COURSE INFORMATION

Course Overview and description

This course addresses understanding, demonstrating knowledge of, and implementing effective instructional strategies. Students will learn how to communicate effective instructional strategies; how to create student engagement in the classroom through instructional strategies; how to select appropriate materials and resources to design and develop effective instructional strategies; and, promote students’ use of feedback, grouping techniques, and other effective instructional strategies.

Overview: Topics include the effective instructional strategies, including use of feedback, grouping techniques, and other effective instructional strategies.

Course Objective or Goal

Upon completion of this course students will understand and be able to implement effective instructional strategies in the classroom. These include: use of feedback, grouping techniques, and other effective instructional strategies.

Upon successful completion of this course, the pre-service teacher will:

- Know how to use instructional strategies to promote student engagement
- Know how to effectively communicate instructional strategies
- Know how to implement effective instructional strategies, such as leading discussions
- Know how to implement effective feedback strategies
- Know how to use resources and materials to create effective instructional strategies

This course will focus on High Leverage Practice #1, with the intention of expanding preservice teacher candidates’ use and awareness of the strategy:

Eliciting and interpreting student thinking: Teachers pose questions that create space for students to share their thinking about specific academic content. They seek to understand student thinking, including novel points of view, new ideas, ways of thinking, or alternative conceptions. Teachers draw out student thinking through carefully chosen questions and tasks and attend closely to what students do and say. They consider and check alternative interpretations of student ideas and methods. Teachers are attentive to how students might hear their questions and to how students communicate their own thinking. Teachers use what they learn about students to guide instructional decisions, and to surface ideas that will benefit other students. By eliciting and interpreting student thinking, the teacher positions students as sense-makers and centers their thinking as valuable.

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don’t agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don’t be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [https://www.tamuct.edu/bit]. If a person’s behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5805.
