ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:

Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. To insure you comply with the standards of academic integrity set forth by TAMUCT, please read the following information, and follow the links. By now you should all understand what plagiarism is and is not. If you are unsure, please follow the link provided and read all material on the subject. Any student caught plagiarizing will receive a 0 (zero) for that assignment and may be referred to the university for further discipline.

Academic Integrity	Texas A&M University - Central Texas expects all students to maintain high standards of personal and scholarly conduct. Students found responsible of academic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary action. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. The faculty member is responsible for initiating action for each case of academic dishonesty and report the incident to the Associate Director of Student Conduct. More information can be found at http://www.tamuct.edu/departments/studentconduct/facultyresources.php .
Plagiarism	Plagiarism is a form of academic dishonesty. Plagiarism, most simply defined, is not properly crediting your sources of information through the use of textual citations and the provision of a works cited list. If something is not your own original idea, thought, words, or the product of your original data collection and analysis, you need to cite your source in the text. You may expand on work you have submitted in other classes. If you would like to do so, please contact me to discuss the terms. To learn more about plagiarism, please visit https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/589/02/

MODE OF INSTRUCTION AND COURSE ACCESS:

This course is fully online and uses the TAMUCT Canvas system. To be able to successfully complete this course, the student must have reliable and frequent access to a computer and to the Internet. In addition, the student must be able to access Canvas.

In addition, you must claim and use your university email. All announcements made in Canvas will also be emailed to students – these emails only go to university email accounts. The same applies to all university-level announcements. You may miss out on vital announcements and information if you do not check your university email regularly. You can have your university email forwarded to your personal email.

ACCESSING CANVAS:

- Logon to <https://tamuct.instructure.com/> to access the course
- Username: your MyCT username (xx123 or everything before the “@” in your MyCT email address)
- Initial password: MyCT password
- Select Institutional Corrections from the course list

Technology issues are not an excuse for missing a course requirement. Make sure your computer is configured correctly and address issues well in advance of deadlines. If you have problems with your personal computer and/or Internet, you have access to the computer lab in Warrior Hall (room 104). Operating times and days can be found on the TAMUCT website.

TECHNOLOGY SUPPORT:

For technology issues, students should contact Help Desk Central. 24 hours a day, 7 days a week:

- Email: helpdesk@tamu.edu

- Web Chat: <http://hdc.tamu.edu>

When calling for support please let your support technician know you are a TAMUCT student.

For issues related to course content and requirements, contact your instructor.

STUDENT-INSTRUCTOR INTERACTION:

Since this is an online class, most communication between the instructor and students will be electronic in nature; however, all students are welcome and encouraged to attend office hours or make an appointment for an office visit.

I will be checking and replying to student emails - students should expect a response within 48 hours during the week. Emails sent on a weekend will be responded to the following Monday, unless it is a holiday. Deviations from this will be announced on Canvas. During office hours, emails will be responded to more quickly, and Canvas chat, Skype, Facetime, or some other method of communication can also be utilized if pre-arranged. If the answer to a student question applies to all students, an announcement will be made to the entire class.

Conduct:

Mastery of course content is greatly enhanced through professional conduct in the classroom. Although this is an online class, professional conduct must still be observed in your written communication. You will be expected to conduct yourself in a professional manner at all times in this class. As in many criminal justice and social science courses, the issues of racial and ethnic diversity must be considered part of the course content. In addition, topics may come up in class that not everyone will be comfortable with or agree upon. Civility and courtesy to everyone in the class, including the instructor, is expected. All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions, and chats. Incivility or discourtesy to anyone in the class will not be tolerated and may result in your expulsion from the course.

Required Course Work:I. Discussions 0-30 points, for a total of 330 points

There will be eleven (11) discussion topics posted in Canvas throughout the semester with the main discussion being worth 20 points and each response being worth 5 points for a total of 10 points.

In order to properly answer the discussion questions/prompts, you will be required to read or view additional material. These additional materials will be posted with the discussion question/prompt. You will earn points for your submission if you answer discussion questions/prompts on time, adequately, and completely. Students are required to post their initial response (typically about one-half page, single-space type) to the issue and comment on a minimum of two other student responses. Students may respond to more than two student responses, but are required to respond to a minimum of two.

Quality of Discussion Posts: The responses to other student posts are usually only a few sentences. Some students provide very well-thought-out, comprehensive answers to each question, along with thoughtful responses to other student answers. However, many students provide only a cursory answer (2 or 3 lines) for their initial response and follow-up with “I agree....” or “I disagree....” responses to other student answers. This is not acceptable. I expect to see substantive responses, approximately one-half page to the Canvas discussion question for an initial response from a student. The two comment responses that you are required to make do not have to be lengthy, but more substantive than 5-6 words of “I agree with you on that.” Students should provide support for their opinions, pro or con, with appropriate reference citations tied to the respective course materials, websites, etc. The discussion question will typically be posted by Sunday at midnight; you will be required to post your response by Sunday of the same week, no later than midnight.

Proofreading your discussion board postings will also increase readability for others; you should also be checking for grammar, spelling, and content to make sure others would understand your point. In addition, please make discussion postings relevant to the topic under discussion.

Grading criteria for Canvas discussions:

10 or below – Unacceptable	Does not meet the intent of the assignment; student does not reply to other students’ responses
15 – Acceptable/Weak	Meets the intent of the assignment, but lacks detail, clarity, or specifics
20-25 – Acceptable	Meets the intent of the assignment; shows understanding of class content

30 – Excellent/Superior

Meets the intent of the assignment and goes beyond the required/expected performance; e.g., bringing in outside resources; provided detailed and specific examples of concepts and ideas being discussed

II. Exams0-200 points, for a total of 400 points

Students will be responsible for completing two (2) short essay exams consisting of 10 questions for each exam. Each question is worth 20 points each. Exams will cover material from the text, the modules, and any videos or other material referred to in the modules. The exams will be posted on Canvas – due dates are listed in the course calendar. The exams will be made available for the week leading up to the due date. These exams are intended to require you to engage in critical thinking and logical reasoning as well as to further assist you in developing your written communication skills, preparing you for a career in criminal justice.

III. Book Review/PowerPoint Slides

0 to 270 points, for a total of 270 points

Each student will be responsible for completing a book review essay by the end of the semester. The book review will be worth 200 points. For this assignment, the student will be required to select a book that is specifically related to prison. It may be a biography or first-person account written by a guard or prisoner, however you should choose a book that is conducive to completing the assignment.

Your book review should be approximately 5-8 pages and cover the following points:

- 1) Introduction: Should provide a basic statement about what you will be writing about
- 2) Summary (min. of 1-3 pages): Make sure you give specifics.
- 3) Critique of how the book fits into the class material (min. of 1-2 pages): Does the book contradict or reinforce class material? Is it from a different perspective? Specifics are better than generalities.
- 4) Conclusion: Sum up your paper
- 5) References: Please provide this information on the Reference Page along with the in text citations (last name, year) in standard APA 6th or 7th Edition format (includes the book). EXAMPLE:

prior to your submission. If you need assistance with this assignment, please ask. I will be happy to read and comment on your early drafts (must be submitted at least 5 days before the due date). I cannot help you if I do not know that you need help.

Along with your book review, you will need to create a PowerPoint presentation that would assist you as if you were presenting your book review for the class. The power point presentation will be worth 70 points. A verbal presentation does not need to be recorded on the slides, but the presentation should act as an aide to your book review. Do not copy your entire paper onto the slides and be creative. Feel free to design/format the presentation to reflect you and how you would have presented it in person. I will often add clips of movies to mine if it reflects a point I want to bring home. For example, I use Shawshank Redemption and Brook's death to address the potential impact of release from long term incarceration on the inmate.

There are no optional assignments for extra credit and late discussion posts or exams are not accepted.

Sexual Violence	A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L). Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].
Disability Support Services	If you have or believe you have a disability and wish to self-identify, you can do so by providing documentation to the Disability Support Coordinator. Students are encouraged to seek information about accommodations to help assure success in their courses. Please contact Vanessa Snyder at (254) 501-5836 or visit Founder's Hall 114. Additional information can be found at http://www.tamuct.edu/departments/disabilitysupport/index.php.

The center is open 11am-6pm Monday-Thursday during the spring semester. Students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Students may also arrange a one-on-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor. Tutorials can be arranged by visiting the UWC. Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. Sessions typically last between 20-30 minutes. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will help students develop more effective invention and revision strategies.
Library Services	Information Literacy focuses on research skills that prepare individuals to live and work in an information-centered society. Librarians will work with students in the development of critical reasoning, ethical use of information, and the appropriate use of secondary research techniques.
