See the section titled COURSE OUTLINE AND CALENDAR below for complete class calendar.

Modality.

This is a 100% online course. It uses the A&M-Central Texas Canvas Learning Management System [<https://tamuct.instructure.com/>].

Students should notify me immediately if they are unable to access the course materials posted on Canvas (Word documents, PowerPoint slides, pdf documents, and non-TAMUCT websites for which links are provided in Canvas). Even when they can access these materials, students occasionally experience difficulties viewing them on their personal devices (phones, tablets, desktops, etc.). Should this occur, contact me immediately. These technical problems commonly arise from the individual student's personal device. In such cases I will refer him/her to technical support (see details below). However, if there is a problem with Canvas or with the materials I provided, I want to know about it. Be advised: technical problems with a personal computer or device are not an excuse for submitting work late. Late penalties will be waived if the technical problem is shown to be the result of Canvas or instructor error.

COVID-19 SAFETY MEASURES

To promote public safety and protect students, faculty, and staff during the coronavirus pandemic, Texas A&M University-Central Texas has adopted policies and practices to minimize virus transmission. All members of the university community are expected to adhere to these measures to ensure their own safety and the safety of others. Students must observe the following practices while participating in face-to-face courses, course-related activities (office hours, help sessions, transitioning to and between classes, study spaces, academic services, etc.) and co-curricular programs:

- Self-monitoring—Students should follow CDC recommendations for self-monitoring. Students who have a fever or exhibit symptoms of COVID-19 should participate in class remotely and should not participate in face-to-face instruction. Students required to quarantine must participate in courses and course-related activities remotely and must not attend face-to-face course activities. Students should notify their instructors of the quarantine requirement. Students under quarantine are expected to participate in courses and complete graded work unless they have symptoms that are too severe to participate in course activities.
- Face Coverings— Face coverings must be worn inside of buildings and within 50 feet of building entrances on the A&M-Central Texas Campus. This includes lobbies, restrooms, hallways, elevators, classrooms, laboratories, conference rooms, break rooms, non-private office spaces, and other shared spaces. Face coverings are also required in outdoor spaces where physical distancing is not maintained. The university will evaluate exceptions to this requirement on a case by case basis. Students can request an exception through the Office of Access and Inclusion in Student Affairs.
 - o If a student refuses to wear a face covering, the instructor should ask the student to leave and join the class remotely. If the student does not leave the class, the faculty member should report that student to the Office of Student Conduct.

Additionally, the faculty member may choose to teach that day's class remotely for all students.

- Physical Distancing—Physical distancing must be maintained between students, instructors, and others in the course and course-related activities.
- Classroom Ingress/Egress—Students must follow marked pathways for entering and exiting classrooms and other teaching spaces. Leave classrooms promptly after course activities have concluded. Do not congregate in hallways and maintain 6-foot physical distancing when waiting to enter classrooms and other instructional spaces.
- The university will notify students in the event that the COVID-19 situation necessitates changes to the course schedule or modality.

COURSE INFORMATION

Course Description.

Explores the historic development of church-state relations in the United States, the evolution of church-state constitutional law, and the impact of this history and law on the current political environment. Special emphasis placed on the role played by religion in political campaigns, local politics, and interest group activities. This course is cross-listed with POLI 3355; only one may be taken for credit. (TAMUCT Catalog)

Course Overview.

The primary focus of this course is on the role of religion in American politics. It will examine the historic roots of modern controversies surrounding church-state relations. Students will investigate the Supreme Court's role in mediating these controversies and how its decisions impact various political actors: voters, candidates, office holders, and bureaucrats. Religion's impact on American domestic and foreign policy will also be included.

Course Objective.

In general terms, the main objective of this course is for students to be able to demonstrate an understanding of religion's impact on American politics. In so doing, it is hoped that students will be able to engage in the modern debates related to church and state with the tools and intellectual foundation expected of an informed, educated citizen.

Student Learning Outcomes.

The following suggest the essence of the course, and upon completion the student should be able to:

1. Discuss the important developments in church-state relations throughout American history.
2. Describe the contribution of various individuals in defining the American understanding of church-state relations.
3. Explain the major Supreme Court decisions related to church-state relations.
4. Discuss the role played by religion in the formulation of foreign and domestic policy.

5. Explain the impact of religion on major government institutions: Congress, the President, and the Supreme Court.
6. Describe the impact of religion on social movements, interest groups, and political parties.
7. Discuss the role played by religion at the level of local politics, especially public schools.
8. Demonstrate competency in research and writing.

Competency Goals Statements (certification or standards).

The material in this course is not associated with any official certification.

INITIAL ATTENDANCE VERIFICATION

Satisfying initial attendance/participation requirements.

University policy requires instructors to certify that students are attending/participating in class. The deadline for initial student attendance is called the census date. This date changes with each semester; thus, students should contact the Registrar's Office or the instructor to confirm the exact census date for the semester in which he or she is enrolled.

In order for the student to be certified as attending/participating in this class, he or she must do one of the following essential academic activities by the census date:

1. Complete the Syllabus Quiz (online via Canvas). The quiz is graded; however, you don't have to "pass" the quiz to meet the certification requirement.
OR
2. Complete Discussion 1. This is a graded activity; however, you don't have to earn a "passing" score to meet the certification requirement.
OR
3. Click on the "Orientation Videos" link on our Canvas course menu. Watch at least one of the videos presented there. This activity is not graded; however, students who complete it will earn five (5) extra credit points. The points will be added to their Exam 1 score.

Students who do not complete one of these essential academic activities will be marked as “Never Attended” on the Census-Certification. This designation could result in a student being dropped from the class. It is the student’s responsibility to know his or her status in the class. When in doubt, contact the Registrar’s office.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

University Policy on Academic Integrity.

See UNIVERSITY RESOURCES, PROCEDURES, and GUIDELINES below for TAMUCTs academic integrity statement.

Academic Integrity Resources.

It is the student’s responsibility to know and understand all aspects of the University’s Academic Integrity policy. A complete set of documents, downloads, and descriptors can be found at the Student Conduct homepage. Key documents found there include:

- Student Handbook
- Student Rights and Responsibilities
- Conduct Process Flow
- Code of Student Conduct
- Code of Academic Honesty (a.k.a. Honor Code of Academic Integrity)
- Academic Appeals

The Honor Code of Academic Integrity outlines the established procedures for reporting misconduct, responses to misconduct, and the appeals procedure (should academic or other sanctions be leveled against a student). Students should review these procedures.

Syllabus Quiz (10 points).

This quiz serves three main purposes. First, it helps confirm that students have reviewed the course syllabus. Second, as an essential academic activity, it demonstrates student attendance and participation in the class. Third, because it is taken online via our Canvas course site, the quiz will familiarize students with the Canvas test-taking process. While it can be completed up through the late assignment due date (see calendar below), it is strongly recommended that students complete it before the census-certification date (see INITIAL ATTENDANCE VERIFICATION above).

Discussions (3 @ 30 points each)

The discussions in this class will give students an opportunity to interact with their classmates. Not all discussion will be available on the first day (see Assignment Due Dates above for details). When posting to these discussions, students should maintain proper decorum.

1. Learning Outcomes Targeted: 2-7 (depending on topics)
2. Discussion 1: Class Introductions.
 - a. We will use this discussion in the first few days of the semester.
2. Discussion 2: Current Events Related to Religion & Politics.
 - a. Discussions 2 will give us an opportunity to examine current events related to religion and politics.
3. Discussion 3: Current Events Related to Religion & Politics.
 - a. Discussions 3 will give us an opportunity to examine current events related to religion and politics.
4. Each discussion will consist of two parts:
 - a. The student's initial post. This is your response to the topic under discussion. (15 points possible).
 - b. Response to classmates. You must reply to another student's post. (15 points possible).
 - c. Late Discussion Policy. Each part that is late will lose 5 points. Late penalties will not apply in cases where a student requires a reasonable accommodation related to missing the deadline. In order to qualify for this exception, a student must present the appropriate documentation from the Access and Inclusion department.

Exams (2 @ 250 points each).

1. Learning Outcomes Targeted: 1-7.
2. These exams will cover the material in the required readings per the Reading and Exam Schedule below. See also the “Modules” on Canvas for the exam study guides. These guides are divided by exam (Exam 1 vs. Exam 2) and indicate the specific readings associated with each exam.
3. Exams may consist of any combination of essay questions, short answer questions, true & false questions, matching, or multiple-choice questions.
4. Given that point values for exam essay questions vary, no single rubric applies; however, the instructor will grade an essay response based on the extent to which it reflects the following:
 - a. Evidence that the student read the assigned reading.
 - b. Evidence that the student is able to provide a critical analysis of the material.
 - c. Extent to which the response is well written with respect to style and grammar.
 - d. Points will be awarded based on a typical grade scale [0-59% (F); 60-69% (D), 70-79% (C); 80-89% (B); and 90-100% (A)]. For example, if an essay question is worth 50 points, a score of 47 points is a 94% (A or excellent).
5. Late Exam Policy: Students may take exams after the due date; however, late exams may consist of additional essay questions. In addition, twenty-six (26) points will be deducted from all late exams. Therefore, the highest score a student can receive on a late exam is 224.
 - a. Late penalties will not apply in cases where a student requires a reasonable accommodation related to missing the exam. In order to qualify for this exception, a student must present the appropriate documentation from the Access and Inclusion department.

Research Paper (1@200 points).

1. Learning Outcome Targeted: 8 (1-7 depending on student research topics).
2. In order to successfully complete this assignment, the student must select a topic related to religion and politics in the United States and research it in detail.
3. It is recommended that students consult with the instructor on possible topics before starting the process of research and writing. This will allow the instructor to confirm the relevance of the topic and to offer helpful advice with regard to source material.
4. The paper must include the following elements:
 - a. An introduction to your research project. Introduce the reader to the nature and scope of your research. Define for the reader any key terms or themes that are at the center of your narrative.
 - b. A review of literature to include existing scholarship related to your research (journal articles, books, conference papers, etc.).
 - c. A specific argument. This means that I want the student to argue a specific point. Frame your narrative around defending this argument.
 - d. Supporting evidence for the argument.
5. The paper must comply with the following format guidelines:

- a. Use Microsoft Word to type your paper. Wordpad, Pages, Notepad, and other word processors may be incompatible with Canvas.

 - d. Font style/size: Calibri (Body)/12 point.
 - e. Be sure to put your name on the paper (top left).
6. The paper must be properly documented as follows:

8. Students who fail to meet the above format guidelines will lose points.
9. The instructor will also evaluate papers based on the student's competency related to spelling, grammar, and style.
10. Submitting the paper:
 - a. Draft Submission: Students will be allowed one chance to submit their papers in draft form to SimCheck (Canvas). A link titled "Draft Submission" is placed on the Canvas menu for this course. The instructor will not review these submissions; however, students will be able to review their Originality Report and make any necessary corrections. SimCheck is a program that informs the instructor of potential plagiarism. It also informs the instructor when two students (from the same class or from different classes) turn in the same paper. To avoid accusations of misconduct, do your own work and document all sources properly. Students found to have engaged in plagiarism will be subject to sanctions.
 - b. Final Submission: All students must upload their papers to SimCheck in Canvas. The instructor has provided a separate "Final Submission" link. This is the version I will grade. NOTE: Students are only authorized to submit their papers once. Those wishing to submit a second "final" version of their paper must get the instructor's permission. Once the instructor grades the "final" version, no other versions will be graded.
 - c. Please note: it is the date indicated in SimCheck under the "Final Submission" link that will determine if a paper was submitted on time.
11. Students are NOT allowed to recycle old research papers. If you wrote a paper for previous course credit (in my class or any other class), you cannot submit it for credit in this class. Your research in this class must be new.
12. Grades on the paper will be based on:

- a. Argument clearly stated: 20 points possible.

GRADING IN THIS COURSE

Graded Assignments Summary.

- Syllabus Quiz = 10 points possible
- Discussion 1 = 30 points possible
- Discussion 2 = 30 points possible
- Discussion 3 = 30 points possible
- Exam 1 = 250 points possible
- Exam 2 = 250 points possible
- Research Paper = 200 points possible
- Topic of Focus Paper #1 = 100 points possible
- Topic of Focus Paper #2 = 100 points possible
- TOTAL POINTS POSSIBLE = 1,000

Points-to-Grade Conversion.

- 900-1,000 = A
- 800-899 = B
- 700-799 = C
- 600-699 = D
- 0-599 = F

Posting of Grades and Feedback.

1. Grades will be posted in Canvas Grade Book.
2. Feedback will be provided through a rubric in Canvas or a Canvas Message.
3. Turnaround time depends on the assignment. Generally, the instructor grades all assignments after the established due dates. This allows the instructor to grade most or all assignments at the same time, thus ensuring consistency in grading. Students who turn in an assignment early will have to wait until after the due date for their score. Students who turn in assignments late have to wait longer for their scores.

Incomplete grades.

Any missing assignments in your record will be assigned a score of zero. Incomplete grades will be issued at the instructor's discretion and under the conditions set by University policy. The policy reads:

- "The grade "I" shall be recorded for a student only in case of extraordinary circumstances. This entry is used rarely when the instructor and his/her department chair have concurred that the incomplete entry is justified. A grade of "I" must be made up by the last day that course grades are due to the Registrar during the next long semester, and in all cases before registering for the next sequential course. Should this grade not be reported to the Registrar within the prescribed time limit, it automatically becomes an 'F.'" A student who drops a course on or before the census date receives no grade, and the course will not be listed on that student's permanent record (2018-2019 Catalog).

In this class:

1. Earning credit in a class involves more than simply completing course requirements. Competence as a student and scholar also means completing those requirements in the time allowed.
2. The phrase "in case of extraordinary circumstances" is interpreted to mean unexpected, substantial events in one's life that are clearly beyond the student's control and that occur after the "Deadline to Drop16-week Classes with a Quit (Q) or Withdraw (W)." This deadline is established by the Registrar (see University Calendar for exact date). The instructor reserves the right to request documentation attesting to this fact.
3. Incomplete grades are NOT issued to students who simply procrastinated in the completion of coursework.
4. Students who experience circumstances that continually interfere with their ability to complete the work in a timely manner are encouraged to consider withdrawing from the course. In addition, students who have neglected to complete any (or little) of the course work throughout the semester should not expect their requests for an incomplete grade to be honored.
5. If an incomplete grade is issued, students will only be allowed to complete the assignments with due dates after the "Deadline to Drop16-week Classes with a Quit (Q) or Withdraw (W)." deadline. Assignments with due dates prior to this deadline must be submitted by the late-assignment due date (no later than 11:59 p.m.).
6. Late penalties will still apply to assignments turned in as part of the completion of an incomplete grade, unless the student provides documentation of a reasonable accommodation through the Department of Access and Inclusion.
7. Students who have been given an incomplete grade are responsible for communicating with the instructor directly via email when a missing assignment has been submitted. In other words, do not simply submit the assignment on Canvas without informing the instructor.
8. Following the completion of the missing assignments, students are also responsible for reviewing their grade in WarriorWeb to confirm that the instructor has submitted a change of grade. If not, they should notify the instructor via email immediately.
9. The instructor reserves the right to make appropriate exceptions to the above policies; however, this is almost never done. Exceptions will also need the approval of the department chair.

University Writing Center

The University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (TAMUCT) is a free service open to all TAMUCT students. For the Spring 2021 semester, all services will be online as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. The hours of operation are from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday thru Thursday with satellite hours Monday thru Thursday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. The UWC is also offering hours from 12:00-3:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by making an appointment via WOnline [<https://tamuct.mywconline.com/>]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC and/or need any assistance with scheduling.

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].
