COURSE INFORMATION

Course Overview and Description

This course introduces students to basic web design using HTML and CSS. The course does not require any prior knowledge of HTML or web design. Students learn how to plan and design effective web pages; implement web pages by writing HTML and CSS code; enhance web pages with the use of page layout techniques, text formatting, graphics, and images; and produce a functional, multi-page website.

Course Objective or Goal

This course presents a comprehensive introduction to the development of effective web sites. Intended for beginning web development students, the course provides both the necessary hard skills (such as HTML5, CSS, and JavaScript) considered fundamental to contemporary web development.

Student Learning Outcomes

At the conclusion of the course, the student will be able to:

CL01: Create web pages using HTML.

CL02: Design effective web sites.

CL03: Use CSS to style web pages.

CL04: Demonstrate knowledge of a well-known web-based scripting language of JavaScript.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Meet & Greet Discussion Forum: This assignment will be an in-class discussion where we introduce ourselves to one another. Only share what you are comfortable with. The Meet & Greet discussion forum is worth a maximum of ten (10) points.

Group Discussion Forums: There will be ten (10) in-class group discussion forums. The group discussion forums will initiate with an instructor posed question. Continued conversations outside of the classroom are encouraged. All students are expected to participate in the required group discussion forums, which are worth a maximum of five (5) points each for a maximum total of 50 points. Note: The group discussion forums may introduce new material (beyond the course textbook) and thus may require students to utilize established critical thinking and research skills.

Quizzes: There will be ten (10) at-home quizzes to be completed in the A&M-Central Texas Canvas Learning Management System. Each quiz includes 20 multiple-choice questions to be answered in a 55-minute timeframe. Each quiz includes two (2) attempts with the highest score recorded in the grade book. Each quiz is worth a maximum of fifteen (15) points each for a maximum total of 150 points.

Group Case Studies: There will be five (5) in-class and at-home group case studies (for which students will self-enroll into groups at a number determined by the instructor (dependent on enrollment)). Students will be presented with a choice of four (4) company case studies for which they must choose one (1). Students (working within their selected groups) will align efforts and complete required case study tasks (as specified by the instructor) during weeks 3, 6, 9, 12, and 15. Upon completion, the students (one per group) will upload the completed files (as specified by the instructor) to Canvas (using the appropriate link). The group case studies will be graded using the Group Case Study Grading Rubric as found later in this syllabus and as it appears in Canvas. Note: All groups will be provided an opportunity to improve (if they so choose) after the initial grading period. All students are required to participate in the Group Case Studies fully. Fully participating student grades will not be impacted by students not fully participating. Each one-attempt case study is worth a maximum of thirty-five (35) points each for a maximum total of 175 points.

Individual Website Project: There will be one (1) at-home individual website project. Students will construct a website of their choice utilizing newly learned skills further reinforced by the Group Case Studies. Note: Each student must craft an original website. Upon completion, the student will upload the completed individual website project to Canvas (using the appropriate link). Note: The Individual Web Site Project is open the entire semester (noting students must submit the completed project by the stated deadline). The individual website project will be graded using the Individual Web Site Project Grading Rubric as found later in this syllabus and as it appears in Canvas. Each one-attempt individual website project is worth a maximum of seventy-five (75) points each for a maximum total of 75 points.

Individual Website Presentation: There will be one (1) in-class individual website presentation. Students will present their constructed individual websites to the instructor and their peers in Week 16. The individual website presentation will be graded using the Individual Website Presentation Grading Rubric as found later in this syllabus and as it appears in Canvas. Each one-attempt individual website presentation is worth a maximum of 40 points for a maximum total of 40 points. Note: A primary goal of the individual website presentation is to solicit feedback from the instructor and classmates so a student may further refine their website after course completion (and additionally provide your peers with constructive criticism and positive reinforcement).

Grading Criteria Rubric and Conversion

UNIVERSITY RESOURCES, PROCEDURES, AND GUIDELINES

Drop Policy

If you discover that you need to drop this class, you must complete the Drop Request Dynamic Form through Warrior Web.

[<https://dynamicforms.ngwebsolutions.com/casAuthentication.ashx?InstID=eaed95b9-f2be-45f3-a37d-46928168bc10&targetUrl=https%3A%2F%2Fdynamicforms.ngwebsolutions.com%2FSubmit%2FForm%2FStart%2F53b8369e-0502-4f36-be43-f02a4202f612>].

Faculty cannot drop students; this is always the responsibility of the student. The Registrar's Office will provide a deadline on the Academic Calendar for which the form must be completed. Once you submit the completed form to the Registrar's Office, you must go into Warrior Web and confirm that you are no longer enrolled. If you still show as enrolled, FOLLOW-UP with the Registrar's Office immediately. You are to attend class until the procedure is complete to avoid a penalty for absence. Should you miss the drop deadline or fail to follow the procedure, you will receive an F in the course, which may affect your financial aid and/or VA educational benefits.

Academic Integrity

Texas A&M University-Central Texas values the integrity of the academic enterprise and strives for the highest standards of academic conduct. A&M-Central Texas expects its students, faculty, and staff to support the adherence to high standards of personal and scholarly conduct to preserve the honor and integrity of the creative community. Any deviation by students from this expectation may result in a failing grade for the assignment and potentially a failing grade for the course. All academic misconduct concerns will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct. When in doubt about collaboration, citation, or any issue, please contact your instructor before taking a course of action.

For more information regarding the Student Conduct process, [<https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct.html>].

If you know of potential honor violations by other students, you may submit a report [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=0].

Important information for Pregnant and/or Parenting Students

Texas A&M University-Central Texas supports students who are pregnant and/or parenting. In accordance with requirements of Title IX and related guidance from US Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights, the Dean of Student Affairs' Office can assist students who are pregnant and/or parenting in seeking accommodations related to pregnancy and/or parenting. Students should seek out assistance as early in the pregnancy as possible. For more information, please visit Student Affairs [https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/pregnant-and-parenting-students.html]. Students may also contact the institution's Title IX Coordinator. If you would like to read more about these requirements and guidelines online, please visit the website [http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/pregnancy.pdf].

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex and gender—including pregnancy, parenting, and all related conditions. A&M-Central Texas is able to provide flexible and individualized reasonable accommodation to pregnant and parenting students. All pregnant and parenting students should contact the Associate Dean in the Division of Student Affairs at (254) 501-5909 to seek out assistance. Students may also contact the University's Title IX Coordinator.

Tutoring

Tutoring is available to all A&M-Central Texas students, both virtually and in-person. Student success coaching is available online upon request. University Writing Center

University Writing Center: The University Writing Center (UWC) at Texas A&M University–Central Texas (TAMUCT) is a free service open to all TAMUCT students. For the Spring 2022 semester, all services will be online as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. The hours of operation are from 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Monday thru Thursday with satellite hours Monday thru Thursday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. The UWC is also offering hours from 12:00-3:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Tutors are prepared to help writers of all levels and abilities at any stage of the writing process. By providing a practice audience for students' ideas and writing, our tutors highlight the ways in which they read and interpret students' texts, offering guidance and support throughout the various stages of the writing process. While tutors will not write, edit, or grade papers, they will assist students in developing more effective composing practices. Whether you need help brainstorming ideas, organizing an essay, proofreading, understanding proper citation practices, or just want a quiet place to work, the UWC is here to help!

Students may arrange a one-to-one session with a trained and experienced writing tutor by making an appointment via WOnline [https://tamuct.mywconline.com/]. In addition, you can email Dr. Bruce Bowles Jr. at bruce.bowles@tamuct.edu if you have any questions about the UWC and/or need any assistance with scheduling.

University Library

The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 400,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 96,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available 24 hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place virtually through WebEx, Microsoft Teams or in-person at the library. Schedule an appointment here [https://tamuct.libcal.com/appointments/?g=6956]. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group workspaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. Services such as interlibrary loan, TexShare, binding, and laminating are available. The library frequently offers workshops, tours, readings, and other events. For more information, please visit our Library website [http://tamuct.libguides.com/index].

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Wellness and Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage [<https://www.tamuct.edu/compliance/titleix.html>].

Behavioral Intervention

Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2].

Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information [<https://www.tamuct.edu/student-affairs/bat.html>]. If a person's behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5800.

OTHER POLICIES

The instructor reserves the right to modify the course syllabus during the semester for the benefit of the students.

The instructor reserves the right to supplement materials presented in the text with additional course material that may help the students better understand a topic(s).

Copyright Notice

Students should assume that all course material is copyrighted by the respective author(s). Reproduction of course material is prohibited without consent by the author and/or course instructor. Violation of copyright is against the law and Texas A&M University-Central Texas' Code of Academic Honesty. All alleged violations will be reported to the Office of Student Conduct.
