Course requirements:

Below is a description of the seven main activities for this online course. They include (1) reading assignments, (2) discussion board postings, (3) online weekly quizzes, (4) mid-term exam, (5) DuBois reflection paper, and (5) final exam.

1. Reading assignments and other materials: Readings from the textbook are listed in the course schedule below and in the WEEKLY MODULES I have posted for you our course site. Students should complete the weekly readings before attempting to take a quiz or replying to a discussion board thread.

I may also provide you with links to news articles or video clips in the weekly MODULE folders. Quizzes and your final exam may include questions on any of the readings, supplemental videos, and news articles.

2. Discussion Boards: Each weekly unit contains a discussion board question. Your original post addressing the weekly discussion question I post to you each week should be made no later than 5pm (CST) each Wednesday. Final postings commenting upon your peers' posts and answering anybody who posted to your initial response should be made no later than 11:59pm (CST) each Sunday -- late postings will not be given credit. If you do not post on time each Wednesday you will earn a six point out of ten point deduction because I am attempting to create an "engaged discussion" amongst your peers, you, and I.

Posting late or waiting until the last minute before the forum closes does not foster a discussion. So, please post on time and do not wait until the last minute (ie: 5pm on Wednesday or 11pm on Sunday).

The discussion board responses are evaluated on thoroughness, ability to think critically about the subject matter, and use of course content and terms. I am assessing if you are mastering the course material, so make sure you refer to the textbook or any films we watch in this class to show me you are engaging with the material and are knowing how to apply it. Glib and non-critical discussion board responses will not receive credit. Thus, if you are flippant with your comments, you will receive a zero-point value for that week's discussion. Discussion board participation is mandatory. Your weekly postings will be assessed by the following guidelines and, as you can see, this rubric heavily assesses the peer-to-peer engagement and quality of your postings. See below:

Weekly Discussion Posting Grading Criteria (Rubric)	Weekly Point Value = 10
Meaningful Ideas: Ideas examine the topic from a race and ethnicity theoretical perspective that contributes to the group understanding of the topic.	3
Message Coherence: Messages explain issues, effectively questions, or meaningfully elaborates on the topic by using course material. You MUST USE and DEFINE course terms and APPLY those terms in your initial post each week. These terms and theories are in your textbook. Make sure to cite the page numbers and so you do not plagiarize words or ideas.	3
Relevance of Replies to those who Responded to Initial Post: Responds to the people who are engaging with your ideas via your initial post and relate it back to the course content.	2
Relevance of Replies to Other Messages: Responses elaborates, contradicts, modifies, or explains the original message. DO NOT state "I agree with...." Or "I like what you said...." posts. You need to add something intellectual to the conversation and "I agree" or "I like" comments are not intellectual contributions and will not receive credit.	2

Students will participate on our course discussion board for 16 of the 16 weeks. There are 150 points in total for the discussion board posts. The introductory discussion board during the first week is not graded. All other discussion boards (week two to 16) will be graded.

- A. The initial, primary response should reflect familiarity with the readings, and should answer the question as completely and thoughtfully as possible. Responses must demonstrate substance beyond the student's agreement with a statement or the mere expression of opinions. The student should support his/her responses in some way with references to the assigned readings or data from another course source.A note on quotations: Discussion posts should be in your own words. You can assume everyone has done the readings, so there is no need to re-state large portions of the reading material in your posts. Please use quotations sparingly, i.e., only to orient one another to specific, brief passages in the readings (with page numbers cited in parentheses). Posts that include mostly quotations or lengthy quotations will not receive any credit. This ill-advised practice merely adds clutter to the discussion process and is inappropriate for our purposes.

B. Additional Secondary Response

After another student has made his/her own initial response, the student must make a secondary response to what another student wrote. This secondary response need not be a half page in length, but it should entail at least a couple of sentences or more. This secondary response should be substantive, and you should attempt to support your response in some way from the readings. Make sure to cite your textbook by using course information in your posts). Remember that your primary task is NOT to agree or disagree, but to analyze another's post in a thoughtful, critical (and respectful) way.

C. My Responses: Dr. Schulhoff will frequently respond to selected posts and threads. It is the student's responsibility to read her responses to these posts. Sometimes inaccurate information is presented by students that should be corrected, and the purpose of instructor replies is to alert the class to such information. Your professors' intent is to make sure the concept has been covered adequately, not to engage in a debate on the topic.

D. Netiquette: All students are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all messages and threaded discussions. Students may refer to the Student Handbook (located under Student Affairs/Student Conduct on the Texas A&M University-Central Texas website) for further information along these lines. Please also see the note on appropriate communication located in the "Syllabus & Course Requirements" folder on Canvas. Inappropriate or offensive messages or remarks may result in expulsion from the course or a 0 for the assignment.

3. Online Weekly Quizzes: You will have weekly quizzes covering lectures, videos, and readings for the week. You will need to complete the quizzes using the course website on Canvas. You can locate the quizzes in the "Weekly MODULES" tab under the section entitled "Quiz #." Each Sunday, at 12pm Central Standard Time (CST), quizzes will become available to you. You must complete the quiz by 11:59pm CST the following Sunday. If you fail to complete your quiz by that time you will receive a "0". There are no makeup quizzes. Quizzes are worth 10 points each (15 weeks) for a total of 150 points.

Note: Questions from the quizzes will help you prepare for the final exam because certain questions will reappear on the final. You can print out or save your weekly quiz results and use that information to help you study for the final exam.

4. Midterm Exam: There will be one midterm exam that covers readings, videos, and any other supplemental material we cover. The midterm will be 50 questions (T/F, Multiple Choice, Short Answer) at 2 points per question and is worth 100 points..
5. DuBois Reflection Paper: You will read the book "The Souls of Black Folk" by W.E.B DuBois and write a reflection about his concept of double-consciousness, his writing style, and any other insights his book evokes. Detailed directions and a grading rubric will be provided later. You can find his book in the TAMUCT digital library. This assignment is worth 100 points.
6. Final Exam: There will be one final exam that covers readings, discussion boards, and any other supplemental material we engaged with during the semester. You can expect the format of the fifty questions exam to be a combination of multiple choice, matching, true/false, and short answer questions. This exam will be available from December 7th at midnight (CST) until December 13th at 11:59 pm (CST). Once you open the exam you cannot close it or return to it later. You will need to complete the exam one it is opened, so be prepared to take the 1 hour 45 minute 50 question exam at one time. The final exam is worth 100 points (50 questions @ 2points each = 100 points in total).

EVALUATION OF LEARNING:

Students will be evaluated through their participation in weekly discussion boards, weekly quizzes, one final exam, a neighborhood research paper, six journal entries, and a peer review of your classmates' journals. - The turn-around time for grades once you submit your assignment is seven to 14 days.

Makeup Policy

This is a 100% online course. You are responsible for managing your time to make sure you complete all assignments on time. There are no make-ups for discussion posts or quizzes. A student may only make up an exam if there is illness, injury, or another university documented excuse. If a student misses an exam due to illness, injury, something out of their control they must 1. Provide documentation (doctor's note, police report, etc), 2. Must notify me as soon as possible of intent to take a make-up exam, and 3. Prepare to take the make-up exam within three days of the excused absence. Students who miss an exam with no excused absence will receive a zero on the exam. If the student foresees that s/he will be unable to complete the exam, then s/he should drop the course or accept the posted grade.

Grade Discrepancy

Policy for Challenging Grades

If you think that one of your assignments has been graded incorrectly, you have the right to challenge that grade. The procedure is as follows:

Carefully review the grade that you received and the reason for that grade. If you continue to think that your grade may have been reached in error:

- a. Type up an email or word document entitled "Assignment (# or title) Grade Discrepancy." The email should include the reasons that you think the assignment grade is not accurate. Be specific in your reasons about why this issue should be addressed and the reasons you think there is not a correct grade reflected. You must have specific, logical, and well thought out proof that addresses your specific concerns for it to be valid.

- b. After you have written your claim, I would be more than happy to discuss and review any grade concerns. Please make an appointment to the email address aschulhoff@tamuct.edu and attach your claim via a word document.

No grade will be changed unless you have demonstrated a valid claim and have gone through this procedure.

University Writing Center

Located in Warrior Hall 416, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (TAMUCT) is a free workspace open to all TAMUCT students from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday thru Thursday with satellite hours in the University Library Monday thru Thursday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. This semester, the UWC is also offering online only hours from 12:00-3:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by visiting the UWC during normal operating hours (both half-hour and hour sessions are available) or by making an appointment via WCOOnline [<https://tamuct.mywconline.com/>]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC and/or need any assistance with scheduling.

University Library

The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 250,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 85,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available 24 hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place on Skype or in-person at the library. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events. A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, who are exhibiting behaviors that pose a threat to safety, or individuals causing a significant disruption to our community, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/bat.html].
