STUDENT-INSTRUCTOR INTERACTION

Most communication between the instructor and students will be via Canvas. However, students can contact me via Canvas and email. All students are able to schedule either a Zoom meeting or a telephone conference. I do not maintain office hours, as I am not regularly on campus during the semester.

I will check and reply to student emails on a daily basis – students should expect a response within 24 hours Monday-Friday. Any deviations from this will be announced on Canvas. Checking Canvas frequently is important, as this is where any class announcements will be posted. Messages sent over the weekend can expect a response the following Monday.

It is HIGHLY recommended that you go into your “settings” in Canvas, select “notifications”, and elect to receive emails when announcements are made. You are responsible for obtaining information in a timely manner.

My preferred method of electronic student interaction is via Canvas. All students should identify the class they are in, use proper salutations and signatures, identify a question, be succinct, and maintain professionalism in any correspondence.

Required Textbooks
Supplementary materials are available in Canvas. Students are responsible for supplementary materials.

REQUIRED COURSE WORK

Five (5) Discussion entries 20 pts each (100 pts)
Points are awarded to students, based on the quality of response. Quality pertains to a student’s responding in relevant, meaningful ways, based upon the assigned readings for that week.

Netiquette: All students are expected to follow rules of common courtesy and professionalism in all correspondence and assignments. Students may wish to refer to the Student Handbook (located under Student Affairs/Student Conduct on the Texas A&M University-Central Texas website) for further information along these lines. Inappropriate or offensive messages or remarks will not be tolerated and may result in expulsion from the course.

Note: I encourage you all to reply to your classmate’s posts. Doing so will encourage discussion. Additionally, it will likely enhance your grade. It is highly unlikely that you will obtain the maximum number of points without engaging in discussion with your peers.

Exam 1 (100 points) – 25 questions; 90 minutes
Exam 2 (100 points) – 25 questions; 90 minutes
Exam 3 (100 points) – 25 questions; 90 minutes
Exam 4 (100 points) – 25 questions; 90 minutes

OTHER INFORMATION REGARDING THE COURSE

Late assignments: Late assignments will not be accepted. The only possible deviation from this policy is the unlikely event the student or close family member has an unexpected serious medical situation. This MAY be an allowable excuse to make up a missed EXAM only, no other assignments. Documentation will be required and notice of such a circumstance should be communicated to me as soon as you become aware of it. If you work on the weekends, have a job that requires you to be on call, or have other obligations you should complete your work early to avoid any zeros for missed assignments.

Supplementary Material: Additional information will be given that supplements the topics to be addressed. This supplementary material is designed to broaden the educational experience and create more variety to the usual lecture/discussion format of class presentations. You are responsible for all information in the supplementary material.

Extra Credit: Extra credit is not available in this class.
Note: I will ONLY accept assignments that are submitted properly: through Canvas. You MUST submit the assignment in the appropriate location within the assignments section.

Posting of Grades: All student grades will be posted in the Canvas grade book and students should monitor their grading status through this tool. Students should generally expect grades to be posted within one week after the assignment’s due date. Deviations from this schedule will be announced on Canvas. Grade posting is due on December 13, but that is my deadline; grades will be posted on December 11, 2021. This requires all students to be completed with all work, so no deadline extensions will exceed December 10 regardless of issue that is presented.

Grading Criteria Rubric and Conversion:
Final course grades will be assessed on the following scale:

<table>

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS
A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L). Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don’t agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don’t be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html.

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2. Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information https://www.tamuct.edu/bit. If a person’s behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5805.
