Required Reading and Textbook(s)

Project Management: Achieving Competitive Advantage, 5th Edition. Jeffrey K. Pinto, ©2019, Pearson, 9780134730332

Optional / Reference Texts:

1. A Guide to the Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMBOK Guide) 6th Edition, Project Management Institute (PMI) 2017. ISBN: 9781628251845.
2. American Psychological Association. (2009). Publication Manual of American Psychological Association (6th ed.). Washington, D.C

Note: A student of this institution is not under any obligation to purchase a textbook from a university-affiliated bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Reading Assignments: All assigned chapters along with assigned readings will be used for class and/or canvas discussions. Students are expected to study the assigned readings before each class session.

Supplementary Material: The course textbook will be supplemented with other materials that may include research papers readings, handouts, oral presentations, industry articles, videos including TED talks, research paper readings, case studies, power point presentations etc.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Course Requirements:

Examinations: There will be three exams. The first two exams must be taken in person during class time. The third exam may be a take home exam. Each exam will be worth 20 points. The exams will consist of multiple-choice questions (to be answered online via Canvas).

The exams will all be open book / open notes and will be available via Canvas. For the exams, you will be required to know not only the material from the textbook chapters, but also material from the class lectures such as power point slides and any supplementary/additional material provided.

Semester wide individual project: Students will research and prepare a project management plan for an IT Project (more details will be available on Canvas soon). The project assignment is worth 20 points. Projects turned in after due date are considered late. 5% or 4 points will be deducted for each day the assignment is late. The due date for the individual project is May 9th mid night (11:59 PM). Projects turned in after due date are considered late.

Individual Homework assignments: There will be four individual homework assignments based on either the material covered in class or project management case studies (to be provided) involving a real-world organization. Students will get two weeks to work on each of the homework assignment. Each homework assignment is worth 5 points and 1 point will be deducted for each day assignment is submitted late.

Grading Criteria Rubric and Conversion

Item	Quantity	Points	Total / Percent
Exams	3	20	60
Individual Homework's	4	5	20
Semester long individual project	1	20	20
Total			100

Exams, homework assignments, and individual project will receive a numeric score (0-100) each. These scores will be converted to points and totaled to ultimately be converted to letter grade of A, B, C, D, or F as shown in the example below:

	Percent earned by Student	Max points	Points to be added to the final grade
Exam 1	78%	20	15.6
Exam 2	85%	20	17
Exam 3	90%	20	18
Homework 1	60%	5	3
Homework 2	75%	5	3.75
Homework 3	80%	5	4
Homework 4	88%	5	4.4
Semester long individual project report	65%	20	13
TOTAL		100	78.75

- 89.5 – 100 = A
- 79.5 – 89.49999 = B
- 69.5 – 79.49999 = C
- 59.5 – 69.49999 = D
- Below 59.5 = F

Grades will not be curved (in the above example, the student with 78.75 will receive a C NOT a B).

Posting of Grades

All student grades will be posted on the Canvas Grade Book and students should monitor their grading status through this tool. Grades will be posted within two weeks after the availability date for homework's. Grades for the exams will be available as soon as students submits the exams. Grades for the project will be available just before posting of the final letter grades.

Grading Policies

Refer to the late policy for individual homework's and projects above.

UNIVERSITY RESOURCES, PROCEDURES, AND GUIDELINES

Drop Policy

If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete the Drop Request Dynamic Form through Warrior Web.

[<https://dynamicforms.ngwebsolutions.com/casAuthentication.ashx?InstID=eaed95b9-f2be-45f3-a37d-46928168bc10&targetUrl=https%3A%2F%2Fdynamicforms.ngwebsolutions.com%2Fsubmit%2FForm%2FStart%2F53b8369e-0502-4f36-be43-f02a4202f612>].

Faculty cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Registrar’s Office will provide a deadline on the Academic Calendar for which the form must be completed. Once you submit the completed form to the Registrar’s Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Registrar's Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.

Academic Integrity

Texas A&M University-Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. All academic misconduct concerns will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct. When in doubt on collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.

For more information regarding the Student Conduct process, [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct.html].

If you know of potential honor violations by other students, you may submit a report, [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=0].

Academic Accommodations

At Texas A&M University-Central Texas, we value an inclusive learning environment where every student has an equal chance to succeed and has the right to a barrier-free education. The Warrior Center for Student Success, Equity and Inclusion is responsible for ensuring that students with a disability receive equal access to the university's programs, services and activities. If you believe you have a disability requiring reasonable accommodations, please contact the Office of Access and Inclusion, WH-212; or call (254) 501-5836. Any information you provide is private and confidential and will be treated as such.

Important information for Pregnant and/or Parenting Students

Texas A&M University-Central Texas supports students who are pregnant and/or parenting. In accordance with requirements of Title IX and related guidance from US Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights, the Dean of Student Affairs' Office can assist students who are pregnant and/or parenting in seeking accommodations related to pregnancy and/or parenting. Students should seek out assistance as early in the pregnancy as possible. For more information, please visit Student Affairs [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/pregnant-and-parenting-students.html]. Students may also contact the institution's Title IX Coordinator. If you would like to read more about these requirements and guidelines online, please visit the website [http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/pregnancy.pdf].

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex and gender—including pregnancy, parenting, and all related conditions. A&M-Central Texas is able to provide flexible and individualized reasonable accommodation to pregnant and parenting students. All pregnant and parenting students should contact the Associate Dean in the Division of Student Affairs at (254) 501-5909 to seek out assistance. Students may also contact the University's Title IX Coordinator.

Tutoring

Tutoring is available to all A&M-Central Texas students, both virtually and in-person. Student success coaching is available online upon request.

If you have a question, are interested in becoming a tutor, or in need of success coaching contact the Warrior Center for Student Success, Equity and Inclusion at (254) 501-5836, visit the Warrior Center at 212 Warrior Hall, or by emailing WarriorCenter@tamuct.edu.

University Writing Center

University Writing Center: Located in Warrior Hall 416, the University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (A&M–Central Texas) is a free service open to all A&M–Central Texas students. For the Spring 2022 semester, the hours of operation are from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday thru Thursday in Warrior Hall 416 (with online tutoring available every hour as well) with satellite hours available online only Monday thru Thursday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. and Saturday 12:00-3:00 p.m.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. In addition, students may work independently in the UWC by checking out a laptop that runs the Microsoft Office suite and connects to WIFI, or by consulting our resources on writing, including all of the relevant style guides. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by making an appointment via WConline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC, need any assistance with scheduling, or would like to schedule a recurring appointment with your favorite tutor by making an appointment via WCOOnline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC, need any assistance with scheduling, or would like to schedule a recurring appointment with your favorite tutor.

University Library

The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 400,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 96,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available 24 hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place virtually through WebEx, Microsoft Teams or in-person at the library. Schedule an appointment here [https://tamuct.libcal.com/appointments/?g=6956]. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events. For more information, please visit our Library website [http://tamuct.libguides.com/index].

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html].

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [https://www.tamuct.edu/bit]. If a person's behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5805.

OTHER POLICIES

Policies related to absence, grading, etc.

You are responsible for all class material presented during an absence.

- Individual homework's, exams and project must be submitted through Canvas and due on the specified due date/time. No email submissions will be accepted except under unforeseen circumstances.
- Late penalty will be applied to individual homework(s) and project submitted after due dates. Refer to late submission policy for these items above.
- Plagiarism check will be carried out using plagiarism check software built into Canvas available from University. Rephrasing and citing sources properly or quoting with proper citations are important for homework(s) and project (if applicable).

My personal statement

- I am almost always available via email and typically respond within 24 hours except on weekends. Student may also request virtual meeting(s) during any day of the week.
- I prefer email to phone conversations.
- I reserve the right to modify the course syllabus during the semester for the benefit of the students.
- I reserve the right to supplement materials presented in the text with additional course material that may help the students to understand the topic better.
- I reserve the right to modify grading policy rubrics. Any change to grading rubrics will be applied to current and possible future assignments.

Copyright Notice

Students should assume that all course material is copyrighted by the respective author(s). Reproduction of course material is prohibited without consent by the author and/or course instructor. Violation of copyright is against the law and Texas A&M University-Central Texas' Code of Academic Honesty. All alleged violations will be reported to the Office of Student Conduct.
