Required Reading and Textbook(s): Intro to Interdisciplinary Studies

Edition: 3rd ISBN: 9781506346892 By: Repko et al.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

This course has six gradable components:

Discussions

There will be 6 Discussion posts worth 7 points. Discussions will be graded more on the level of engagement with the material than on formal aspects of academic writing, but they should be written clearly and with the audience (your professor and classmates) in mind.

Writing Assignments

There will be 14 Writing Assignments. These assignments will be valued at 10, 15, or 20 points.

Reader Responses will ask students to engage, negotiate, and apply the text material to demonstrate an understanding of interdisciplinarity. Instructions for additional Writing Assignments will be given as needed.

All of these assignments will be graded more on the level of engagement with the material than on formal aspects of academic writing, but they should be written clearly and with the audience (your professor and classmates) in mind.

Poster Assignment (40 points):

This assignment will ask students to demonstrate how a particular issue/problem can be addressed using an interdisciplinary approach. Students will create a digital poster that introduces their selected issue, explains why an interdisciplinary approach is necessary, and proposes relevant disciplines.

Annotated Bibliography (60 points):

The annotated bibliography will demonstrate the importance of disciplinary or naturally interdisciplinary perspectives to an interdisciplinary project.

Students will correctly annotate six articles (either peer reviewed or approved by the instructor) relevant to their final project.

The annotated bibliography will be graded on adherence to MLA or APA style format and the quality of the summary.

Final Project (100 points):

The final project will demonstrate understanding of the interdisciplinary process using the Broad Model Approach presented in the text and will integrate Repko et al.'s 6 steps to further an understanding of your research question.

Ultimately, how you complete the assignment will be up to you.

If you loved the midterm assignment, you may create a series of Digital Slides which contains the information.

Or you may write a more conventional paper using headings and paragraphs.

Detailed Assignment Prompts will be available as the assignments are announced.

Non-gradable Component

Each student has a unique perspective built by their own experiences and learning, and each student's participation in the classroom is key to creating a learning community. Additionally, participation in class discussions builds confidence and prepares students to use their voice and experience for the benefit of any community they inhabit. I realize this will look different in an online course. Your participation will be evident in the online discussions.

Grading Criteria Rubric and Conversion

Each assignment will be weighed as follows:

Discussions 6 @ 7 points each	42
Writing Assignments 10 @10 points	100
3@15	45
1@20	20
Poster Assignment	40
Annotated Bibliography	60
Final Project	100
Semester Participation Points.
TOTAL	387 points=100%

Final grades will be computed according to the following scale:

A= 90%

B= 80%

C= 70%

D= 60%

F= 59% or less

Students will earn the letter grade their percentage designates. 89%, for instance, is a B. Please take every assignment seriously to avoid the frustration of just missing a grade.

Late Work

Students should understand that due dates for assignments are purposeful and not arbitrary. They allow students to work through the course at a pace that allows time for each assignment. As such, I expect assignments to be submitted by the due date.

Late submissions will not be evaluated for a grade.

Posting of Grades

- All assignments will be submitted via CANVAS.
- Assignments will generally be graded and posted on CANVAS within a week.

OPTIONAL POLICY STATEMENTS:

A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas

Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don't agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don't be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage \(Links to an external site.\) [https://www.tamuct.edu/departments/compliance/titleix.php].
