Course Description and Objectives:

This class delves into America's Military History from the colonial era to modern times. American Military History is a complex topic that is often neglected. Through lecture, discussions, readings, and multimedia, the course will examine conflict and its impact on colonial societies and people, move on to the monumental event of the American Revolution, the constitutional establishment of the new nation's armed forces, the American Civil War, the Twentieth Century wars, and the Global War on Terrorism. This course will strengthen your critical thinking, reading, and writing skills, and provide a foundation for understanding the modern world. You will demonstrate the ability to develop and focus on one topic in writing assignments and present ideas in an organized, logical, and coherent form. You will also demonstrate the ability to use Standard English grammar, punctuation, spelling, and usage. Lastly, you will hopefully leave this class with a better understanding of America's past and how it has shaped the present.

Attendance and Participation

Class attendance and participation are crucial elements of the learning experience. Attendance is mandatory. Attendance will be taken daily via Webex. In addition, attendance and participation means staying for the whole class and talking in class with your video on. Do not leave early without speaking to me beforehand. Failure to regularly attend class will result in dire consequences such as failing the class. If there are more than seven unexcused absences, you could fail the course. The professor reserves the right to decrease the overall grade if attendance is poor. Please come to class prepared and ready to discuss the readings assigned for the day.

Quizzes

There will be six reading quizzes online. Each are worth 50 points. The quizzes are based on the assigned reading of the TEXTBOOK throughout the semester. Since the quizzes will be on Canvas there is no reason to miss one.

Exams

There will be two exams in this class. One will be in the mid-term and the other at the end of the term. Each exam will have short answer and essays. The y will be graded for knowledge of content. It will be an exam via Canvas.

Book Reviews

The book reviews will be 900-1100 words long and be modeled after critical reviews in academic journals such as the American Historical Review or The William and Mary Quarterly. A book review concentrates on identifying and critiquing on the author's thesis. What is the author trying to argue, what evidence do they use, and do you agree and disagree? It is not just a simple summary of the book.

Biography Research Proposal and Video Briefing

You will perform primary and secondary historical research on one individual who served in the United States Armed Forces (1607-1975) and create a 15 minutes video presentation/lecture via ARC/Studio in Canvas. The topic choice is the student's decision (within the class's subject area), but it must be reached in consultation with the instructor. The objective of the presentation is to highlight the soldier, sailors, or airman's leadership quality with evidence from their career. Be sure to highlight their combat experience and their leadership style. It might also include who their mentors were. Students should get to the library early and begin searching out sources they can base their research on. There needs to be a bibliography slide in the presentation. There should be a written script submitted via Canvas as well as posting the video.

Each individual must be approved via email by Dr. Hemmis by week 4.

Important Reminder

No late assignments will be accepted unless extreme circumstances. Extensions maybe granted if asked before 48 hours of the due date.

Essays must comply with the following formatting guidelines. Writing assignments are due on the day and time on Canvas. Essays must be submitted via Canvas.

To be excused without penalty, documentation is required. In certain other circumstances, I will allow you to turn in an assignment early or take an exam in advance, but you must see me as soon as possible. Do not wait until the last possible minute.

Incomplete Policy :

Students that find themselves facing an unexpected, life altering circumstance before the drop deadline should drop the course. Should a student encounter an unexpected, life altering circumstance after the drop deadline, that student may be eligible for an incomplete so long as all
