COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Assignments

- Performance Assessments
 - You will partake in performance exams throughout the semester.
 - These will be solo performances. For any of the performances, you may be asked to perform in front of the class, record the performance and/or upload your performance to the Canvas website/YouTube.
 - Expectations are different for students based on their experience level with Woodwind instruments:
 - Woodwind players (Flute, Clarinet): you will spend the majority of your performance time learning to play the woodwind instruments you are not familiar with.
 - Non-Woodwind players: you will spend approximately 30% of your performance time on Flute & 30% on Clarinet, with the remaining 40% dedicated to Oboe, Bassoon and Saxophone.
 - Unfortunately, there will be limited exposure to Oboe and Bassoon depending on availability of instruments.
- Quizzes, Test & Exams Short quizzes will be given at various times throughout the semester at the beginning of class or on Canvas
 - They could be based on any material that has been read, presented, discussed, etc. as part of the class.
 - Written midterm and final exams will be given.
 - The grade necessary to pass any exam, quiz or test, is 70%.

- If a grade is not achieved, and the assignment is completed on time, then the instructor has the right to give an alternative quiz/assessment. For any quiz given to assess comprehension of reading material not passed, the student will provide a detailed outline of the content covered by the next class. If not turned in by the next class, the opportunity to improve one's grade will no longer be available.
- Woodwind methods notebook
 - Either a three-ring binder or digital file containing used information to refer to when you are teaching. Information should include items such as fingering charts, technical ideas, mouthpiece information etc.
- Woodwind Performance Listening
 - You will locate an inspirational (to you) Woodwind recording and share it with of 3-5 minutes in length and present it to the class with your comments on what students should listen for in the piece
- Major Project – “Start Up Lessons”
 - You will give a “first day” lesson on each instrument
 - The lesson will be 5-10 minutes
 - The goal will be to have the student produce a quality tone on the head joint/mouthpiece, then how to properly hold the instrument and play their first note
 - If the student is able to do that quickly, progress onto other notes beginning students should learn in early lessons
 - Think at the beginning of the semester who your “students” could be. Lessons may be given to the other classmates

NOTE: At times, it may be necessary to add or adapt assignments for the benefit of student learning. If this is the case, all necessary information will be provided, and students will be given an appropriate amount of time to complete the assignment.

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online

[https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [https://www.tamuct.edu/bit]. If a person's behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5805.
