semicolons instead of commas.

• Example: Martha went to the store and bought apples, plums, oranges, and nectarines to make a fruit salad.

• Need to use semicolons instead: Martha went to the store and bought golden, delicious apples; purple, juicy plums; plump, navel oranges; and nectarines to make a fruit salad.

Note: The above example with semicolons also illustrates another use of commas: When you are using more than one adjective to describe a noun (such as golden, delicious apples), the two adjectives need to be separated with a comma.

Separating the name of a city and the state in which it is located.

• Example: I was born in San Antonio, Texas, in the year 1950.

Separating parts of a date in a sentence.

• Example: On August 1, 2010, my daughter was born.

Separating a person’s name and their relationship to another person, the name of a book and its author, etc.

• Example: Her father, Burton Rappaport, was born in New York City in 1921.

• Example: Burton Rappaport, the father of Claudia Rappaport, was born in New York City in 1921.

• Example: Harper Lee’s novel, To Kill a Mockingbird, is required reading in many schools.

Separating a prepositional phrase at the beginning of a sentence from the remainder of the sentence.

• Example: In case of a fire, you need to move quickly to the nearest exit.
  o Note another grammar rule: Do not put the adverb in between to and move (i.e., do not say “you need to quickly move to the nearest exit”). Doing this is referred to as a split infinitive. Just remember Shakespeare: It is “To be or not to be,” not “To be or to not be.”

• Example: From one social worker to another, you need to be on the lookout for signs of social work burnout.
• Example: During the depression of the 1930’s, food was scarce and unemployment rates were high.

  o Question: Why do you not need a comma after scarce?

• Example: If you are not ready to calm down, I want you to go to your bedroom and think about why your behavior has not been appropriate.

• Example: Because she got paid a lot less this week, she was not able to give the landlord her rent.

• Note: If the prepositional phrase is in the middle of the sentence, it does not require commas.

  o Example: The hot air in the classroom made it very difficult to study.
  o Example: She couldn’t give the landlord her rent because she got paid a lot less this week.

After using a single word to catch your attention at the beginning of a sentence; most commonly this will be done in conversation, not in formal writing.

• Example: “Well,” she said, “I guess I need to go ahead and start fixing dinner.”

  o Note another rule of grammar: Punctuation marks (commas, periods, exclamation points, question marks) always go INSIDE the quotation marks.

• Example: Gosh, it is really hot today.
• Example: Hello, my name is Dr. Rappaport.
• Example: No, you can’t have a cookie right now.
• Example: Yes, I heard what you said.
• Example: Unfortunately, one of the social work professors has decided to leave Tarleton.
• Example: However, you need to remember that I expect you to study hard for my tests.
• Example: John, did you have a question you wanted to ask?

To add additional details to clarify a sentence; if you removed those additional details, you would still have a complete sentence.

• Example: When I started college, something I had always dreamed of doing, I decided to major in social work.

  You could remove the phrase in the middle and still have a complete sentence: When I started college, I decided to major in social work. Why do you still need a comma there

When getting ready to quote a sentence – but only if you are really quoting the person’s exact words, not paraphrasing.

• Example: I wasn’t saying, “How could you?” Rather, I wanted to know, “What were you thinking when you did that?”
• Example: Dr. Rappaport always said, “Be careful of using Spell Check as your only type of proof-reading on papers.”
• Example of NOT using quotation marks: Dr. Rappaport always told us to be careful of using Spell Check as our only type of proof-reading on papers.

Before adding a phrase starting with which or whose to add more details to the sentence.

• Example: A major strength of the agency is the fact that each social worker uses a different approach, which allows them to complement each other’s skills.
• Example: He is a millionaire now, which only goes to show how much a person can accomplish if he really sets his mind to it.
• Example: The crowd, whose patience had worn thin, was threatening to tear down the sign and instigate a riot.
• Example: The building, whose architect had won a national award, was one of the most popular tourist attractions in the city.

To separate out parenthetical words from the rest of the sentence.

• Example: Expensive items, however, will not be included in the auction.
• Example: Expensive items, of course, will not be included in the auction.
• Example: Expensive items, unfortunately, will not be included in the auction.
• Example: Expensive items, therefore, will not be included in the auction.

Before a word like also or too or as well at the end of a sentence.

• Example: We should plan to have another fundraiser before the end of the month, also.
• Example: He’s quite good looking, too.

Do not use a comma if the additional words identify the subject word and are not additional information.

• The company rewards employees who work hard. (Do not put a comma if what you mean is that the company ONLY rewards employees who work hard. If ALL employees work hard and get rewarded, then put a comma: The company rewards its employees, who all work hard.)

You usually do NOT use a comma before “because.”

• Example: She was deeply ashamed because she was the only woman who failed the exam.

You often do not need to use a comma after an introductory phrase that designates when something occurred.

• Example: In about five minutes we are leaving for school.
• Example: In 2000 Dr. Rappaport came to teach at TAMUCT.

OTHER COMMON WRITING ERRORS

Capitalizing words that do not need capitals
• Capital letters are used for proper nouns, people’s names, names of cities and states, etc. They are often used when they are not needed. For example:
  o I am a student in the Social Work Department at Tarleton State University-Central Texas. It is correct to capitalize social work here because it is in the name of a Department.
  o I want to be a social worker. You do not capitalize it here because it is not a proper noun.
  o My biggest supporter is Mother. You need to capitalize mother here because you are using it as a person’s name.
  o I live with my mother and my father. You do not capitalize them here because you are not using them as names.
  o I graduated from Alamo Heights High School. You capitalize high school here because it is the name of a specific high school.
I graduated from high school. You do not capitalize it here because it is not a proper noun. Also note that you need the word “from”. I graduated high school is slang without the word from.

Confusing different forms of words that sound the same.
- Where: I asked him where he was born.
- Were: There were 25 questions on the test.
- Wear: I asked him what he was going to wear to the interview.
- Their: These parents really love their children.
- There: There are too many students in this class.
- They’re: This is the contraction for “they are.” Note: You usually do not use contractions in formal written work.

Two different forms for possessives:
- This is my parent’s house. Use the apostrophe before the s only if it is ONE parent’s house. Both parents do not live in the house, or you only have one parent.
- This is my parents’ house. Use the apostrophe after the s if it is BOTH parents’ house. Both parents live in the house.
- Parents are very important people. You do not use any apostrophe because you are simply making a noun plural. Never use an apostrophe unless you are making a noun a possessive word (meaning it belongs to someone).
