University Library
The University Library provides many services in support of research across campus and at a distance. We offer over 200 electronic databases containing approximately 250,000 eBooks and 82,000 journals, in addition to the 85,000 items in our print collection, which can be mailed to students who live more than 50 miles from campus. Research guides for each subject taught at A&M-Central Texas are available through our website to help students navigate these resources. On campus, the library offers technology including cameras, laptops, microphones, webcams, and digital sound recorders.

Research assistance from a librarian is also available 24 hours a day through our online chat service, and at the reference desk when the library is open. Research sessions can be scheduled for more comprehensive assistance, and may take place on Skype or in-person at the library. Assistance may cover many topics, including how to find articles in peer-reviewed journals, how to cite resources, and how to piece together research for written assignments.

Our 27,000-square-foot facility on the A&M-Central Texas main campus includes student lounges, private study rooms, group work spaces, computer labs, family areas suitable for all ages, and many other features. A Note about Sexual Violence at A&M-Central Texas
Sexual violence is a serious safety, social justice, and public health issue. The university offers support for anyone struggling with these issues. University faculty are mandated reporters, so if someone discloses that they were sexually assaulted (or a victim of Domestic/Dating Violence or Stalking) while a student at TAMUCT, faculty members are required to inform the Title IX Office. If you want to discuss any of these issues confidentially, you can do so through Student Counseling (254-501-5955) located on the second floor of Warrior Hall (207L).

Sexual violence can occur on our campus because predators often feel emboldened, and victims often feel silenced or shamed. It is incumbent on ALL of us to find ways to actively create environments that tell predators we don’t agree with their behaviors and tell survivors we will support them. Your actions matter. Don’t be a bystander; be an agent of change. For additional information on campus policy and resources visit the Title IX webpage.

Behavioral Intervention
Texas A&M University-Central Texas cares about the safety, health, and well-being of its students, faculty, staff, and community. If you are aware of individuals for whom you have a concern, please make a referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team. Referring your concern shows you care. You can complete the referral online [https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?TAMUCentralTexas&layout_id=2]. Anonymous referrals are accepted. Please see the Behavioral Intervention Team website for more information. If a person’s behavior poses an imminent threat to you or another, contact 911 or A&M-Central Texas University Police at 254-501-5805.

INSTRUCTOR POLICIES

Copyright Notice:
Students should assume that all course material is copyrighted by the respective author(s). Reproduction of course material is prohibited without consent by the author and/or course instructor. Violation of copyright is against the law and Texas A&M University-Central Texas' Code of Academic Honesty. All alleged violations will be reported to the Office of Student Conduct.

Class Policies: Attendance & Late Work

 Attendance, punctuality, and participation are required. Being prepared to participate includes completing assigned reading and bringing necessary textbooks, assignments and materials to class. Remember to bring a positive attitude, a willingness to learn and change your mind.

Attendance:
More than three (3) class absences will result in a loss of professionalism points and possibly lowering the final points by one letter grade. More than four (4) absences will result in a loss of professionalism points and may result in failure of the class. Two partial absences will equal one absence. Students missing class are responsible for notes, handouts, assignments and any changes in schedules and/or the syllabus. Find a reliable classmate who will take notes, collect handouts, and provide pertinent information if you must be absent.

If a student has extenuating circumstances and contacts me in a timely manner, the absence may be excused. If the student does not communicate to me the reason (generally) for the absence, it will more than likely be considered unexcused. Therefore, please contact me to discuss any absence. Generally, excused absences will require documentation.

Late Work:
The professor will deduct 10% of the possible assigned points if an assignment is past due. Ten percent will be deducted each additional day the assignment is late. Supplemental assignments are not available. Be aware of the time and date each assignment is due.

Late work will be accepted without penalty only under extreme extenuating circumstances. This information will be communicated to the professor in a timely manner (no more than two days after the due date) and directly from the student who will be or who is absent. The professor will not accept information from another student. If extenuating circumstances prevent a student from completing an assignment(s) by the due date, medical or other documentation is required.
Uncooperative Technology
If your computer or other device displays defiant tendencies, eats your homework, or exhibits other inappropriate behaviors, use a TAMUCT computer lab, the TAMUCT library, or a local library to complete your assignments. If an assignment is due on Canvas, you may email or print a hard copy of the assignment and send or bring it to me if necessary. All media are due on the required day and time.

Academic Integrity:
The professor will adhere to the University's policy of Academic Integrity.

This syllabus is an overview of the course, a description of the learning tasks, and an explanation of university policy. The professor reserves the right to amend the syllabus during the term.

Be cognizant of Canvas Announcements and all emails that may indicate changes to the syllabus and the class.
