Social Inequalities

Class Location: Online via Canvas

Professor: Roslyn Schoen, PhD

Office: HH 204b or via WebEx

Office Hours: By appointment

Contact: roslyn.schoen@tamuct.edu

Course Description: This course examines social inequality and categories of difference from a sociological perspective. Students will interrogate social difference and stratification on the basis of race/ethnicity, class, gender, religion, and sexuality by examining how these categories are constructed, institutionalized, and experienced. This course will also focus on economic and labor-based inequality through the lens of contemporary global processes.

Course objectives:

- Students will gain social, cultural, and global perspectives in thinking about human difference and inequalities.
- Students will develop critical thinking skills by using theory to draw connections between domestic and international social inequalities.
- Students will be able to place contemporary patterns of social inequality in a historical context.
- By the conclusion of the course, students will be able to identify mechanisms and processes in contemporary life that contribute to patterns of inequality both across the U.S. and between the U.S. and other countries.

Mode of instruction and course access:

This course is 100% online and uses the A&M-Central Texas CANVAS Learning Management System [<https://tamuct.instructure.com>]. CANVAS is where you will find 100% of the information related to this course, including discussions, quizzes, and exams. Monitor CANVAS for announcements every day, not just on the days things are due/assigned, since due dates occasionally may change.

Course requirements:

Below is a description of the main activities for this course. They include (1) reading assignments, (2) one essay, (3) participation on the course discussion boards, (4) quizzes, and (5) one midterm and one final exam.

It is imperative that you keep up with readings and weekly assignments. Students who ignore the weekly assignments and attempt to “catch up” later in the semester have a very difficult time passing the course.

- 1. Reading assignments and other materials: Readings for the course are listed in the schedule below. Students should complete as much of the readings as possible before coming to class on Tuesdays. Complete the weekly readings before attempting to complete an assignment, including discussion boards. Additional readings will be available online in the course E-Reserves folder. E-Reserve readings are marked on the course schedule as “eRes” readings and are just as important as the readings from your book. *Our E-Reserve password is: unequal (all lower case)
- 2. Essay: Students will compose one essay that reflects on the book by Pascale. Essays should be 700-1,000 words and are your opportunity to demonstrate that you have completed the book and have engaged in thoughtful consideration of the facts and themes contained within. This essay does not need a title page. It should be single spaced, 12-point font, 1-inch margins, with a reference list and in-text citations. Students should use ASA or APA style. The essay is worth 100 points and a grading rubric will be available to you on Canvas.
- 3. Discussion Boards: Students will regularly participate on our course discussion board. Your primary/initial postings will address my discussion question(s) and should be made by midnight (11:59 PM CST) on that Thursday. Once several initial posts have been made, you will move on by reading and responding to at least two of your peers’ primary posts. Response posts commenting and reflecting upon the comments of your peers should be made by midnight (11:59 PM CST) each Sunday. Late posts will not receive credit.

*Please see the detailed instructions for discussion boards posted to Canvas.

- 4. Quizzes: Students will take 5 quizzes at regular intervals throughout the course. Quizzes will cover the readings and other material assigned for the same week. On weeks when you have a quiz, you should first complete the readings and take notes. Prepare and manage your time wisely; you will not be able to re-take a quiz, nor can you re-open a quiz once you have started it. Quizzes will be available from Wednesday afternoon until Sunday at 11:59 PM CST. There are no makeup quizzes. The Sunday night deadline is final.
- 5. Exams: There will be one midterm and one final exam this semester. These exams will cover readings, discussion boards, films, and any other supplemental material we engaged with. The format will be a combination of closed choice and essay questions.

Posting of Grades:

- All student grades will be posted using the CANVAS grade book and students should monitor their grade status through this tool.
- Students should always refer to the syllabus for total points and points possible. The Canvas gradebook tool may misinform students from time to time.
- Grades will usually be posted within 7-10 days of due dates. Some assignments could require more time to read through and give individualized feedback. For such assessments, you may need to be patient.

Assignment	Points
Discussion board participation (5 @ 20 points)	100
Quizzes	100
Essay	100
Midterm exam	100

A student may only make up the final exam if there is illness, injury, or another documented excuse. If a student misses an exam due to illness, injury, something out of their control they must 1. Provide documentation (doctor's note, police report, etc.), 2. Notify Dr. Schoen as soon as possible of intent to take a make-up exam, and 3. Prepare to take the make-up exam within 1 week of the excused absence. Students who miss an exam with no excused absence will receive a zero for that exam. If the student foresees that s/he will be unable to complete the course, then s/he should drop the course or accept the posted grade.

Plagiarism policy

Plagiarism on any assignment (discussion boards, quizzes, journals, etc) will not be tolerated. Students are responsible for understanding what constitutes plagiarism. If you are confused, please ask me.

If an assignment is found to be plagiarized, the student will receive a zero for that assignment and a referral to Student Affairs.

University Writing Center: Located in Warrior Hall 416, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (A&M–Central Texas) is a free service open to all A&M–Central Texas students. The hours of operation are from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday thru Thursday in Warrior Hall 416 (with online tutoring available every hour as well) with satellite hours available online only Monday thru Thursday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. and Saturday 12:00-3:00 p.m.

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online

[https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [https://www.tamuct.edu/bit].
